BEGEWEFEPS BELLS.

From the Hon. W. C. PRESTON, U. S. Senator. WASHINGTON CITY, July, 1841.

I for some years used Beckwith's Pills in cases of ndigestion and dyspeptic headachs, with the most agreeable effects, and having recommended them to many friends, the same results occurred. W. C. PRESTON.

From Hon. BEVIELY TUCKER, Law Professor in William and Mary College. LEE's SPRINGS, Va. August 7th, 1840.

Sir: An accidental meeting with a friend of yours, has determined me to offer you the acknowledgements which I have long felt to be due from me, for the benefits I have received at your hands. Fourteen years ago I was left by a most malignant fever with a diseased liver, a disordered digestion, and a constitution in ruins. My Physicians permitted me to hope, that with care and prudence I might drag on a few years of precarious existence, and assured me that the least indiscretion must be fatal. Soon sfierwards I found myself becoming dyspeptic, and became acquainted with all that indescribable misery which dyspeptics alone can know. This, as usual, grew upon me, tho' less rapidly than in most cases, because a conscious ness of my danger put me on my guard, and experice had made me familiar with the proper management of myself. By the constant use of the most approved remedies, the progress of the disease was rearded, and my life was made tolerable, but not comfortable. I rarely ate two meals in recular succession, and for some hours of almost every day, was incapade of any exercise of thought or feeling. A peevish mpatience of existence occupied my whole mind.

Two years ago, I met with your Anti-dyspeptic Pills, and confiding in the accompanying certificates of respectable gentlemen whom I happened to know, I took them according to directions. The result is, that I now eat what I please, do what I please, sleep soundly, and enjoy life as much as any man living. Your young friend, who has been with me a wrek, will tell you that he has never seen my strength or spirits flag, or my elasticity of mind or body fail for a moment. For this it gives me pleasure to say, you have my thanks, and to add the assurance of my high B. TUCKER. espect. UR. BECKWITH. 60
