INIFTY THOUSAND ACRES OF Swamp Land For Sale.—The President and Directors of the Literary Fund of North-Carolina, to whose care and management was committed by law, an appropriation of $200,000, for making an experiment in draining and reclaiming the Swamp Lands belonging to the State, having succeeded in part, do now make known, that in pursuance of the authority vested in them by the General Assembly, a Public Sale of a portion of said Land, will take place on the premises, on the last day of November next.

The body of Land reclaimed, and now offered for Sale, embraces about 50,000 acres; is situate in the County of Hyde, and State of North Carolina, and divides the waters flowing into the Albemarle, from those that run into Pamlico Sound.

The drainage, conducted at different periods by two, Scientific Engineers, Messrs. CHAS. B. SHAW, and WALTER GWYNN, has been effected by two main drains, called Pungo and Alligator Canals, together with sundry Tributaries or lateral ditches. Pungo Canal is about 61 miles long, with an average width at bottom of 22 feet, depth of 6 feet, and fall at bottom of 12 feet.

Alligator Canal is about 6 miles long, with an ave-July 22nd, 1841. rage width at bottom of 30 feet, depth of 7, and fall of 10 feet.

These Canals empty into the navigable waters of Pamlico Sound, and are accessible by Vessels engaged in the Coasting Trade.

A large portion of this land abounds in Juniper, Cypress and other timber of the best kind. Another portion consists of Prairie, covered with Cane and Hamboo, and according to the Report of the Engineers above named, the soil is of surpassing fertility. The sale will be by Public Auction to the highest bidder, in quarter Sections of 160 acres each ; will take place at Pungo Canal on Tuesday, the 30th day of November next, and will be conducted by the President and Directors of the Literary fund in per-

'Now you mention it,' said Adeline, 'I will confess to you that I am miserable on this account. Ever since we first met Mr. Crofton at that horrid ball he has been eternally at the house. He must perceive how coldly I receive him."

'And how does Madame La Roche receive him ?' said Trevor.

'Ah, too well!' replied Adeline. "I often see them sitting together in a corner talking in a low tone, and every now and then looking towards me, as if I were the subject of their conversation. He is trying to gain mamma over to his interests, I know. It will be of no use if he does. I would sooner die than marry him.'

'So having experienced the misery of a forced match herself, she would doom you to the same fate ?' said Trevor, with vehemence.

'I hardly know what to think," said Adeline, gently ;' when I remember how affectionately she treats me, it seems impossible ; but when I see her encourage so evidently the visits of Mr. Crofton, I am compelled to dread everything.'
