ELOQUENCE AND HUMOUR OF PATRICK HENRY -- BY WIRT. Hook was a Scotchman, a man of wealth, and suspected of being unfriendly to the American cause. During the distresses of the American army, consequent on the joint invasion of Cornwallis and Phillips in 1781. Mr. Venable, an army commissary, had taken two of Hook's steers for the use of the troops. The act had not been strictly legal; and, on the establishment of peace, Hook, on the advice of Mr. Cowan, a gentleman of some distinction in the law, thought proper to bring an action of tresspass against Mr. Venable, in the district court of New London. Mr. Henry appaered for the defendant, and is said to have deported himself in this cause to the infinite enjoyment of his hearers, the unfortunate Hook always excep- tofore. ted. After Mr. Henry became animated in the cause, says a correspondent, he appeared to have complete control over the passions of his audience : at one time he excited their indignation against Hook: vengeance was visible in every countenance, again, when he tel. SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

Leave Lynchburg Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 7 A. M. and arrive at Scottsville by 10 P. M. and into Richmond next day by 4 P. M. By this arrangement, passengers for Tennessee Gayandette, will not be detained in Lynchburg, as heretotore. Our Boats will also connect with the lines of Stages from Scottsville to Staunton. This is now the cheapest and best route to the different Virginia Springs, and offers many other inducements to travellers for preference.

The invalid will be pleased with his easy, comfortsble and safe passage; the beautiful and romantic scenery will delight the admirers of nature, and the rich, far famed and highly cultivated James River low grounds and highlands, will gratify the agriculturist and man of taste. On our arrival at Lynchburg, passengers have a choice of two routes to the White Sulphur Springs, with an assurance that all shall be sent on-two lines of Stages running over the Natura! Bridge and by Dibbrell's Springs, and the other by Liberty, Fincastle and the Sweet Springs.
