From the Rochester Democrat. FOUR HOURS OF PERIL AND TERROR. Rescue from the brink of the Cataract ! We have heard of many "awful situations" and Providential rescuce," but none more truly awful han that which we are now about to describe, nor of rescue in all respects more strikingly Providential. Mr. Kidd, one of the hands employed in he flouring mill of Avery & Thurber, just bove the middle falls of the Gennessee, in he north part of this city (Carthage) after ark, a few evenings since, took the skiff belonging to mill, and without communicatng his design to any one, attempted to cross the river. To improve the water power at that point, a dam has been thrown eross a few feet above the middle cataract. and at low water the current for some disance above the dam, is slight. When the water is high, however, a strong current sets over the dam through its whole length, and hen none but a person accustomed to manage boat, can push one across. The river was very high on the evening in question. To add to the difficulty, Mr. Kidd had little exand found, to his horror, that he was rapidly respecting Kidd's situation.

To rescue him from it if possible was now the object. Some time was spent in trying to construct a raft; but as an attempt to bring him off by a craft so unmanageable, would making it, than chance of deliverance to him. the project was abandoned.

One of the party now volunteered an attempt, which his courage made successful .--is, as he advanced, and with which he was to be drawn back if necessary, he bravely ventured in the water. Making his way slowly and cautiously along the inner slope of the dam, he at length reached the boat still suspended and swinging with its half doom. eil passenger, where it was first providentially moored ; and by means of rope, po'e and oars, the whole were safely brought ashore, and Mr. Kidd was restored as it were to life, after enduring the mental sufferings, the perils and terrors of his situation, more painful if possible, than death itself, for about four hours. Some idea of his intense suffering during that time, may be derived from the fact, that he has been siek in consequence of them ever since. He is doubtless thankful to have escaped even with a fit of sickness. We have not learned the name of the noble and generous man through whose agency his OFFICE LITERART FUND OF N. CAROLINA, January 27th, 1841.

At a meeting of the President and Directors of the iterary Fund, it was ordered that Dentors to this Board, for monies loaned, be required to renew their Notes regularly at the time they fall due; and that one-tenth of the whole principal will be required at each renewal.

The Board are compelled to this course to procure funds to meet the current expenses of draining the Swamp Lands now in progress.

To correct an erroneous impression which seems to prevail, from the number of applications to borrow money from the Literary Fund they state that they have no authority to lend any portion of the funds entrusted to their care, except such portion of the $200,000 appropriated to drain the Swamp Lands, as may not be wanted for immediate use. All this fund has been loaned sometime since, and they are now compelled to draw in a portion of it to meet the necessary expenses. They expect to have no more funds to loan. JAS: T. LITTLEJOHN, Sec'y. 10-3w Star inseif.
