LITERARY FUDGE-THE AUTHOR'S.

"In putting this work into the hands of the Public the author has not been influenced by any of those motives that usually urge writers to publication. Neither vanity, nor the desire of gaining what is called a name, has had the slightest share in inducing him to take this step ; still less has he been influenced by sordid love of gain ; he looks for neither praise nor profit. His sole motive for writing and publishing his book has been to promote the general good by contributing his mite to the stock of general information. The author is but too well aware that the merits of this work, if indeed it have any at all, are of a very humble order; that it has, in short, many defects; but a liberal, discerning and indulgent Public will make every allowance for one who makes no pretension to literary excellence. The, author may add, that part of the blame of his now obtruding himself on the Public rests on the urgent entreaties of some, perhaps too partial friends."

THE PUBLISHER'S FUDGE.

The publishers of this new undertaking have long been of opinion that a new and more efficient course of moral instruction was wanted to raise the bulk of mankind to that standard of perfection which every christian, every good member of society, must be desirous of seeing attained. It is with the most poignant regret that they have marked the almost total failure of all preceding attempts of this kind. How much it has pained them, how much they have grieved to see the inadequacy of the supplies of knowledge to the increasing wants of the community, alluding to the working and lower classes generally, whose interests they have deeply at heart, they need not say; but they may say that they anticipate the most triumphant success in their present efforts to supply the desideratum alluded to. The publishers may add that, as regards the undertaking they are now about to commence, profit is with them but a secondary consideration. Their great object is to promote the general good by a wide diffusion of knowledge, and a liberal infusion of sound and healthy principle. If they effect this, their end is gained. The work, on which no expense will be spared, will be sold at a price so low as to

BECKWITH'S PILLS.

From the Hon. W. C. PRESTON, U. S. Senator. WASBINGTON CITY, July, 1841.

I for some years used Beckwith's Pills in cases of indigestion and dyspeptic headachs, with the most agreeable effects, and having recommended them to many friends, the same results occurred.

W. C. PRESTON.

From Hon. BEVIELY TUCKER, Law Professor William and Mary College.

LEE's SPRINGS, Va. August 7th, 1840.

Sir: An accidental meeting with a friend of yours, has determined me to offer you the acknowledgements which I have long felt to be due from me, for the benefits I have received at your hands. Fourteen years ago I was left by a most malignant fever with a diseased liver, a disordered digestion, and a constitution in ruins. My Physicians permitted me to hope, that with care and prudence I might drag on a few years of precarious existence, and assured me that the least indiscretion must be fatal. Soon afterwards I found myself becoming dyspeptic, and became acquainted with all that indescribable misery which dyspeptics alone can know. This, as usual, grew upon me, tho less rapidly than in most cases, because a conscious ness of my danger put me on my guard, and experience had made me familiar with the proper manage ment of myself. By the constant use of the most approved remedies, the progress of the disease was retarded, and my life was made tolerable, but not comfortable. I rarely ate two meals in regular succession, and for some hours of almost every day, was incapable of any exercise of thought or feeling. A peevish impatience of existence occupied my whole mind.

Two years ago, I met with your Anti-dyspeptic Pills, and confiding in the accompanying certificates of respectable gentlemen whom I happened to know, took them according to directions. The result is, that I now eat what I please, do what I please, sleep soundly, and enjoy life as much as any man living. Your young friend, who has been with me a week, will tell you that he has never seen my strength or spirits flag, or my elasticity of mind or body fail for a moment. For this, it gives me pleasure to say, you have my thanks, and to add the assurance of my high B. TUCKER. espect. DR. BECKWITH. 60
