WM. W. GRAY'S
Invaluable Ointment,
EXTERNAL DISEASES GENERALLY.
The Presidential contest is eighteen-forty-four. Will be more severe than any known before. Not one friend of the great Henry Clay, Will, from the Polls, be found away; While the numerous friends of Van Buren, Will prove themselves prompt, zealous men. And it is said, that the supporters of Calhoun, Will be at the election before the afternoon. We wished to say something of Captain Tyler, too. But he has no hope, presented now to view. And the hero of the "Crossings," and Genl. Scott, With Buchanan and Cass, we must leave in one lot. The parties then, being on victory bent, Should supply themselves with "Gray's Ointment." To give us legs to each man of their name, That may attend the Polls to record his name; For, whether a "Loco Foco," or a "Whig Coon," The Ointment will cure him, and that very soon. It will cure him, should he even drink "licker." But, a "temperance man," it will cure much quicker. Yes, prepare, I say, Locos, for a very warm battle; And stand not back. While, like no-horned cattle; But, "foller or no foller, stand up to the race." And should you die for your cause, you'll have friends at your back, who'll see your political combat. And may your fate not be that of the Killbuck case.
Now, in conclusion, I deem it proper to say, If the Ointment don't cure, I'll receive no pay. Then forward your orders, without any delay, To your humble servant,

Doctor Brandreth's Pills.
THESE PILLS are so well known for a mild yet effectual purgative that it is almost needless to say anything about their excellent qualities. As a general family and antibilious medicine they are without a rival. The looseness of spirits, acute headache, &c. &c. to which all are more or less subject in this climate, are removed immediately by a dose of the Brandreth Pill. They are alike safe for children, as to every other period of life, and require no extra attention in diet or clothing. Their virtues may be summed up as a medicine which strengthens the feeble, and consolidates the muscles of the strong; and will be found of infinite value to females of all classes who wish to be secure from sickness.
OBSERVE.—No Brandreth Pills are genuine, unless each box has upon it three labels, and on each label two signatures of Dr. Benjamin Brandreth. So that each box to be genuine must have six signatures of Dr. Brandreth upon it.

SHOCCO SPRINGS,
WARREN COUNTY,
NINE MILES SOUTH OF WARRENTON, AND TEN MILES FROM THE RALEIGH AND GASTON RAIL ROAD.
THE UNDERSIGNED takes this method to inform her friends and the public, that she has renovated and extended her buildings, and laid in an ample supply of every thing for the comfortable accommodation of all Visitors, who may favor her with their company during the approaching Watering Season, which will begin on the 1st of June ensuing. She flatters herself, that with the simple means she possesses, with an earnest disposition on her part to make her Visitors comfortable, and with the aid of a gentleman, whose qualifications and attentions cannot fail to please in his department, that she will give entire satisfaction.
In consequence of the great scarcity of money, the undersigned will arrange her charges to suit the times. They will be as low as possible, and a considerable deduction made for Families, particularly by the Season.
The known efficacy and safety of the Shocco Water, the fine and airy situation of the Establishment, the convenient arrangement of the buildings, and the undersigned to hope that, during the approaching Season, she will be favored with the company of all who wish to restore, or to preserve their health, and to ensure whose comfort and pleasure, she prizes the most unreserved attention.

DR. B. BRANDETH'S LINIMENT.
WHICH by its extraordinary power dissolves Pain or soreness; thus sprains, stiff sinews, white swellings, rheumatic pains or stiffness, stiffness of the joints, tumors, unnatural hardness, stiff neck, sore throat, cramp, contractions of the muscles, scrofulous enlargements, tender feet, and every description of injury affecting the exterior of the human frame, are cured or greatly relieved, by his never to be sufficiently extolled remedy.
The following letter from Major General Sandford, as to the qualities of the external remedy, speaks volumes:
New York, Feb. 9, 1842.
Dear Sir—When you oblige me with another bottle of your excellent Liniment! It is certainly the best of the kind I have ever seen. It has cured entirely my son's knee, about which I was so uneasy, and I have found it productive of immediate relief in several cases of external injury in my family. A few evenings since my youngest child was seized with a violent attack of croup, which was removed in twenty minutes, by rubbing her chest and throat freely with the external remedy. I think you ought to manufacture this Liniment for general use, instead of confining the use of it, as you have heretofore done, to your particular acquaintances.
