Walked in-delivered my message, and seated myself in one of her cane-bottomed chairs while she rummaged the book-case .-Forgot to take out my cavendish before I ennished. Looked to the fire-place-full of ish brown. Felt the flood of Cavendish acwhether as a last alternative, it were better flood the carpet. Mouth in misery, she bethis book, Mr. --- 'Yes Ma'am,' a well, while I wished book, aunt, and all, were with Pharoah's host in the red sea .-' How do you like it?' continued the indefatigable querist. I threw my head on the back of the chair, mouth upwards, to prevent an overflow. 'Pretty well,' said I. She at last found the 'Sorrows of Werter,' and came towards me. 'Oh dear, cousin Oliver, don't put your head on the back of the chair, now don't, you'll grease it and take off the gilding!' I could not answer her, having now lost the power of speech entirely, and my know you are, your face is dreadful!' and terms, as cannot fail to give satisfaction. before I could prevent her, her hartshorn was clapped to my distended nostrils. As my mouth was closed imperturbably, the orifices in my nasal organ were at the time my only breathing place. Judge then what a commotion a full snuff of heartshorn created among my olfactories he relieved my proboscis; and tobacco, chyle &c., 'all at once disgorged' from my mouth, restored me the faculty of speech. Her eyes porary use of tobacco, while, truth to tell. I home mortified.

Sunday forenoon-Friend A-invited myself and wife to take a seat with him to hear the celebrated Mr. — preach. Conducted by neighbor A——to his pew.— Mouth, as usual, full of tobacco ! and, horror! found the pew elegantly carpeted white and green, two or three mahogany crickets, and a hat stand, but no spit-box! The service commenced : every peal on the organ was answered by an internal appeal from my mouth for a liberation from its contents, but the thing was impossible. I thought of using my hat for a spit-box; then of turning one of the crickets over; but I could do nothing unperceived. I took out my handkerchief, but found, in the plenitude of her officiousness, that my wife had placed one of her white October next. cambricks in my pocket instead of my bandanna. Here was a dilemma. By the time the preacher had named his text, my cheeks had reached their utmost extension, and I must spit or die! I arose, seized my hat, and made for the door. My wife, (confound) these women, how they dog about one,) im. agining me unwell, (she might have known dlewick; 3,000 pounds assorted Iron. Also, a lot better.) got up and followed me. . Are you unwell, Oliver?' said she, as the door closed after us. I answered her by putting out the eyes of an unlucky dog, with a flood of expressed essence of cavendish. 'I wish,' said she, Mr. A-had a spit box in his pew.' 'So do I.' We footed it home in mondy silence. I was sorry that my wife had lost the sermon, but how could I help it?

These women are so affectionate-confound them-no I don't mean so. But she might have known what ailed me and kept her seat.

Tobacco, oh tobacco! But the deeds of that day are not all told yet. After the conclusion of the service, along came farmer Ploughshare. He had seen me go out of ADVERTISEMENTS .- For every Sixteen Lines, church, and stopped at the window where I first insertion, One Dollar; each subsequent insertion, sat. 'Sick to day, Mr. - ? Rather unwell,' said I, and there was another lie to COURT OBDERS and JUDICIAL ADVERTISEMENTS | place to the account of tobacco. Down he sat, and fumbling in his pockets, drew forth a formidable plug of tobacco, and commenced untwisting it. 'Then you use tobacco,' said I. 'A leetle occasionally,' tobacco,' said I. 'A leetle occasionally,' said he, as he deposited three or four inches County. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, in his cheek. 'A neat fence that of yourn,' as flood after flood from his mouth bespattered a newly painted fence near the window. Mr. Editor, -Do you chew tobacco? I 'Yes,' said I, 'but I like a darker color.' did till last Sunday, when I put my veto on So do I.' answered Ploughshare, 'valler the practice. The why and wherefore I have suits my notion; it don't show dirt.' And sent you, hoping that if you are guilty of he moistened my carpet with his favorite co'using the Indian weed, a leaf from my diary or. Good, thought I, wife will ask him again, I guess. We were now summoned Saturday Oct. 16th, 1833 .- Took my to dinner. Farmer Ploughshare seated himhat for a walk : wife, as wives are apt to, be- | self. I saw his long fingers in that particugan to load me with messages, upon seeing lar position in which a tobacco chewer knows me ready to go out. Asked me to call at how to put his digits when about to unload.

N JUNE LAST, a Woman, who calls herse MARY ANN HAWKINS, was placed in the Jail of Clarke County, Kentucky. How, and in wha manner she was placed in Jail, will appear by her ffidavit, the material facts of which are given below. She is now confined in said Jail, awaiting her trial for freedom. Any information concerning said Mary Ann Hawkins' right to freedom, will be attended to or if she be not a free person, I desire to know that fact likewise. Any information upon the subject of her right to freedom will be thankfully received. Address the undersigned at Winchester, Clarke County, Kentucky.

ALFRED BOUREN, Jailor. August 24, 1842.

SUBSTANCE OF AFFIDAVIT. The said Mary Ann Hawkins sets forth that she is now confined in the Jail of Clarke County -- that she was placed in the custody of the Jailor of said County. on the - day of June, 1842, by the Sheriff of said County, in virtue of several Attachments, which issued from the Circuit Court of the County aforesaid one of them in favor of John Foster, and all of them against the Estate of one Greenbury Camplin. And that she has been levied upon by virtue of said Attachments, or some one of them, as the property of said Camplin.

The said Mary Ann Hawkins further represents hat she is a free woman, and was born free in the County of Warren, North Carolina-that her Mother was an Indian of the full blood of the Cherokee Tribe, and that her name was Joyce-that her father was a free White man, formerly of the said County of Warren-and that not one drop of African blood ever coursed or polluted her veins.

The said Mary Ann Hawkins further represents that, during the month of May last, she came from the State of Georgia, to the State of Kentucky, with the said Camplio, with whom she had been living for some time-that she is possessed of Land, Slaves and other property in North-Carolina and elsewhere, to a considerable amount in value-that she was induced by the false and deceptive persuasions of the said Camplin to live with him and accompany him to Kentucky, and has even gone so far, through his per suasion, as to tell persons that she belonged to him That in consequence of this, she has been levied on and cast into prison, as the property of said Camplin, tablish her freedom, &c. &c.

The Affidavit is duly verified before P. Bush, Esq. an acting Justice of the Peace for Clarke County, Kentucky, and the whole Proceedings attested by Samuel M. Taylor, Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County aforesaid.
