The Subscriber feels safe in making the above statements, because he has the promise of assistance from several distinguished gentlemen in the State, in whose acquirements the public bas all confidence.-He desires to make it a periodical which shall con pare well with any Southern Magazine, ornament the table of the literary man, and be a welcome visiter to any family in the State. It will be seen that the subscription is unusually lowFour Hundred and Eighty octato pages for

Two Dollars !!!

The work is put at this price that its circulation may be the greater; but it will be at once perceived that the publisher cannot risk a commencement dotil

a sufficient number of subscribers shall be obtained to cover expenses:

(I) As soon as five hundred responsible subscribers shall be secured, the first number will be issued at which time the payment for the first volume will be considered in advance. When subscribers receive that number they will forward the amount of their subscription immediately, and will take the publica-tion of that number as a guarantee that the magazine will be issued for at least one year. This arrange-ment will secure both parties.

Who can doubt that North Carolina needs such a magazine! Who can doubt whether there be not more than sufficient talent at leisure in our State to fill its pages with profitable and entertaining matter ! Who will not risk two dollars on an experiment so well worth making? We shall fisten for a reply, and expect a hearty response. Let no one wait to see how it will appear; for such a course may prevent the publication entirely; but let every one friendly to the work try it for A YEAR, and then, if it be not worth.
