SEMI-WEEKLY.

March 25, 1842.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS.

SUBSCRIPTION .- Five Dollars per annum-half in

ADVERTISEMENTS .- For every Sixteen Lines, first insertion, One Dollar; each subsequent insertion.

COURT ORDERS and JUDICIAL ADVERTISEMENTS will be charged 25 per cent. higher; but a deduction of 331 per cent. will be made from the regular prices, for advertisers by the year. Advertisements, inserted in the SEMP WEEKLY REGISTER, will also appear in the WEEKLY Paper

AC Letters to the Editor must be POST-PAID.

MISCELLANDOVS.

BOTH SIDES OF THE PICTURE. . Is the boy sick ?' asked Mr. Lindley with look of anxiety and alarm, as he entered he room, and saw his young and begutiful wife sitting beside the cradle of the sleeping nlant, weeping bitterly. 'Is the boy sick ? 'No,' answered the afflicted lady, 'he is Then what is the matter, my dear Emly, what occasions this flood of tears !' Mr. seated himself beside his wife and took ner hand while speaking.

I am worn out by this perpetual confinement,' answered Mrs. Lindley; this unvarying round of dull domestic care."

Perpetual confinement my dear,' said Mr Lindiey ; 'did you not spend yesterday with your mother? and take a drive into the country the day before ? Come dearest, dry up your tears, and listen to an interesting book I have brought home with me, purposev to read to vou.

· Your book would be but a poor substiinte for society,' said Mrs. Lindley, who still most humble establishment would at with her head inclined, looking the very micture of sorrow and discontent: 'I am suffering to mingle again with the world, as I used to do.' After a momentary pause she continued-" Sophia was just now dressed be beautifully ! on her way to Mr. Whitewell's party. All the world will be therepoor I excepted!' A fresh gush of tears called anew for the use of her 'kerchief.

'Young ladies have little else to do than to attend to parties,' said Mr. L. : we happily ave better engagements, and more precious Married ladies seem no more confined han single ones,' said Mrs. Lindley, who eemed to have heard only the first part of er husband's remarks. . Mrs. Banks and Mrs. Southwell, and indeed all my friends re to be at Mr. Whitewell's to-night. No ne but myself is in bondage. Every one eside can have a nursery maid, and all else nd happy.

I am sorry that we cannot have a nursery haid, since you think it would conduce to our happiness; though for my own part, I anger. rould father that my dear Emily should have

Again the first part only of what Mr. Lindey said, seemed to meet the ear of his wife. | me?" ter voice was never harsh, never loud-but certainly did not sound sweetly, as in a ly. ind of low guttural she replied : 'some genery little to make a wife happy !"

Mr. Lindley dropped the hand he had till ext moment his wife heard the street door

This,' she exclaimed, as she covered her happy ice with her hand- this is the sympathy e feels for me ! To leave me thus in perect solitude !' Mrs. L. was now wrought er society, he is even willing to leave you, early as he loves you!" With the unconscious infant cradled in her ack on the gilded scenes of her youth or other unvaried life; for her youth was yet all its freshness and beauty—the parties the balls—the concerts, the drives all came pon her. "While memory, covered with flowers Restored every rose, but secreted its thorn. n the retrospect, the picture was all brightess ; all gladness ; and what was her presit lot? How great the contrast! No ariety; no pleasure; all her days are nd wept until she verily believed herself the he no eat so much hay." ost wretched woman alive; while at the of all lay a feeling of displeasure Man's soul is greater than his fortunes, ause of all her trouble.

For nearly an hour Mrs. Lindley indulged herself in these purely selfish musings, murmurings and regrets, when the clock in the neighboring street striking the hour of nine aroused her.

Where can George be 1' cried she. She felt some alarm ; laying her again sleeping infant in the cradle she went to the door to learn if he was coming. The street was quite still, not a footstep to be heard; and with conflicting feeling, she reseated herself beside her child. 'Oh, he is cruel,' thought she ? where can he be? In his office, or where? Oh, that he would come.'

On the whole, Mrs. Lindley was not only a rational creature, but a reasonable and reasoning woman; and the period had arrived for a revolution of feeling. Other views began to present themselves to her mind.

* It is I, myself that am cruel ! thought she; how happy we might have been this evening had I not driven him from me! How tender he was and kind, to bring a book purposely to read to me! He is willing to forego his society for my sake, and cannot I mine for his. And after all, what is there so desirable about a party; Did I ever attend one, however brilliant, however gay, where from some source or other, there was not as much suffered as enjoyed ! Did 1 ever attend one in which I did not hear or see expressed the working of envy or jealousy, or contempt, or ridicule ! In such scenes did I not experience quite as much pain as pleasure me, that with his present fortune, he should its place. not dare to ask the woman that he loved to tions she must undorgo?' Oh, did I not every virtue. think that with him for a companion, the door, but in vain, no husband was to be seen their eyes, -Goldsmith. or heard. How gloomy, how desolate did her comfortable and well furnished little parlor appear, as she re-entered it. 'Oh,' cried she, what sunshine would his smiles shed around, but I have displeased, grieved, wounded, forced him from me !'

Never had an hour in Mrs. Lindley's life dragged itself along so slowly as the present, and it was not until after the clock had struck | States, and who owned his wife with whom he wished ten that the well known footsteps of her hus- to live. The owner can have his boy, by proving band met her listening ear. With a bound she mot him in the entry.

* Oh, my dear George, how glad I am you

Her husband made no distinct answer, but hat is necessary to make them comfortable entered the parlor, and advancing to the mantle, rested his elbow upon it, and leaned trict Court for the District of Pamptico, District Court his head upon his hand. His countenance was clouded, yet more in sorrow than in

Dearest George, will you forgive me? he charge of our darling boy, than entrust said the trembling wife, while she twined im to the care of almost any hireling that her arm in his, and looked imploringly in his face, will you, can you forgive my cruelty ? * Yes, Emily, I can do any thing you ask

'O, George, don't speak so coldly, so sad-Alas ! I have made you very unhappy. 'You have Emily, for I fear your union lemen choose to think they can afford but with me requires sacrifices you are unable cheerfully to make."

'O, say not, think not so, my dearest hushen held in his, and rising, walked the floor band! for notwithstanding appearances are so spidly. He did not whistle, he did not sing, much against me, it is not so. Since you left at just made the notes of a tone audible as me this morning,' she added, while a faint inhaled the air between his scarcely par- smile strove to chase away the gathering tears, ed lips. After some ten or fifteen minutes, since you left me, I have had ample time pent in this manner, he suddenly seized the for reflection-for retrospection. I have reolume he had mentioned, and seating him- viewed my married and my single life, and elf near the lamp, began to turn the leaves. my cruelty, and my ingratitude, my childish leanwhile Mrs. Lindley neither spoke nor perverseness to night, have caused me the loved. Her head rested on her hand, her most bitter upbraidings. May you never yes sought the carpet, but no tear fell, for know a pang like that which shot through er feelings were too highly excited to per- my heart when the thought struck me, that er than similar Instruments can be bought by retail in hit them longer to flow. The disturbed hus- the great Disposer of events might free me the Northern Cities. Address and found his book a vain resource; and from care, as he freed poor Charlotte by takfter twirling the leaves a few minutes, he jug from me husband and child ! I cannot new it on the table and left the room. The forgive myself-but oh, say you will forgive TOMBS AND HEAD STONES

' Forgive you, dearest Emily! I have Then indeed came a fresh flood of tears. nothing to forgive you, if you will only be

O, I am most happy-blessed in having such a husband! This bitter-bitter evening has taught me that all joys cannot be done. Letters from a distance containing orders, will to real agony. The infant at this moment crowded into one state or period, and I do be promptly attended to. weke, and clasping him to her bosom, she think that I can never again regret the giddy ried: 'Yes darling, your father's feelings pleasures of my youth, while in the possessms, the mother indulged herself in looking O, say once more you forgive me-for depend upon it, I can never again be so foolish, so cruel, so wicked ! The husband bent forward and imprinted Office. To a person, well recom She looked up, and his eyes beaming with privilege of receiving the Tuition money for all over pleasure and renewed confidence, gave her five scholars. Apply soon. perfect assurance that all was forgiven-for-

AN INDIAN RETORT .. - An Indian complained to a retailer that the price of his liquor, vins: a perpetual round of household cares, was too high. The latter in justification said which can be had by the pound or bushel.

N. L. STITH; Druggist. d a helpless infant always by her side or that it cost as much to keep a hogshead of her arms! How dark did a disturbed im- brandy as to keep a cow. The Indian repliination render the review ! She thought ed, " May be he drink as much water, but gainst her husband, as if he was the wilful and there's majesty in a life that towers above the ruins that fall around his path.

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1842.

APHORISMS The reason why so few marriages are happy is, because young ladies spend their time in making nets not cages.

Censure is a tax a man pays to the public for being eminent.

Carlyle's Prench Revolution: Leibig's Organic Chemistry of Agriculture and Physiology; Life in China: Life of Richard Cœur De Lion, by James; Frederick

Party is the madness of many for the gain the Great in his times; Gibson's Rambles in Europe,

There never was any party, faction, sect,or cabal whatsoever, he which the most ignorant were not the most violent; for a bee is not a ly Land. Also, in Greece, Turkey, Russia, and Pobusier animal than a blockhead. However, such instruments are necessary to politicians; and perhaps it may be with States as with clocks, which must have some dead weight hanging to them to help and regulate the motion of the finer and more useful parts.

I as little fear, that God will damn a man that has charity, as I hope that the priest can save one who has not.

It very often happens that that those are the best people whose characters have been most injured by slanders; as we usually find that to be the sweetest fruit which the birds have been pecking at.

Good conversation is not to be expected n much company, because few listen and there is a continual interruption. But good or ill manners are discovered, let the company be ever so large.

If it be painful to differ in thought from one we love in our heart, to turn away the head unless indeed I could secure the undivided from one to whom the heart is ever inclined, attention of George? And now he is all my it is doubly sweet once to love and believe in own, and I drive him from me! What did fellowship with one in whom our better self not endure when doubtful whether he loved is sustained and perpetuated with youthful me? whether he would ask me to be his? - energy. So life is like a fair starry night; What were my thoughts when he once said to where no star sets but one arises to shine in

Indolence is a stream which flows slowly unite her fate to his, on account of the priva- on, but yet undermines the foundation of

She who makes her husband and her chilara dren happy, who reclaims one from vice, and dise? and now that I am his wife, I drive him trains up the other to virtue, is a much from me with cruel repinings. Oh, where greater character than ladies described in romances, whose whole occupation is to mur-Again she went to the window-to the der mankind with shafts from the quiver of

TAKEN UP AND COM-MITTED to the Jail of Cabarrus County, North Carolina, on 25th o March last, a negro boy DICK, who says he belongs to Col. Thomas Bottom, Sheriff of Amelia County, (Va.) He is abou 20 years of age, very black, says he was following Dr. Jones, who was moving to some of the Southern property, paying charges, &c. otherwise he will be dealt with as the law directs.

L. B. KRIMMINGER. Sheriff of Cabarrus County.

JERE'H. BROWN, Clerk.

April 8, 1842. 30-tf TNITED STATES OF AMERICA-NORTH CARULINA DISTRICT. United States Disin Bankruptcy at Newbern, April 25th 1842. William W. Gray of Raleigh, Wake County, having on the 2nd day of April 1842, filed a Petition, duly verified praying that he may be declared a Bankrupt; It is thereupon ordered by the Court, that cause be shown pefore the Court at Newbern on the fourth Monday in October next, why the said William W. Grav be not declared a Bankrupt pursuant to the Act of Congress in that behalf: and that this notice be published in the Raleigh Register four weeks in succession.

No Gentlemen of the Bar .-- There can be had, at the North Carolina Bookstore, a few sets of the Reports of the Supreme Court of N. Carolina. Those who have broken sets, now have an opportunity of completing them.

The Subscribers also offer a very extensive collection of Law Books, and are prepared to supply any Law Book, that is in print, at short notice which will be sold at very moderate prices for Cash. TURNER & HUGHES.

> SPLENDID PIANOS. FOR SALE.

Superior assortment of rare and exquisite PI-ANUS are offered for sale at the Enexworth School, Greensboro', N C. They are unsurpassed in tone and finish, at prices to suit the times, and low-

March 26 1842.

Of Marble and Granite. F different sizes, and prices; and all kinds of Granite work furnished on the shortest notice, by ion of those so much more precious. Hence- hurt at our stopping his account, when we are not

WM. STRONACH. Raleigh, May 7, 1842, N. B. Plaistering and Mason Work of all kind

FEMALE TEACHER, competent to impart Ha a thorough English Education, and also qualified to give instruction on the Piano Forte, will meet with a situation, in a private family, on application at this Office. To a person, well recommended, Two Huna long kiss on the forehead of the supplicant. dred dollars a year, and Board will be given, with the mail train, a daily supply of Boston block Ice, Raleigh, May 16.

ICD I ICD II ICD III

N.B. Families supplied daily on reasonable terms DECOND HAND FLOUR BARRELS FOR 3 BALE .- We find flour to sell just as well in soci barrels as in the new, which are more liable to shrink and lose their hoops, &c. WILL: PECK.

47-2w

Raleigh, June 7.

June 3.

land in 2 Vols. Also, his Travels in Central America; Chiapas, and Yucatan, in 2 Vols, with numerous engravings. Also, Bulwer's last work, "Zanoin 2 Vols; together with a large collection of School Books; all of which are offered chean for TURNER & HUGHES. Drandreth's Pills .- We have a fres h ply-we were about say, of this valuab

UST received at the North Carolina Bookstore,

Stephen's Travels in Egypt, Arabia, and the Ho-

TRESH ARRIVALS,-This day received

Illustrations; Pickwick Club; Oliver Twist; sketche

at N. C. Book Store, Nicholas Nickleby, with

TURNER & HUGHES.

Medicine-but to those who have tried them, it is un necessary to say so and those who have not tried them would be slow perhaps to believe us. It is, however, a serious fact, that we could name at least one family, where their regular use for several years past, has made the Physician's visits " few and far between." Our new boxes contain 25 Pills each, the old only WILL PECK. have 21. Raleigh, March 1st, 1842.

RINTERS NEWS INK FOR BOTH WIN TER and Summer, in Kegs of 20 and 25 pound each, for sale; quality warranted to please. Also Book Ihk of different kinds, 15 pound in the keg, all offered for cash at a very small advance on the Invoice price. I sales do not improve, I shall have no encouragement to keep a deposit of the article for our WILL: PECK. Raleigh, April 12.

TOTICE .- This is to caution the public, against trading for a Note given by Johnson Harris, as Principal, and Ezra Gill and James Hicks, as Securities, payable to Geo. W. Mordecai, Esq. for about $20. Said Note was collected by me as an Officer, and this notice is given to prevent any person from being taken in by it.

GREEN F. ELLEN. Raleigh, May 20, 1841.

PEAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.-On Crab Tree about 3 miles from Raleigh, containing about 650 Acres, and a highly improved lot containing six Acres, adjoining the City of Raleigh, late the Property of John C. Rogers.

The sale will be by public Auction to the highest bidder, at the Court House, and the terms made known Raleigh, May 30, 1842. AND FOR SALE.-The Subscriber will sell, on accommodating terms, a Tract of uncleared Land, lying within 34 or 4 miles of Raleigh. The Land adjoins Judge Saunders, Major Collins William Hill. Esq. and others. It is finely timbered with Oak, Hickory and Pine, and contains 140 Acres. Also, another Tract of 100 Acres on Barton's Creek. in sight of Tippers' Cross Roads. WESTON R. GALES.

DUFFALO SPRING. - The Subscribers having made considerable additions to their improvements since last Season, are now prepared to SHELTON & KENNON.

Buffalo Spring, Mecklenburg County, Va. ? May 3, 1842. P. S .- For particular information with regard to the Buffalo Spring, see Hand bills, May 3. 37-17w BERRINGS. HERRINGS!-Just received, on consignment, a prime lot of Cut and Roe Herrings. Also, a few harrels of Shad-put up expressly for family use, and warranted to be of the very pest quality-for sale by the Subscribers. TURNER & HUGHES. Raleigh, 23d May, 1842. BARGAIN!-For Sale, a handsome Edition of the ENORCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA, in 20 vols. Quarto, illustrated with splendid Engravings. This Work will be sold for about one-fourth of its value, Enquire of the Editor of the REGISTER. Raleigh, 21st May, 1842. TOTIOE is hereby given that, having lost the certificate for Fifty Shares of Stock in the Bank of Cape Fear, application will be made to the President, Directors and Company of said Bank, at the expiration of three months from this time, for a re-issue f said Scrip. H. W. MONTAGUE. Wake Co. N. C. March 9, 1842. 12 w3m TEW MUSIC .- Just arrived, a large collect tion of choice Pieces for the Piano Forte, Guitar, Violin, Flute, &c. TURNER & HUGHES.

CARATOGA WATER .- Just received direct from the Springs, a fresh supply of the celebrated Saratoga Water in bottles. For sale at N. I., STITH'S Drug Store.

NDGEWORTH SCHOOL, -For sale, a Stock of MUSIC, equal to any ever offered in the State for its superior excellence and cheapness. Teachers will be furnished at rates to suit them.

Greensboro', March 26. TBORDEAUX OIL .- Just received a Supe Prior article of Salad Oil expressly for table use. N. L. STITH, Druggist.

ATOTICE.—The subscribers wish to purchase for which the highest market price will be givforth, it shall be my pleasure to strive to make you as happy as you have me, and educate our boy as like his father as possible.

Inuit at our stopping his account, when we are not paid on the first call. Shall be glad to serve those as the beauthy community, alike removed from so thousand bushels of sound Cotton Seed to be delivered at their Mills on Neuse River, near Rogers' bridge.

Situated in the County of Franklin, also with close, with a public examination, on thousand bushels of sound on the first call. Shall be glad to serve those as the beauthy community, alike removed from so thousand bushels of sound Cotton Seed to be delivered at their Mills on Neuse River, near Rogers' bridge.

Situated in the County of Franklin, also with the course of instruction embraces study the 9th, and will be resumed on Monday the 27th day of June. The course of instruction embraces study the 9th, and will be resumed on Monday the 27th day of June. The course of instruction embraces study the 9th, and will be resumed on Monday the 27th day of June. The course of instruction embraces study the 9th, and will be resumed on Monday the 27th day of June. The course of instruction embraces study the 9th, and will be resumed on Monday the 27th day of June. The course of instruction embraces study the 9th, and will be seen to the study of June at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces study of June. The course of instruction embraces study of June at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces study of June at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces study of June at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces study of June at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces at the proposed from the course of instruction embraces at the proposed from the course of or at any Gin within four or five miles. Apply to the subscribers in Raleigh.

> WM, P. CLARK, J. H. JEFFREYS.

January 25, 1842. ONE MORE CARGO of very cheap Cotton Yarns and Cloths just arrived. Some of the Cloths are lower than we have ever before sold them, WILL: PECK. 47-2w

DOE and CUT HERRINGS.—A Superior article of Herrings, for Family use; for WILL: PECK. May 23, 1842.

UST IN TIME.—I have on hand severs tip-top REFERENTIATORS, which will be sold low J. H. KIRKHAM. Raleigh, May 30.

J. W. COSBY.

CIVIL ENGINEER AND ARCHITECT.

Raleigh, N. C.

, sion of this Classical and English School will amence on Monday the 27th June, in the School Room recently occupied by Mr. Hicks, when a punc-tual attendance of the Pupils is expected.

The charges are as heretofore.

For the Classical Department, English do

Payments to be made half in advance and the res due at the expiration of 3 months. The discipline is strictly Parental. The habits, and toral conduct of the Pupils, their personal neatness and correct and respectful deportment, are persevering watched over. The rewards and punishments are of an intellectual and moral nature, addressed to the understanding and to the heart. The former, being the confidence of the Instructor, approbation of Parents, self-government, with advancement to a higher Class, &c. - the latter, chiefly private and public censure, studying during the nours of diversion, removal to a lower Class, with

No Pupil taken for less than a Session, unless a he discretion of the Principal, and no allowance made for absence, except in cases of protracted sickness.

R. GRAY Raleigh, June 11, 1842. NEANT SCHOOL, - The third Session of th

Infant School will commence on the 15th of June Parents, who are disposed to send, are requested to nter their children as early in the session as po-Pupils, who live at too great a distance to return at noon, during the summer months will have the privilege (girls only) of bringing their Dinners and remaining till 4 o'clock.

Those Parents, who prefer sending their children half days, can have them entered at one third deduction of the usual price, or two Scholars as one.

No Scholar taken for less than a Session, except at the discretion of the Teacher,

TERMS OF TUITION.

First Class, Second Class, which embraces all who know their letters, Inhabet Class.

Payable half session in advance. Hours of attendance, from 9 to 12 A. M. and 2 to o'clock. On rainy days there will be one session Visitors admitted on Tuesday mornings. There will be a public Examina ion of the School, at the expiration of the third Session. NEMALE SCHOOL, In Hillsborough. The Fall session of Mr. & MRS. BURWELL'S SCHOOL will commence on Monday, the 4th of July, and close the last of November The usual branches of a thorough Education are taught, with the Latin, Greek and French Languages.

TERMS-PER SESSION-Boad and Tuition, 25 00 5 00 Use of Piano. 12 00 Drawing and Painting, 15 00 Latin or Greek,

Hon. F. Nash, Dr. Jas. Webb, Hon. Wm. A Graham, Jno. W. Norwood, Esq., Hillsborough. Rev. D. Lacy, Raleigh, Hon. Willie P. Mangum. Giles Mebane, Esq., Orange county. Mr. Robert Primrose Mr. Alfred Hatch, Rev. D. Stratton, Newbern Rich ard Washington, Esq., Waynesborough. Gaston Wilder, Esq., Wake County. Rev. Thomas R. Ow-June 1. 46--w4w

Warrenton Male Academy.

THE Fall Session will commence on the first Monday in July. No Student of exceptionable conduct will be admitted into the Institution; or, if found to be so after admission, will be suffered to re-· Classical Department. ROB. A. EZELL, A. M. Paincipal. English and Mathematical Department. HENRY S. JONES, A. B.

Warrenton, N. C. June 1st, 1842. 44-6w The Standard, Halifax Advocate, Tarboro' Press Petersburg Statesman, and Richmond Enquirer will copy for four weeks and forward their respective accounts to R. A. EZELL.

DETHESDA FEMALE SCHOOL. next month, and the next Session will open on the st Monday in July. This School is under the Instruction of Miss Caroline E. Livr, from New Fuel per Summer Session Hampshire and Miss Many E. WATLINGTON, of this county, both highly accomplished Teachers.-in all the Literary and Omamental branches of Female learning; together with the French, Latin and Greek languages

This Institution is permanently fixed, and has room o accommodate a large number of Pupils with board. Address Rev. John H. Pickard, Brown's Store, Casvell county, N. C.

JOHN H. PICKARD. May 24, 1842,

RALEIGH SEMINARY, MR. AND MRS. DOBATT, Principals.

THE third Session of this Institution will com mence on Monday the 8th May, 1842.

The course of Instruction will comprise, besides the usual branches of an English Education, French, Drawing, the Theory of Music, and Ornamental nerdlework. Thuns, per session of five months $20,00 EXTRAS. The Italian or German Languages

Oil Painting or Water Colors April 19, 1842.

OXFORD FEMALE ACADEMY.—
The Exercises in this school for the present ses-EXPENSES PER SESSION.

English Tuition, Latin, Greek and French Music on Piano, Guitar, Drawing and Painting BENJ. SUMNER, Prin. June 2, 1842

Tillsborough Academy...The Palise W. J. BINGHAM, Pri W. HUGHES Mathematical Do J. MURPUY

May 26. Teacher wanted .- The Trustees of the my wish to employ a Teache Those who wish the situation lease address the Secretary goal paid immediate.

M. Q. WADDELL, Sec.

46 10

Standard and Fayetteville Observer will please copy until 10th July, and forward bills to Secretary

GREENSBORO' N. C.

THE Exercises of this Institution, of which Gov. Morennan is Proprietor and Patron, will be resumed again on Thursday, the 26th of May, 1842, under the care of its former Superintendants and Instructors, Dr. Wern and Lady, and Miss Hore, aided by her accomplished Mathematical M her accomplished Mother, Madame Horz, in Ornamental Department. The Sessian will ter nate at the end of five months.

The best recommendation of the ability, real and fi delity with which those in charge of this School dis-charge their cuty, is to be found in the advancement of their pupils, to which they cheerfully refer. The accommodations have been extended, so that some thirty pupils more can be received upon early application. THE COURSE WILL BE AS FOLLOWS! Preparatory Instruction will embrace Reading, Fun-amental rules of Arithmetic and Parley's Geography.

Smith's Arithmetic, Malte Brun's Geography, Bullion's English Grammar, Reading, Writing, Needle work and Epistolary Composition.

SECOND YEAR. Same Studies continued, with the addition ny, (Mrs. Lincoln's) Comstock's Nature Comstock's Chemistry, History of the Composition, Worsted Work and Emi

THIRD YEAR. Bullion's English Grammer, Wo Willard's Geography, Davis' first Lessons in Algebra, Natural Philosophy, (Scientific Class Book, part Let) Chemistry, (Scientific Class Book, part second) Burnet's Geography of the Heavens, Botany, History of Greece and Rome, in connection with Ancient Maps, Elements of Mythology, by the author of Popular Lessons, Pope's Translation of the Ilied, Composition, Worsted Work and Embroidery.

FOURTH YEAR. Some of the foregoing Studies, together with Geometry, Abercrombie's Intellectual Powers, Abercrombie's Moral Feeling, Rhetoric, Exercises in Composition and Reading Classic Poets, Goodrich's Ecclesiastical History, Reviews in former Studies, Fancy Work.

French, Music on the Piano and Guitar, Wax, Shell and Worsted Flower Work, Drawing and Paint-

These may be taken up by the pupil at any time Pupils when received will be examined, and placed n the 1st, 2d, 3d or 4th year, according to the As it may not be convenient for some pupils to take he regular course, the Instructors will be glad to know the probable length of time they will be permitted to remain at School, that they may prescribe to them the course most advantageous, for the time they may re-

Terms per Session-$75; for Tuition; Bor Washing, Fuel and Lights; Extra Studies, per Session-French, $10. Music, $20. Wax-work, $10. hell-work, $5. Worsted Flower work, $5. Dray ing and Painting, $10.

Warrenton Female Seminar arents, Guardians and the friends of Educa ronage which they have extended to it. They may main. None, therefore, of such character need apply. be assured, that no labor or expense shall be spared Board may be procured in the family of the Principal in securing the most important advantages and the moral improvement of their pupils, the Principal deem it necessary to say, that, hereafer, all Pupil from a distance, are expected to board with them, unless placed under the immediate care of some near re-

The Summer Session will con Monday in July, and continue five months. The health of Warrenton is notorious and unquestioned ANNUAL EXPENSES.

Vocal Music Drawing and Painting Course of Lessons in Wax Fruit

Mezzotinto & Chinese Painting WM. PLUMMER, Pro THOS. WHIPE, E.q., H. L. PLUMMER, M. D. J. B. SOMERVELL, Esq. WM, BATUN, Jr. Esq. INSTRUCTORS.

Needle and Fancy Work

Languages, each

N. Z. GRAVES, A. MRS. E. B. W. GRAVES, T. H. VANDEN BERG, J. WILCOX. May 14, 1842.

possess advantages in pour those of any Institution in the State.

Louisburg is the nearest Post Office.

Louisburg is the nearest Post Office.

H. NORWOOI

Franklin Co. Jone 1st, 1842.

The Star, Standard, Newbern Spectator, canoke Advocate will intert for 5 meeks.

J. H.

JOB PRINTING ...
Executed with neutness and despail
AT THE OFFICE. 19