MARIA'S DOWER.

In the year 1510, a fish er man having landed on the palace of St. Mark, crossed this celean Inn, on which was very roughly painted a lion, emblematic of Venice. The man was tall and athletic-his dark complexion and brown hair had the warm colouring indicative of strength and intelligence; so peculiar to the inhabitants of southern countries ; and thoughts of a most painful nature bowed down the head of the noble gondolier.

In entering the tavern, he perceived in the most obscure corner of the room, a stranger, who appeared buried in a deep meditation. He, too, had one of those manly, imposing countenances, which denote moral energy. His expressive face reflected the flames of a thousand ardent passions, and there was of gratitude which time has respected, and seen incontestible signs of the brilliant mission which God had given him. His dress the great man. was simple in the extreme ; a doublet and temples, and with two bands tied under the Corporals. chin according to the fashion of the times, BRANDRETH'S PILL This is to certify, that about twoyears ago, while we lived in Wake County, 10 by the Bilious fever, that myself and the visiting neighbors thought she was really in a dying condition The best Physician in the neighborhood had exerted imself to cure her, but without success. As a last and almost hopeless resort, I hastened to Mr. PECR's in Raleigh, for a box of Brandreth's Pills, and in two hours after taking ten of them, she discharged a quan. tity of thick bile, and was evidently much rellieved Another dose of eight Pills, gave her complete relief; she then recovered fast, and soon was more healthy By order P. THOUSAND ACRES OF p Land For Sale.-Grocery business, at the stand formerly occupied by dent and Directors of the Lilerary Fund of Northrolins, to whose care and management was committed by law, an appropriation of $200,000, for mar selection of Liquars, &c. The patronage of the pub- king an experiment in draining and reclaiming the Swamp Lands belonging to the State, having suc-ceeded in part, do now make known, that in pursu-ance of the authority vested in them by the General Assembly, a Public Sale of a portion of said Land, will take place on the premises, on the last day of November next.

The body of Land reclaimed, and now offered for Sale, embraces about 50,000 acres; is situate in the County of Hyde, and State of North Carolina, and divides the waters flowing into the Albemarle, from those that run inte Pamlico Sound.

The drainage, conducted at different periods by two Scientific Engineers, Messrs CHAS. B. SHAW, and WALTER GWYNN, has been effected by two main drains, called Pungo and Alligator Canals, together with sundry Tributaries or lateral ditches. Pungo Canal is about 64 miles long, with an aveage width at bottom of 22 feet, depth of 6 feet, and fall at bottom of 12 feet.

Alligator Canal is about 6 miles long, with an ave-age width at bottom of 30 feet, depth of 7, and fall of 10 feet.

These Canals empty into the navigable waters of Pamlico Sound, and are accessible by Vessels engaged in the Cossting Trade.

A large portion of this land abounds in Juniper, Cypress and other timber of the best kind. Another portion consists of Prairie, covered with Cane and Bamboo, and according to the Report of the Engineers above named, the soil is of surpassing fertility. The sale will be by Public Auction to the highest bidder, in quarter Sections of 160 acres each; will take place at Pungo Canal on Tuesday, the 30th day of November next, and will be conducted by the President and Directors of the Literary fund in per-

Have you forgotten that I saved your life at Lepanto, when all Venice, men and women, were armed to defend the Republic against the soldiers of Barbarossa ? Do you not know, that reared with Maria, we swore from our infancy that neither of us should ever belong to another, and we renewed this oath when our age gave to our attachment more strength and solidity ? do you wish to cause both her misery and mine? are you a Doge to be so ambitious ? are you a patrician to be so ungrateful ? 'No, but I am rich, Barbarigo.

'And I shall become so, Gianettini; I have vigorous arms, an enterprising mind, courage, youth, and confidence in God, fortune may, before long, come and seat herself in my gondola."

"A lunatic's dream !" said the tavernkeeper.

"Who knows !" replied the fisherman : Laurent de Medicis was a shop keeper ; Francis Sforzana a cow-herd. Why should I not become a general !"

plished.

It is unquestionably the part of wisdom, in cases where conscience is not concerned, to follow the popular maxims, and conform to the habits of the people amongst whom you. live. I had heard that in France it was customary to have but two meals a day, but doubted the possibility of regulating my notions of comfort to this rule. On further observation, however, I found it not so difficult as I at first supposed : and the public breakfast table at our hotel in Bordeaux afforded me a view of the case by no means discouraging. While we thought ourselves faring substantially on mutton-chops and coffee, a comfortable old gentleman, who sat near us, regaled himself first with a plate full of oysters, and what the French always breakfast such a breakfast, and a dinner to correspond, I had no difficulty in understanding how it would be possible to be satisfied with two meals a day. On descending to the table d'hote, at five o'clock, in the same room, I felt all the unpleasantness of being the only lady amongst fifteen or twenty of the nobler sex. Nor was my native shyness at all abated by finding myself seated beside the finest ches and beard. The dinner, as usual, consisted of a vast variety of dishes, many of them altogether new to me. If the scene altegether had felt strange to me at first, it
