A writer in New York, in his speculations on the comet, tells the following humorous story :--- loaded hod on his shoulder. He repeatedly and devoutly crossed himself; then looked to the top of the building, which he was about to ascend, with a fearful and dubious air. He had got one foot on the first round of the ladder, and made sundry motions to raise the other, but seemed at every new trial to be arrested, and as it were, pulled back, by some unseen hand. As I stood watching his. motions, and his countenance, he withdrew his eyes from the top of the building and fixing them upon me, said -

- "Do you think it'll come now ?" "What will come ?" said I,
- "Why the comic, to be sure,"
- "The comet, I suppose you mean,"

"Why, yes, I suppose it's all one and the same crathur, that great big fiery body that's comin to burn the world all up to nothing, and all the paple that's in it, besides men, woman and childer; and throw all the rest in the middle of the sea. Oh, the cruel, bloody minded crathur, to destroy ivery body, and spare the poor babes themselves, nor their poor fathers that work hard ivery think it'll come now, Misther ?".

"Now !" said I.

But,' said 1, 'if the world should be buart up, you'll be likely to go with it."

" Ah ! there it is now ; there's no safety for an Irishman at all, at all. He's parsecuted in Ireland, and burnt to death with a vagabone of a comic in Ameriky; and he's no where to hide his head out iv sight on the COURT ORDERS and JUDICIAL ADVERTISEMENTS top iv the wide world. And then if this will be charged 25 per cent. higher ; but a deduction tarraqueous globe is desthroyed, and all the paple in it, where shall a poor body find employment. There'll be no houses to build, nor no paple to build 'em; and then what'll a poor hod carrier do? Blessed St. Patrick ! what'll become iv me?'

'Never fear, Pat,' said I 'trust in your patron saint, be honest, industrious, and temperate ; and let the comet come when it will, it will never hurt yon.'

" Bless your honor's sowl for that word, I next took notice of an Irishman, with a said Pat, and seeing him mount the ladder with renewed hope and fresh courage I turned again to look about me.

than I could positively answer. These com- quested. ets are very eccentric beings, and there's no knowing what might happen.'

'The devil thrust 'em for me,' said Pat, 'the barbarous cratures! they would'nt mind brushing down an Irishman from the top of a house any more nor I should mind brushing a fly from the end of my nose. And then I am informed they're so hot that they'll burn all the flesh off iv ye, and roast your skin to the very bone, without compunction, as it were. You say, Misther, this house here is very high now, even to the very top iv it, as far as it goes; and if the comic should happen to kitch me there on the top, I don't know what would become iv me. I've got a wife and seven small childer, two iv whom are under the sod in swate Ireland, and all depindent on me this very moment for ivery mouthful iv atin, and drinkin, and food, and clothin, they wear on their backs, poor crathurs; and that is what makes me afeard to mount this lather !?

'You need not be afraid of the comet today Pat,' said I.

'Need'at I now ?' said he, suddenly brightning up : 'bless your honor's soul for that word. I've been afeard to go up to the top iv this same, for fear the bloody comic should come along afore I could git down agin ; and destroy me root and branch; and burn the clothes and the skin off iv me ; and kill me clane dead as a door nail; and brush me down with the end iv his tail, to the great danger and desthruction iv me life and all now, Misther, that it wont come to-day, that bloody comic ?'

Doctor Brandreth's Pills.

HESE PILLS are so well known for a mil yet effectual purgative that it is almost useless to say anything about their excellent qualities. As a general family and antibilious medicine they are without a rival. The lowness of apirits, acute headache, &c. &c., to which all are more or less subject in this climate, are removed immediately by a dose of the Brandreth Pill. They are alike safe for children, as to every other period of life, and require no extra attention in diet or clothing. Their virtues may be summed up as a medicine which strengthens the feeble, and consolidates the muscles of the strong : and will be found of infinite value to females of all classes who wish to be secure from sickness.

OBSERVE-No Brandreth Pills are genuine, unless each box has upon it three labels, and on each lable two signatures of Dr. Benjamin Brandreth So that each box to be genuine must have six signa tures of Dr. Brandreth upon it.
