SUBSCRIPTION .- Five Dollars per annum-half in COURT ORDERS and JUDICIAL Advertisements will

Advertisements, inserted in the Semi-Weekly REG-STER will also appear in the Weekly Paper, free of WASHINGTON IRVING'S " Early exrest. This exciting story was well termd by the editor " a species of Mountjoy of the west," or the lovers of Ralph Ringwood, are scarcely less est introduction to the lovely maiden who was to ave so great an influence on his after life.

hond; at that time I was too much of a boy personage in this rough assemblage. uite daunted while they fascinated me. I could have hugged the raseal. on't know what put it in my head, but I ie if I did not get it.

I gave no time for the thought to cool, but ntered the house and stepped lightly into he room. She was seated with her back to he door, looking out of the window, and id not hear my approach. I tapped her hair, and as she turned and looked up, I natched as sweet a kiss as ever was stolen. nd I vanished in a twinkling. The next noment I was on horseback, galloping homevard, my very heart tingling at what I had

After a variety of amusing adventures, Ringwood attempts the study of law, in an bscure settlement in Kentucky, where he elved night and day. Ralph pursues his tudies, occasionally argues at a debating soiety, and at length becomes quite a genius, nd a favorite in the eyes of the married laies of the village.

"I called to take tea one evening with one these ladies, when to my surprise and omewhat to my confusion, I found with her he identical blue eyed beauty whom I had udaciously kissed. I was formally introuced to her, but neither of us betrayed any gn of previous acquaintance except by ushing to the eyes. While tea was getting ady, the lady of the house went out of the om to give some directions and left us alone. leavens and earth what a situation ! I would ave given all the pittance I was worth, to ave been in the deepest dell of the forest. felt the necessity of saying something in xcuse for my former rudeness; I could not onjure up an idea, nor utter a word. Every oment matters were growing worse, I felt one time tempted to do as I had done hen I had robbed her of the kiss-bolt from ne room, and take to flight; but I was chaind to the spot, for I really longed to gain her er equally confused with myself, and walkng desperately up to her I exclaimed :

"I have been trying to muster up somehing to say to you, but I cannot. I feel that am in a horrible scrape. Do have pity on me and help me out of it !"

A smile dimpled about her mouth, and played among the blushes of her cheek. She eye, that expressed a volume of comic recolections; we both broke into a laugh, and rom that moment all went on well.

succeeded, we proceed to the donouement of quitted. Ringwood's love affair—the marriage and he settlement.

and both almost without a dollar in the world. ed down a bully and kicked him out of doors, e charged 25 per cent higher; but a deduction of 33 way of business-but how was I to go? I wotes, and a horse that I afterwards sold for er cent, will be made from the regular prices, for ad- had expended all my means on our establish. two hundred dollars more. ment, and then it was hard parting with my wife so soon after marriage. However, go and with more delight. I locked the door I must. Money must be made, or we would of my room, piled the money in a heap upon Letters to the Editor must be rost-paid.

Ingly berrowed a horse, and borrowed a title cash, and rode off from my door leaving my wife standing at it, and waying her hand after me. He last look so sweet and becomfine, went to any heart. I felt as if I could go the poor it. Was I thinking of the money?—No—I was thinki ingly borrowed a horse, and borrowed a little elbows on the table, and my chin upon my commence on the following day.

erience of Ralph Ringwood," is continued with er, a mere youngster, was to make way in I was delighting myself with the thoughts of ken pro confesso against them and heard accordingly. in the country who gather together on such should spend all the money I had borrowed occasions. There was some drinking going and should return in debt. socical than those of Mountjoy himself. Here is the forward, with a great hoise and a little altercation. Just as I entered the room, I saw a rough bully of a fellow, who was partly in- ter, who, when he returns from the chase, "I had taken my breakfast and was wast- toxicated, strike an old man. He came never for a time speaks of his success. She ear the window, evidently a visiter. She and kicked him into the street. I needed no self at an old fashioned desk in one corner, vas very pretty, with auburn hair and blue better introduction. In a moment I had a and began to count over my money and put yes, and was dressed in white. I had seen half dozen rough shakes of the hand and in- it away. She came to me before I had fin- othing of the kind since I had left Rich. vitations to drink, and found myself quite a ished, and asked me who I had collected be struck by female beauty. She was so The next morning the Court opened-I elicate and dainty looking, so different from took my seat among the lawyers, but felt as fected coolness; I made it at Court, hale buxom brown girls of the woods- a mere spectator, not having any idea where She looked me for a moment in the face nd then her white dress! it was so dazzling! business was to come from. In the course incredulously. I tried to keep my counte-Never was a poor youth so taken by sur- of the morning a man was put to the bar, nance and play the Indian but it would not rise, and suddenly bewitched. My heart charged with passing counterfeit money, and do. My muscles began to twitch; my feel may favor him with their patronage. earned to know her, but how was I to ac- was asked if he was ready for trial. He ings all at once gave way, I caught her in ost her ? I had grown wild in the woods, answered in the negative. He had been con- my arms, laughed, cried, and danced about debts of the old firm should be settled as speedily as nd had none of the habitudes of polite life. fined in a place where there were no law- the room like a crazy man. From that time ad she been like Peggy Pugh, or Sally yers, and had not had an opportunity of forward we never wanted for money." igman, or any other of my leathern dress. consulting any. He was told to choose from d belles of the pigeon roost, I should have the lawyers present, and be ready for trial on pproached her without dread; nay had she the following day. He looked around the een as fair as Shurt's daughters with their Court and selected me. I could not tell why oking-glass lockets, I should not have hesi- he should make such a choice. I, a beardless sted; but that white dress, and those auburn youngster, unpractised at the bar : perfectly inglets, and blue eyes and delicate looks unknown. I felt diffident, yet delighted, and withered leaves had long since been dispersed to the

Before leaving the Court, he gave me one hought all at once I would kiss her! It hundred dollars in a bag, as a retaining fee. heer robbery. Nobody knew me here. I but lightly in favor of his innocence-but france. would just step in and snatch a kiss, mount that was no affair of mine. I was to be adny horse and ride off. She would not be vocate, not judge or jury. I followed him to he worse of it; and that kiss-oh, I should the jail, and learned from him all the particu- Miss Leontine de Crillon was to be married lars of the case; from thence I went to the to the Prince of Clermont-Tommerre; the clerk's office, and took minutes of the in- marriage gifts were to be magnificent. I redictment. I then examined the law on the ceived an order to make a dress for the bride, subject, and prepared my brief in my room. it was to be a chef d'œuvre. Splendid lace. All this occupied me until midnight, when I pearls, gimp-all the marvels of the art of went to bed and tried to sleep. It was all in dress making were to be united. But somevain. Never in my life was I more wide thing more rare at that time was wanting; i awake. A host of thoughts and fancies kept was a natural rose-a rose at the end of rushing through my mind: the shower of gold | February ! that had so unexpectedly fallen into my lap. Judge. - And Miss Flora engaged to prothe idea of my poor little wife at home, that cure one for you? But the awful responsibility I had undertaken, ers, and often sells them to the great millin-able fellow.

I got up feverish and nervous, I walked out before breakfast, striving to collect my thoughts, and tranquilize my feelings. It was a bright morning—the air was pure and frosty-I bathed my forehead and my hands in a beautiful running stream, but I could not allay the fever heat that raged within. I returned to breakfast, but could not eat. single cup of coffee formed my repast. It was time to go to court, I went there with a truth. throbbing heart. I believe if it had not been for the thoughts of my little wife in her lonely house, I should have given back to the man his hundred dollars, and relinquished the cause. I took my seat, looking, I am convinced, more like a culprit than the rogue was to defend.

When the time came for me to speak my heart died within me. I rose embarrassed and dismayed, and stammered in opening my cause. I went on from bad to worse, At length I plucked up courage on seeing then the public prosecutor, a man of talents, and felt as if I was going down hill. Just but somewhat rough in his practice, made sarcastic remark on something I had said,-It was like an electric spark, and ran tingling through every vein in my body. In an instant my diffidence was gone. My whole spirit was in arms. I answered with promptness and bitterness, for I felt the cruelty of such an attack upon a novice in my situation, coked up with a shy but arch glance of the The public prosecutor made a kind of apology,-This, for a man of his redoubled powers, was a vast concession, I renewed my argument with a fearful glow, carried Passing the delightful description which cause triumphantly, and the man was ac-

This was the making of me. Every body was curious to know who this new lawyer "That very autumn I was admitted to the was, that had suddenly risen among them, bar, and a month afterwards was married.— and bearded the Attorney General at the very We were a young couple, she not much onset. The story of my debut at the Inn more than sixteen, and I not quite twenty, on the preceding evening, when I had knock- of course, second hand.

The establishment was well suited to our | for striking an old man, was circulated with | Ctate of North Carolina .- Craven Councircumstances; a low house with two small favorable exaggeration. Even my beardless rooms, a bed, a table, a half dozen chairs, a chin and juvenile countenance was in my half dozen knives and folks, a half dozen favor, for the people gave me far more credit spoons every thing by the half dozens, a than I deserved. The chance business which little delph ware, every thing in a small way; occurs in our Courts, came thronging apon we were so poor, but then so happy. . . me. I was repeatedly employed in other We had not been married many days when causes, and by Saturday night, when the a Court was held in a county town, about Court closed, and I had paid my bill at the twenty-five miles distant. It was necessary linn, I found myself with an hundred and fifty for me to go there, and put myself in the dollars in silver, three hundred dollars in soon have the wolf at our door. I accord the table, and walked around it, sat with my

the county town on a cool October evening. castles. As soon as morning dawned, I was The inn was crowded, for the court was to up, mounted the borrowed horse with which I had come to court on, and led the other I knew no one, and wondered how I, a strang- which I had received as a fee. All the way such a crowd, and to get business. The surprise I had in store for my little wife; for public room was thronged with all the idlers both of us had expected nothing but that I

Our meeting was joyous, as you may supmoney for.

For myself, to be sure, replied I with af-

THE TWO WHITE ROSES,

OR AN AFFECTIONATE GIRL. The following case was brought last Spring, before the Justice of Peace of the fourth District of Paris. The object of the dispute was two white roses, whose Madame Gallienn, mantua-maker,-I demand thirty francs (six dollars) damages from yould take a long acquaintance to arrive at I could scarcely believe my senses, it seemed Miss Flora Minville, for having caused me uch a boon, but I might seize upon it by like a dream. The heaviness of the fee spoke to lose an order worth one hundred and fifty Judge. Explain the facts.

Madame-Yes sir. About two months ago

I was to astonish her with my good fortune. Madame. Yes, sir, she cultivates flowto speak for the first time in a strange court, ers of the Capital. I went to her, and she the expectations the culprit had formed of promised to let me have one of the two roses my talents, all these, and a crowd of similar she then possessed for twenty-five francs, notions, kept whirling through my mind. I which sum was to be paid on delivery. I tossed about all night, fearing the morning depended on her promise, but she did not would find me exhausted and incompetent- keep it faithfully; for I did not receive the in a word, the day dawned on me a miser- rose, and for that reason they refused to take the wedding dress.

Judge - (To Miss Flora.) - Why did you not deliver the rose ? Miss Flora, with timidity .- It was not my fault. The evening before the day on which I had promised the white rose to Madame Gallienn, a shower which took place during my absence, made the flower expand. and some hours afterwards nothing remained of it but the stem. What I tell you is the Judge.-I believe you, young girl, But the second rose, could you not have delivered that?

Miss Flors, (with tears in her eyes) .- Oh! as to that one, it was not promised. Madame Gallienn would certainly have accepted it, for it was the most beautiful of the two,but I could not give it. It was destined for my mother.

ludge. Was it her birth-day? Miss Flora, (sorrowfully) .- No, sir, it was the anniversary of her death. (Profound sensation in the auditory.) Every year I lay on her tomb one of those white roses which she so much loved. This year I did the same. said to myself, the bride will be as handsome with a flower less, and my poor mother shall again to-day have her favorite rose. Here Miss Flora shed abundant tears, and Madame Gallienn, endeavoring to console her, said to the Judge-"Stop the cause, sir. t is wrong for me to molest the poor girl for good action; let us say no more about it it is a misfortune that cannot be helped. Al that I wish for compensation, is, to have a daughter like Miss Flora."

The Justice of the Peace, much affected, sent away the parties without any further

Imperial size, with Iron Platen and Bed, may be second having resigned from ill health. PRINTERS.—A Patent Ramage Press. btained at this Office-Price $100. Also, a common Ramage Medium Press-Price $50. Both are, ty. County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions ebruary Term, A. D. 1841.

Francis Downing, John Downing and Jane, his wife, (the said Jane the daughter and only child of Dawson Downing,) Bernard, John, Edward and Jane Donnelly, (who are the children of Barbara Donnelly, otherwise Downing,) Edward Donnelly, son of Mary Donnelly, (otherwise Downing,) John, Samuel, Robert and Edward Downing, (children of Jane Downing,)

John M. Roberts, Administrator of Edward Downing, Rose Quin, (widow of James Quin, and daughter of Mary Donnelly.) Michael McClernon and Sally his wife, (the said Sally being also the daughter of said Mary Donnelly,) James, Dawson and Francis Downing, (who were sons of Jane Downing aforesaid,) DEFENDANTS.

It being proved to the Court, that the Defendants. Rose Quin, (widow of James Quin,) Michael Mc son Downing and Francis Downing, appear at the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Craven County, at the Court-house in Newbern, on the second Monday of May next, and plead, answer or demur to the said petition, otherwise the same will be ta-Witness, James G. Stanly, Clerk of said Court, at NENCING. BROAD-SWORD EXERCISE. &c.-CHE. GRIMME, recently Instructor of Our meeting was joyous, as you may sup- Fencing, Gymnastics, &c. at the University of Vir-pose; but I played the part of an Indian hun- gima, informs the citizens of Raleigh, that he is desirous of obtaining a limited class of Gentlemen, to whom he will give instruction in Fencing with the Foil, and ing for my horse, when, in passing up and swaggering by me, and elbowed me as he had prepared a snug little rustic meal for me, military Musket Fencing, and Sparring. He can passed. I immediately knocked him down, and while it was getting ready, I seated my produce satisfactory testimonials of his ability to instruct in the above named branches.

Newbern, the second Monday of February, A. D. 1841.

J. G. STANLY, Clerk.

For terms, apply at the Fancy Store of Messrs. G. W. & C. Grimme. Raleigh. March 30.

W. TOWLES, having bought the entire stock of the late firm, will continue the business at the same stand, a few doors above the New Market

His friends, and the public generally, are respectfully solicited to call and examine his Goods, as his object will be to give entire satisfaction to all who It is absolutely necessary that the possible. He hopes "a word to the wise," in this case, will prove "sufficient." March 24, 1841.

DANIEL R. GOODLOE-Attorney at Law-Has located at Louisburg, N. C. and will attend the Courts of Franklin and Granville REFERENCES: Hon. R. B Gilliam, Oxford, N. C. R. & R. H. Kingsbury, Shaw & King, N. Patterson, Louisburg, N. C.

R. Noble, Quin & W. L. Morton, Petersburg, Va. Dunn, McIlwaine & Brownley, Louisburg, N. C. March 27.

PRING SUPPLY.—The subscriber is now receiving per every arrival, his Spring supply of Boots, Shoes and Saddlery. direct from the Manufactories. His stock having been as usual, carefully selected by himself, warrants him in saving he can and will offer it upon very reasonable COUNTRY MERCHANTS and others are invited to call and examine, as he will always take great pleasure in showing his Goods.

D. R. NEWSOM. Petersburg, April 1, 1841-

Feet of Flooring 20.000 Weatherboard and Pannel Plank-Clear of Knots and Splitsfor sale at Fosten's MILLS. 17 miles North of Raigh. The Subscriber has the above Lumber, mostly seasoned, together with a large and increasing as sortment of other descriptions, which he will sell for a lower price, than the same article can be bought in Wake. The larger the bill, the lower the price .-Prompt attention to all orders addressed to the Subcriber, P. M. Wakefield A. J. FOSTER.

ISSOLUTION.—The Co-partnership heretofore existing between the Subscribers, has been dissolved by mutual consent, so far as relates to the GROCERY business. The ownership and Co-partnership in the Billiard Table still remains as before. The Grocery business will, for the future, be carried on by R. FINDLATER on his own account. All per sons indebted to the late Firm of FINDLATER & MIL-LER will settle their accounts with R. MILLER, who is fully authorized to adjust the same. R FINDLATER,

R. MILLER. Raleigh, April 6, 1841.-6w29

EDAINTING. &c .- The Subscribers are pre pared to execute all kinds of HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTING. Imitations of every variety of Marble, and of all kinds of Wood; also, Painting, Paper-hanging, Gilding, Glazing, &c. &c. attended to at the shortest notice, and done in a superior style of workmanship.

Persons wishing Painting of any description executed, by calling at the Shop next door to the Bank of the State, may expect to have it done to their entire satisfaction. C. & S. FRAZIER. Raleigh, March 1, 1841. 19 6m INSOLUTION. - The Copartnership hare Ttofore existing under the firm of Towles & Callum, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons indebted to us, are requested to make payment immediately to James M. Towles, who alone is ginia and North Carolina. It has been remarked by authorized to settle the business, and who will also some of the most distinguished Musicians in the Uniattend to all the demands against the concern. JAMES M. TOWLES. JAMES R. CALLUM.

ost of Mislaid, a Note of hand, given about February, 1836, (and due some time during the next winter,) by the late Augustin Norwood. to Dr. S. S. Perry, for $50, which Note was purchase

- 25tf

March 22, 1841.

Wake County, April 14.

by me for a valuable consideration. The public are cautioned against trading for said Note, as the sole right thereto is in me. SION ROGERS.

PHILANTHROPIC HALL.

April 3, 1841.

James C. Bruce, Esq. has accepted the appointment of the Philanthropic Society, to deliver the Appual Address before the Alumni and Graduating Class of the University of North Carolina, on the day

W. F. MARTIN, A. W. SPAIGHT, W. A. BELL, Committee of Correspondence.

State of North Carolina

By His Excellency, John M. Morehend; Governor, Captain General and Commer-in-Chief, in and oper the State

HEREAS, I have been duly informed by the Proclamation of His Excellency, WILLIAM HERET HARRISON, President of the United States, that the last Monday of May next, (being the 31st day thereof,) has been fixed upon by him for the meeting of the first Session of the twenty-seventh Congress of the United States: an event which renders it expedient and necessary that the Elections for the Representatives from this State in the next Congress should be held at an parlier day than the usual time of holding said Elections: Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority in me rested, by an Act of the General Assembly of this State vested, by an Act of the General Assembly of this State entitled "An Act concerning the mode of choosing Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States," (Revised Statutes of N. C. Chapter 72d,) and to the end, that the Freemen of this State may be duly represented in the next Congress, at its first session commencing as aforesaid, I do issue this liveniches; He wishes also to be form the inhabitants of the congress of the congress of the Cape Fear Bank, would respectfully inform the public that he intends carrying on the Copper, Time and Sheet Iron Ware Manufactory in all its various branches; He wishes also to be form the inhabitants Proclamation, hereby commanding and requiring all Sheriffs and other Returning Officers of the several Counties composing each Congressional District, to cause Polls to be opened and kept, and Elections to be held, for Representatives to the next Congress of the United States, on Thursday, the thirteenth day of May next, at the places established by law in their respective Counties, for helding said Elections. And I defer the places established by law in their respective Counties, for helding said Elections. And I defer the states and others wanting articles in his line, are respectfully invited to call before they purchase also where. Old work neatly repaired, and at the short-respective Counties, for helding said Elections. And I defer the call his Wares as low as can be purchased in any Northern city, by wholesels or retail; for Cash.—Merchants and others wanting articles in his line, are respectfully invited to call before they purchase also where, and are considered in the constant of the counties of the cash of the counties are constant. further command and require said Sheriffs, and other Returning Officers, to meet for the purpose of comparing the Polls, at the times and places prescribed by law for that purpose. And I do, by this, my Proclama-tion, further "require the Freemen of this State, to meet in their respective Counties, at the time" aforesaid, and "at the places established by law, then and there to give their votes for Representatives," in the next Congress.

In testimony whereof I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and signed the Done at the City of Raleigh, this the twenty-second day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and of the Independence of the United States the sixty-fifth.

J. M. MOREHEAD. By the Governor: JAT T. LITTLEJOHN, P. Sec'y.

Sugar and Molasses. HHDS, PRIME N. O. SUGAR. 50 HHDS, Pl

32 Tierces, 62 Barrels, Landing from Brig J. Cohen, Jr. direct from New Orleans—which, having been purchased on the Plantation on the very best terms, will be sold at prices to 700 Bags Laguira, old Java and Rio Coffee. 35 Hhds. prime P. R. Sugar, 10 do Cuba Refined do.

400 Kegs Cut Nails, With a very general and heavy supply of all articles usually kept by Grocers, which we will sell on pleasing terms.

PEEBLES, HALL & CO.

Petersburg, March 31, 1841. Aranklin School. (Classical and Eng-LISH.)-My School Room being now completed. I take the opportunity to make known the terms and conditions upon which I shall hereafter conduct 1st. Every Classical or Mathematical Student will pay me $17 00 a session of five months. All others

2d. No student, over sixteen, will be received without an assurance on the part of himself or Parent, of good behaviour, attention to business, and an orderly obedience to the rules of the School.

3d. No deduction of price to be made for absence unless caused by protracted sickness. 4th. Only thirty students to be at any time in 5th: From April to September, time occupied in school, 71 hours. The remaining part of each session.

I take this public manner of pledging myself to the faithful performance of my own part, in preparing for College those who desire it, and in giving useful knowledge to others; always bearing in mind those cardinal branches of learning, to wit: Reading, Spelling, English Grammar and Arithmetic. private hours. A Class of Young Ladies would gladly attended at their own residence.

JOHN Y. HICKS. Raleigh, April 1, 1841.

A CARD.

W & W. H. RICHARDSON, EXTENSIVE UMBRELLA MANUFACTURERS,

Respectfully inform their customers and Merchants generally, that they have for sale a large and superior Stock of SILK & COTTON UMBRELLAS, com-nising some thousands of every description, which, with a handsome assortment of PARASOLS, (part which are manufactured of Silk imported expressly by themselves,) will, they trust, be found worthy the attention of their customers and the Public, as they will sell at the lowest prices, and warrant their Goods to be of such manufacture as can be depended . All orders will receive particular and prompt

February 17, 1841-1f

REAT IMPROVEMENTS .- STOD-TART, WORCESTER & DUNHAM'S PIano Fortes. E. P. Nash, sole Agent for Virted States, that few instruments are to be found in any country equal to those made by Stodart, Worcester & Dunham, New York. Their tone is remarkably soft, sweet and mellow, and at the same time powerful.-They are made with particular reference to durability and keeping in tune.

E. P. NASH, Petersburg.

ASHINGTON HOTEL —HAVING bought the Washington Hotel, I therefore that the community at large, will give me a liberal share of their public patronage, and try me, and see if I do not use every method to render them comortable and happy, while in my house. Great prinn ises are seldom redeemed; therefore, I shall make none, but invite all to stop and try for themselves

19-till May let. ling House, in an eligible part of the City. Also, for hire, a good Oook and Washer-woman, and Servant but to wait in the House. Possession given tely. Apply at this Office, and all THE NORTH CAROLINA BOOK STORE Raleigh, March 5, 1841.

terins, an Elegant STORE ROOM, and several comfortable upper Rooms in his New Brick Building.

of Raleigh and its vicinity, that he can, and is deter-

Creppet, Tin and Zine Routing on the N. B. Orders from

Raleigh; July 26, 1848

The Subscriber also offers for sale at his Facility a few of those very valuable Steamers, known to be the surest remedy for clearing Bedsteads of these tor-menting Bugs. The Chince Steamer is made only by himself, and is warranted never to butst, and at all times to clear Bedsteads perfectly, without the leas damage to the finest carved work.

Having had in use the above Machine, for many years. I have no hesitation in saying, that it is the best means that has ever been formed for destroying Chinces, and would recommend every person to use it

This will certify, having frequently used Mr. J. F Kirkhan's Chince Steamer, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a simple and easy way to destroy them, and without any damage to the Furniture. F. G. MARSHALL.

Halifax, July 25, 1840. han a long, put 69 ALEES INSTITUTE. The citizen of Raleigh and North Catolina generally, are respectfully informed that the Raleigh Institute, an English, Classical and Mathematical Preparatory Day School for Boye of every ege, will be opened (agreeably to the wishes of Parents and the absolute necessity of the occasion, in one of the Episcopal School Buildings, so delightfully situated, and within ten minutes walk of the Capitol, on the lat day of January, 1841.

Per Session of 5 months, payable in advance, wil e as follows: the white

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT: For the usual Branches of the English Course, inluding Composition, Letter Writing, &c. $15 00 CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT:

For the Preparatory Course for entrance into any University in the United States, including the full English Course, with Mathematics & Elecution, $20.00 No deduction will be made for absence, unless pro racted sickness be the cause, The degradation of corporal punishment will be entirely dispensed with, except in very obstinate cases, which the Proprietor trusts will be very few, providing

No charge made for fuel or servant hire. Hours of attendance from 9 A, M. to 12, and from ROBT. GRAY, INFANT SCHOOL, -The Infant School under the superintendence of Mrs. Pray, from Philadelphia, will be opened as early in the Spring as the weather will permit.

Spelling, English Grammar and Arithmetic.

In addition to the above, I would be glad to have a Class of Young Gentlemen to attend and recite at private hours. A Class of Young Ladies would be aladly attended at their own residence.

Reading, The abuses which have crept into the system will be rejected, and the plan of Pestalozzi will be pursued as much as possible, namely, to develops the powers of the mind by presenting ideas and not a mere mass of words. The memory will be exercised, but not over taxed. As central a location as can be ocured, will chosen for the School Children will be admitted from the age of three to

TERRE-The first Class, which will embrace the elements of Natural History, History, Natural Phiesophy, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammer, Writing, and Drawing, per Session, Second Class, Third Class, Those who wish to putronize the School, will e so good as to send their names to Miss Muttan, at Mr. LeMessurier's, corner of Morgan and Salisbu Peh, 19.

HATS! HATS!! HATS!!! WOLFE & DENISON, Bourne their friends and the public generally, that they are now in possession of their Spring supply of Hats, Caps, drs. embracing every variety usually kept in similar est ments. Among which may be found, Fashr super. Black Beaver Hats, latest style do Nutria do do Moleskin do do and wide brim Brush do do pl. Russia do Youth's and Children's do, various

Also, an extensive assortment of Leg Palm Leaf Hate, of every description, Gents, fine cloth, velvet and glazed Caps, various p

Petersburg, March 25

BW LAW BOOMS .- English Con Leigh's Nisi Prins, 2 Vols. Just received at: and swine , of the manha

VERY TIGHTLY BOUND