Weston M. Wales,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TRRMS.

SUBSCRIPTION. Five Dollars per annum-half in

ADVERTISEMENTS .- For every 16 lines, first inserion, One Dollar; each subsequent insertion, 25 cents COURT UNDERS and JUDICIAL Advertisements will e charged 25 per cent higher; but a deduction of 334 per cent, will be made from the regular prices, for al- night.

vertisers by the year. Advertisements, inserted in the Semi-Weekly REG-STER will also appear in the Weekly Paper, free of Letters to the Editor must be POST-PAID.

SELECTED FOR THE REGISTER

SHALL I SUCCEED. A LEAF FROM LIFE.

" Hope gets the better of distrust."

"We must part then,' said Rosalie; 'is it Oh! Eugene, I confess I tremble for Thrown out under such circumstances at this time of life, to push your way in the world, what toils, what disappointments and sufferings may await you? What chance can there be for the young, poor and friendless, where prosperity laughs at misfortune, preys upon inexperience ?"

of the great world, my dear Rosalie;" said Eugene smiling. "Suppose we view it in another light: Let us consider it as one vast meritorious.'

'And how many hearts,' rejoined Rosalie sadly, 'are broken in the conflict! How the aspirants ! If one succeeds, yet how many fails! Besides, others have friends to help them on-you have none. None but one, and she can only aid you by her prayers .is solitary before you. Neither influence nor fortune smiles upon it.

. Is it then under the most favourable circomstances that the greatest and most successful characters are formed?' replied Eugene, proudly. . The oak of the mountain or the forest is not matured in a hot-house. but strikes its roots, and rears its branches amid the winds and storms of its native skies. Look around you, Rosalie. Is it the nursling of wealth, of fortune, who has dandled into manhood on the lap of prosperity, who carries away this world's honors, or wins its induences? Or, is it not rather the man whose earlier years, like mine, were scarcely cheered by a single proffer of aid, or smile of approbation, and who has drawn from adversity the elements of greatness? You take it for granted that I shall be weak, unsuccessful, unfortunate. I have the confidence to believe I shall be neither.'

'You know not the future, my dear Eugene. How many misfortunes may be in store for you! And at the best, how many anxieties, how many sorrows, may cluster around your destined path, and must inevitably attend upon the duties and difficulties of the most arduous of professions!'

'Out upon thee, for a bird of ill omen! said Eugene, laughing. Do you not know that fortune ever flees the faint heart? And as to difficulties, the greater the conquestthe greater the glory. You speak of sorrows they are in a degree the common lot to all. But most have friends or other blessings to aid in bearing them.'

But you, if you fail-if your favorable objects elude your grasp-if your vision of ambition flees before you, or vanishes away -if treachery betrays and wounds you : what have you then for consolation ?"

'Hope, Rosalie; hope, and your sweet

'Nonsense—this is nonsense, Eugene.' By your leave, no: and so says that smile which, pardon me-demands return. There! I've done the deed !- and now suffer me to tell you, Rosalie, that there is nothing which industry will not achieve, when combined with perseverance and directed with an undivided aim, to one great object. Think you that poverty is a sure prelude of failure? Do you recollect what Regideau, the counsellor of Josephine, told her on the eve of her marriage with Napoleon? 'You are about to do a very foolish thing, Madame; you are going to marry a man who has not a second shirt to his back!" But you are not exactly a Bonaparte, I apprehead, said Rosalie smiling.

Bonaparte was a soldier, and not a lawyer. He was also aided by a concurrence of accidental circumstances, continued Rosalie. Well, we will talk of lawyers, then. A wealthy English gentleman once asked Lord Kenyon what he thought of the prospects of his son, in the legal profession. Your son does not want talents, was his reply, but he must first spend his own fortune, marry and spend his wife's fortune; and then there will be some hopes of his succeeding at the law!" Now luckily my dear, I have not the pre-

'That's very true, but not very comfortable, Lord Kenyon to the contrary, notwithstanding, said Rosalie.

' A shoemaker !

'And why not, he was two-and-twenty years of age when the idea, or fancy, first struck him-entirely uneducated, except in a common school-poor, and not only dependent, but having others dependent on him. Was not this folly?"

What then ? Why he took his book and placed it before him thus, and with his last upon his knee and his hammer in his hand he read and hammered and read, from morning till

And what was the result?" 'He did become a lawyer.'

'I suspected as much,' said Rosalie. And a member of Congress, continued Eugene, and Chief Justice of this State: in fine'

'In fine ?' 'In fine, Roger Sherman.'

Roger Sherman! exclaimed Rosalie. 'The same.' Shall I speak of Franklin Oh la no,' said Rosalie-this story is worn out already.' 'I could tell you a tale of English lawyers for variety."

. What is it ?" Coke says is no part of England) -- no. I'm hold in regard to the chase of heiresses .embarrassed circumstances, he was unable to best bag foxes, commonly take the same afford his children the advantage of a Univer- course, and the whole of the hounds follow. and glorious amphitheatre; upon whose are- to a grammar school in their native town, the best speed, keep their noses nearest to auspicious beginning?

' Go on-go on,' said Rosalie.

Nav. remember these youths were inter many are trodden down beneath the feet of ded for the bar-in England, too-where the friendless and untitled are obliged to contend with ten times the difficulties which oppose them here. What would Rosalie have said. suppose this John or William were a lover Others have wealth; you are poor; your path of hers, and he were about to leave his home for the metropolis-the great London-to commence the profession in the Inns of

No matter; go on.

Well, John and William occupied the same chambers together, and pursued the same studies. Poor; friendless, and unaided, twelve long tedious years, these (English lawyers, by the by, have to undergo something of a quarantine,) twelve years, they devoted themselves to their solitary pursuits. At the end of that time, the elder was admitted to the bar.

"And how did he succeed?"

Why but badly at first. His awkwardness and timidity stood in his way ; few expected any thing of him, and some even ridiculed his attempts to succeed. But he found a friend. Friends are not such bad things after all my dear. His friend aided in bringing him out, and after some years of obscurity, he suddenly burst upon the world a star of the first magnitude. His business rapidly increased; he became a member of Parliament; then a solicitor general; then attorney general; then Sir John Scott; and

'Then what? Lord Eldon, and Lord Chancellor o England.

And William Was made Judge, and became Lor

Stowell. Both Lords ?

Nothing more nor less, my dear girl .-And the decrees of the one were as right and irreversible as those of Minos, while the decisions of the other are splendid monuments of his genius, acuteness and wisdom.'

Well, perhaps you may succeed. You are certainly sanguine enough: and confidence is half the battle?

You acknowledge so much, do you, my sapient little councellor? But you were speaking of toils, Rosalie. Now as to this matter, I would adduce the opinion of Lord Chancellor King: (I like these great names) whose motto was

· What !'

· Labor ipse voluntas.'

Which being interpreted, doth signify, (as my Lord Coke would say) " Labour is of itself a pleasure.

There is no contending against such au-

'You give it up then do you! said Eu-

Lord Chancellor or Chief Justice ? Not prehend, that with industry and good fortune I may, in the 'Far West,' provide for myself and Rosalie a home and a livelihood. So good bye !-don't cry now; God bless us the following report of a very interesting you my dear girl.'

the printer of a newspaper, in giving direc- and I'll minister the oath- You swear, &c. tions to his apprentice, 'put the 'foreign Mrs. T.: Oh! my! how solum! (Great leaders' into galleys, and lock 'em up-let laughter,) Esq. M.: I ask you, ma'am, if you |-Children and Servants half price. The Rooms and finish the British Minister'-make the say I saw Mr. Jones take his foot away three 'young Princess' to run on with the 'Dutch- times, and the next I saw of Mr. Gow he ess of Kent'-move the 'Kerry hunt' out of was sprawling in the gutter on his hands and What think you, Rosalie? There was a the chase—get your stick and conclude the young shoemaker out here in Connecticut, once on a time, who took it into his head to wash your hands and come in to dinner, and and I shall fine Mr. Jones the costs of court, then see that all the pi is cleared up.'

FORTUNE HUNTING. The following extract from a Foreign Magazine, is applicable to all countries:

One point is easily conceded to me, viz. that the only girl who has a tolerable chance of getting married, is she who has a tolerable fortune. The most angelic beauty may, as the world now goes, glitter in vain, from seventeen till seven and twenty, without receiving a single offer. A young gentleman of the modern cut would as soon think of proposing to the moon. The belle may be as enchanting, and the moon as bright as you please, but both must dwindle away to nothing, and be succeeded by new belles and new moons, doomed to go through the same career of dazzling, and being forgotten in their turn. But no sooner does an heiress come out, than she is provided with a long train of indefatigable danglers. She makes her election. The next rich Miss is accommodated with the same suite of wooers, and you may always know an heiress by her danglers, exactly as you do a commanding officer by his aid-de-camps and his orderlies. When two heiresses are at once on the town, they become, for the time, partners, and have all their stock of lovers in common; as the Roman consuls had their 'All in good time. There dwelt, during fasces, or as Colleague-ministers have their the last century, in the town of Berwick Congregations. I observed before, that two upon Tweed, (which by the way, my Lord | Reynards spoil the sport; but this does not power tramples on weakness, and temptation wrong-in Newcastle upon Tyne, a coal The scent of the pack is too good to be demerchant, or corn merchant, just as you stroyed by any multiplicity of savour. Be "A dreadful picture is that you have drawn please, by the name of Scott. Owing to his sides, the pursued animals which are the sity education, and could only send them like wild geese, at their heels. They have na, genius and industry, exertion and talent, where they accordingly began and completed the brushes, only now and then they will go are striving for the rewards which await the their classical education. Was not this an off the track a little, and then give tongue with a vengeance, by way of misleading those that come after. What a snarling, and growling, and yelping, among the puppies that are thrown out! what a snuffing, and worrying, and wagging of the tail, among the fortunate dogs that get in at the death. But, to drop my similie, the two likeliest admirers'marry the girls, and it is a mere toss up of a penny which marries which. The only thing the lover cares for is the fortune; and all his sagacity is employed in discovering For the usual branches of the English Course, the exact amount of Cash payable on the wedding day. This, to be sure, is a very necessary part of his manœuvre, for there are at least twenty take-ins (as they are called) for one true heiress. In exact proportion to the fortune of the heiress, is the anxiety of every dangler to impose false information upon his fellow. A thousand false reports are in circulation; and he is a clever brother of the trade who can smell out the true state of affairs, in spite of all the contradictory, exaggerating, and underrating rumors, raised by Mothers, and Aunts, and rival beaux, and rival belles, and their Mothers and Aunts.

A SINGULAR ADVENTURE.

Once upon a time a traveller stept into a post coach. He was a young man just starting in life. He found six passengers about him, all of them gray headed and extremely aged men. The youngest appeared to have and other interruptions. seen at least eighty winters. Our young traveller was struck with the singularly mild and happy aspect which distinguished his fellow passengers, and determined to ascertain the secret of long life, and the art of making old age comfortable. He first addressed the one who was apparently the oldest, who told him that he had always led a regular and abstemious life, eating vegetables and drinking water. The young man was rather daunted at this, inasmuch as he liked the good things of this life. He addressed the second who astonished him by saying, he had always eaten roast beef and had gone to bed regularly fuddled for 70 years-adding, that all depends upon regularity. The third had prolonged his days The Governor of N. C. Sec'y. U. S. Navy by never seeking or accepting office—the fourth by resolutely abstaining from political Judge Saunders. or religious controversies and the fifth by C. L. Hinton, Esq. going to bed at sunset and rising at dawn, R. Hines, Esq. The sixth was apparently much younger than the other five-his hair was less gray and there was more of it-a placid smile. denoting a perfectly easy conscience, mantled his face, and his voice was jocund and

They were all surprised to learn that he was by ten years the oldest man in the coach. How," exclaimed our young traveller, how is it you have thus preserved the freshness of life-where there is one wrinkle on your brow there are fifteen on that of each your juniors-tell me, I pray, your secret "Humph I Well never mind, I like splen- Justice, it does not follow that you are to be dabbled in politics and have written religious aid promptly far my newspapers."

heard ex parte.

Witness, Robert L. Whitaker, Clerk of our said Court, at Office, in Halifax Town, this 8th day of paid promptly far my newspapers."

trial in a justices's court :- Esq. M.: Well ma'am, if you are a witness in this 'ere salt Mysterious Profession .- 'Now, Tom, said and batter case, please hold up your hand and three days's work in my garden!

STREET MEETING.

A Sunday newspaper, a few years ago, gave the following characteristic specimen of what he calls " that ancient formula, which may be termed An Englishman's Dialogue."

A. (advancing) How d'ye do, Brooks?

B. Very well, I'm much obliged t'ye; Mrs. Adams and the children are well I

A. Quite well, thank'ee. (A pause.) B. Rather pleasant weather to-day.

A. Yes, but it was cold in the morning. B. Yes, but we must expect that at this ime o'year. (Another pause-neckcloth twisted and give them a call. witched twirled.)

A. Seen Smith lately? B. No, I can't say I have ; but I have seen hompson. A. Indeed-and how is he?

B Very well, thank'ee. A. I'm glad of it-well, good morning.

B. Good morning. Here, it is always observed, that the speakers, having taken leave, walk faster han usual for some hundred yards.

Always courting .- A young lawyer, who had long paid his court to a lady without much advancing his suit, accused her one day of "being insensible to the power of

"It does not follow," she archly replied, that I am so because I am not to be won by the power of attorney."

"Forgive me," replied the suitor, "but you should remember that all the votaries of Cupid are solicitors."

And he might have added that lawyers in practice are always courting.

BALBEGIE ENSTRUTE.

THE next Session of this Day-School for Boys, will open on the 1st of June, and close on 14th of December, 1841.

Per Session of five months, are as follows: COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT. including History, Composition and Letter-

Writing, Natural Philosophy, &c. PROPESSIONAL DEPARTMENT. or the Preparatory Course, for entrance into any University in the United States, including the full English Course, with Elocution, Geometry-Algebra, Chemistry, Botany and

Painting or Drawing, The slavish degradation of Corporal Punishment, so sovereign a Panacea in other establishments, has not, as yet, been deemed expedient in this the Pupils being taught how to think and understand, to act for, respect and govern themselves: thus evidencing in their conduct the best possible testimonial of their own and their Educators' exertions. The Institute is, probably, the most commodiously built, most suitably furnished, and delightfully situated Edifice of the kind in the whole South: possessing the advantage of contiguity to the City, and, at the same time, perfect freedom from all its dust, turmoil,

Payments to be made quarterly in advance, and the esidue at the expiration of each Session—a negligence of this distinct requirement will necessarily create disappointment, and endanger the respectability of the Pupils, who enter in the middle of a month, are charged from the beginning. No deduction made for absence, unless protracted liness be the cause.

No charge made for fuel or servant hire. Board on the premises at $50 a Session-the Pupils finding their own Beds, Bedding and Towels Payments for Tuition and Board, are to be made in full and in advance by Boarders, or those who come

Hours of attendance from 9 to 12 and from 2 to 5 The following gentlemen are among the PATRONS of the School: J. H. Bryan, Esq. Rev. Dr. Mason. Gov. Iredell. E.B. Freeman, Esq. C. Shepard, Esq.

ROBT, GRAY & CHAS, DORATT. RALBIGE INSTITUTE, ? 28th May, 1841.

CTATE OF NORTH CAROLINA-Halifex County: Superior Court of Law and Equity. Spring Term, 1841.

Hardy Gaskins, Petition for Divorce, &c. Penelope Gaskins.

to the satisfaction of the Court that proper steps had been taken to notify the defendant, Penelope Gaskins, of the Petition of plaintiff, Hardy Gaskins, subpænas of long life !" " It is no mystery," said the and alias subpones issuing and returned "not found," old man. "I have drunk water and drunk Proclamation was made by the Sheriff, at the door of But stop, said Rosalie; because Scott wine-I have eat meat and have eat vegeta the Court-house, for the defendant, Penelope Gaskins, became Lord Chancellor, and Sherman Chief bles—I have held a public office—I have to appear and answer as commanded by the subposses; would respectfully say, come and try, and judge for the defendant failing to appear, it is ordered that public's humble servant, lication begiven in the Raleigh Register and Roanoke pamphlets-I have sometimes gone to bed Advocate for three months, of the same, and that at Lord Chancellor or Chief Justice? Not at sunset and sometimes at midnight—got up the next Term of this Court, application will be made at all, my dear. But it does follow. I apat sunset and at noon—but, but I always that the petition of the plaintiff, Hardy Gaskins, be

> June, A. D. 1841. ROBT. L. WHITAKER, C. S. C.

TRS. STUART having made arrangemen with Benj. B. Smith, Esq. for Rooms in his new Brick Building, is prepared to accommodate Pamilies with board. Her terms are $15 per month large and siry; and every exertion will be made to render her boarders comfortable. Families from the low country, who may wish to visit Raleigh with the view of spending the Summer, are respectfully invited to call and examine the rooms, or address her through the Post Office, Raleigh, June 10, 1841.

TANTED a healthy woman of good characte as a wet nurse. Apply at this office. Calcigh, July 2, 1841.

HYGELA HOTEL

OLD POINT COMPORT, WIRGINIAL their friends and the public in general, that they have taken that eligible, extensive and well known establishment, the HYGEIA HOPEL, which has been fitted up in a style for the convenience and comfort B. Very well, thank'ee; how do you do? visitors, not surpassed by any house in this section of A. Very well, thank'ee; is Mrs. Brooks country. Considerable alterations and additions have been made to the Establishment-it has now between seventy and eighty rooms, all neat, airy and well furnished, besides a spacious Saloon, Ball Room, Billiard Room, Reading Room and Refectory, with various other sources of amusements to suit the tastes of all their

They flatter themselves that from the long experi ence of one of the Proprietors, in one of the largest and most respectable establishments in the country, and their determination to please, they will be enabled to give entire satisfaction to all who may be pleased to BATHING.—The Bathing houses have been enlarg ed and fitted up in a neat and comfortable maner, both for Warm and Sea Bathing, which will be carefully attended to and kept neat and clean.

Regular Boarders will be admitted gratis to the Sea Baths, and will be charged a small compensation to the warm. A moderate charge to both will be made to transient visitors.

The delightful situation of Old Point for the enjoy ment of the Sea breeze and Bathing, the fine Fish, Crabs and Oysters in every variety, the convenience of procuring every delicacy of the season from the rich Farms in Elizabeth City County and the Norfolk mar-Meats, Poultry, Vegetables and the choicest Fruits daily; the view over the broad Chesapeake, whitened with the canvass of vessels of every description, from the line of battle-ship, bearing the broad Pennant of some gallant Commodore, down to the little canoe, ladies, Sugar Tongs, Salt and Mustard Spoons, Butter Knives, silver mounted Coccanuts, Castors, Candlesticks, Suuffers and Trays, Waiters, Cake Baskets, Coffee Greques, Britanuia Wares, in setts and single pieces, &c. dened with the choicest delicacies of the season; the military reviews & stupendous fortifications of Fortress Monroe and Fort Calhoun; the beautiful promemde on the ramparts and the pebled beach, render Old Point one of the most desirable places in the country to resort to for health and pleasure.

Their BAR will be supplied with the choicest Wines and Liquors that can be procured. They have in their cellar a few dozen of that superior old Wine that was so much admired by the Officers at Fortress Monroe, and which has been so highly extelled by some of our own connoisseurs, to which will be added, Pemar's Medals, Canes, and Boxes, &c. &c. variety of other choice Wines, selected by Mr. Wm. French, of French's Hotel and other judges, and they o quality) as cannot fail to give entire satisfaction.

Soap, Naples, and Saponaceous compound, for Shaving, Rose, Almond, Camphor and Windsor toilet Soaps, pearl Powder, cold Cream, Pomatum, Bear's Oil, are determined to put them at such prices (according to quality) as cannot fail to give entire satisfaction. Point give a great advantage over most other places of resort for invalids. The steamboats from Norfolk and Portsmouth, James River, Washington and Balti-arriving and departing at pleasure. HUDGINS & MOODY. Old Point Comfort, Va. May 6. 39 wtlstA

BLANKS. FOR SALE AT THE RALEIGH REGISTER AND NORTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE OFFICE.

more, touch there daily, affording a convenience for

Clerks of Courts, Attorneys, She-riffs and Constables, are hereby in-formed, that large additions have just been made to the assortment of BLANKS usually kept for sale at this Office; and that all Orders for any of the following kinds, will be promptly attended to:

Superior Court Blanks: Writs, Executions, Jury and Witness Tickets, Pro ponas, Capias', Sci. Fa's, to revive Judgment, De

County Court Blanks. Writs, Executions, Subpænes, Jury and Witness Tickets, Prosecution Bonds, Ca. Sa's., Indictments (Road, Assault and Battery and Affrays,) Ven. Exp's., Capias', Sci. Fa's, to revive Judgment, Dedimusses, Road Orders, Guardian Bonds, Apprentices' Indentures, Marriage Licences, Sci. Fa's, for Forfeited Recognizance, Notices to Guardians, Bastardy Bonds, Sci. Fa's, against Heirs, Adminis tration Bonds, Appeal Bonds, Appearance Bonds,

Miscellaneous

åc. åc.

Constables' Warrants, Do. Ca. Sa. Bonds, Attach ments, Deeds of Trust, Bills of Sale, Gemmon Deeds of Conveyance, Forthcoming Bonds, Sheriffs' Bail Bonds, Deeds for Land sold for Taxes, Writs of Ejectment, Insolvent Debters Petition and Oath, various kinds of Equity Blanks, Bank Checks, &c. ALBIGH REGISTER OFFICE, > May 28, 1841.

Orders for any kind of BLANKS, not mention in the above list, will be executed with the utmost espatch and neatness.

A CARD.

HE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has taken and fitted up the House on the South-west corner of Hillsborough street, in the City of Raleigh, opposite the Bests Capitol (formerly kept as a Tavern,) HOTEL AND HOUSE OF ENTERTAINMENT. or the accommodation of Travellers and others, under the name and title of the

"PEOPLE'S HOUSE."

He has been at much expense in repairing an fitting the same, and therefore carnestly or er, both in this State and at the North, and fi imself that he can please those who shall honor him with their custom. His charges shall be in bo ty with the times and the prices of provisions. It is usual in such annunciations, to make large pro those who have known him as a Public house keeper, it is unnecessary; And to those who do not, he

JOHN ZIEGENFUSS. Raleigh, May 24, 1841. A. B. Genteel Regular Boarders, with or without rooms, can be accommodated at the People's House, on reasonable terms, and printed the last self OST-About ten days since, a fine Gold Bow The finder shall be rewarded, if left with the Editor of the REGISTER.

June 24, 1841.

June 25.

Highly Valuable to Farmers. 50 Ploughs and 100 extra Points; at the reduced price of $3,50 each, and 25 cents for the extra points, Cash. Commission article. For sale by June 25.

MIN BOOKS. Democracy in America, by DeTocque-ville. Fourth edition, 2 sols, just from the Press. | TURNER & HUGHES, aster Humphrey's Clock, by Chas Dickens, (Boz.)

TURNER & HUGHES.

No. 10; FARETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH Hea the pleasure afait houncing to his friends shift the public at larger that he has received from New-York self at New York prices

WATCHES Gold Independent seconds, duplex, duchde, Lever Watches, a general assertment of Silver de. of ever price and quality;

JEWELERY. Gold guards, fob, and neck Chains, Seals, Keys Diamond Pins & Rings, Ruby and Emerald do neek and head Ornaments, rich cameos & mosale Pins & Ear-rings, gold Peneus, Thimbles, Vihigietts, Medalions, gold Heartz and Crosses, Jet do. and a great variety of other rich Goods.

Gold, Silver, Pilue, and polished steel Speciacies to suit all persons and all eyes. Very superior flint glasses, that may be adjusted in any frame, at a mo-

SILVER AND PLATED WARES.

Mantel Clocks, and Lamps, Plated and Japaned Waiters, Gold and Silver Mounted Caties and Whips, Chess men and Backgammon Boards, Visiting Carl Cases, Gold and Silver Pendil Cases, Palent Steel Pens, Rogers' superior Rezors, Congress Knives and Scissors, Sanders' celebrated razor Strop, Dog Collars, do. Calls, silk Purses, Pocket Books, Imitation Fruits, Guns and Pistols, Ladies' Toilet and work boxes, toilat bottles, and HARRISON Breast Pine, PERFUMERY. Farina's celebrated genuine Cologne, Rose, Lavender, Florida, and Bay Waters; Guirlain's Cream of hair, tooth, and shaving Brushes, and a variety of other articles for the toilet.

Spanish Guitars, Violins, Clarronetts, Flageoletts Flutes, Octave, &c. Fifes & Accordions. Preceptors for all the above. Guitar and Violin strings Extra Violin bows, do

Clocks and Watches of all descriptions clean ed and repaired in his accustomed superior style Gold and Silver manufactured to order, with expedi tion and punctuality; highest price given for old gold

COPPER, TIN AND SHEET TRON
FACTORY.—The Subscriber having taken the house on Payetteville Street, formerly occupied by Dr. Hinton, and nearly opposite the Post Office, would respectfully inform the public that he intends carrying on the Copper, Tin and Sheet Iron Ware Manufactory in all its various bran thes. He wishes also to inform the inhabitants of Relaids and its visibility that he can and its delerof Raleigh and its vicinity, that he can, and is deter-mined to sell his Wares as low as can be purchased in any Northern city, by wholesale or retail, for Cash.— Merchants and others wanting articles in his line, are respectfully invited to call before they purchase elsewhere. Old work neatly repaired, and at the shortest notice. A few Stills on hand which will be sold at a very small per cent. for cash.

Copper, Tin and Zinc Routing on the mast N. B. Orders from the country will be prompt

Raleigh, July 26, 1840

KIRKHAM'S Patent Chince Killer The Subscriber also offers for sale at his Factory a few of those very valuable Steamers, known to be the surest remedy for clearing Bedsteads of these tormenting Bugs. The Chines Steamer is made only by himself, and is warranted never to burst, and at all times to clear Bedsteads perfectly, without the least damage to the finest carved work.

Having had in use the above Machine, for many years, I have no hesitation in saying, that if is the best means that has ever been formed for destroying Chinces, and would recommend every person to use it.

B. F. HALSEY.

This will certify, having frequently used Mr. J. P. Kirkhan's Chinca Steamer, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a simple and easy way to destroy them, and without any damage to the Furnitur Helifax, July 25, 1846.

HAVING taken an Office near the HENRY W. MILLER,

NOR RENT.—A comfortable two Story De ling House, in an eligible part of the City. At for hire, a good Cook and Washer-woman, and S vant boy to wait in the House. Possessi immediately. Apply at this Office.

Raleigh, March 5, 1841. JUST RECRIVED ON COMMISSION

12 more of RICHMOND's improved continue 100 Extra Points and Slides to Ditto.

Besides unother agency in this city, the Sulber has disposed of 20 of the above invaluable Plos and in every instance heard from the purchaser expressed entire satisfaction, not only of its artifity particularly of its cheapness, as it saver both fine money—which speaks volumes in a favor.

JAMES M. TOWLES.

June 10, 1841.

I AGAIN OFFER FOR SALE MY

With the Crop (which is an exgrowing on it, and poss To one wishing to grow allh, it is particularly a county; but se any wishing to purchase a ing for themselves, it is necless to mention a vantages the place powerses. J. T. C. WIATT

June 17, 1841 .- 50

TURNER & HUGHES. June 25.