WM. W. GRAY'S Invaluable Ointment.

FOR THE CURE OF

EXTERNAL DISEASES GENERALLY.

The Presidential contest in eighteen-forty-four, Will be more severe than any known before. Not one friend of the great Henry Clay, Will, from the Polls, he found away; While the numerous friends of Van Buren, Will prove themselves prompt, zealous men. And it is said, that the supporters of Calhoun, Will be at the election before the afternoon. We wished to say something of Captain Tyler, too, But he has no hope, presented now to view. And the Hero of the 'Crossings," and Gen'i. Scott. With Buchanan and Cass, we must leave in one lot The parties then, being on victory bent, Should supply themselves with 'Gray's Ointment; To give sound legs to each man of their lame, That he may attend the Polls to record his name : For, whether a " Luco Foco," or a " Whig Coun."

The Cintment will cure him, and that very soon. It will cure him, should he even drink "licker" But, a " temperance man, it will cure much quicker, Yes, prepare I say, Locos for a very warm battle, And stand not back, Whigs, like no-horned cattle; But, "fodder or no fodder, stand up to the rack," And should you die for your cause, you'll have friends at your back.

Onward, then Spartans, in your political combats, And may your fare not be that of the Kilkenny cars

Now, in conclusion. I deem it proper to say, If the Ointment don't cure, I'll receive no pay. Then forward your orders, without any delay, To your humble servant, WILLIAM W. GRAY.
