TO THE PUBLIC.

N a late " Raleigh Register," I saw with astonishment an Advertisement, giving notice of an Attachment against my property, sued out at the instance of Jacob Hunter, during my absence to Alabama. No one, to whom I am indebted, ever before so served me; and, in the present instance, I can show that this attachment issued on the assertion, by Jacob Hunter, of a base falsehood; The facts are these: In 1842, I endorsed a claim of an order, drawn on Isaac Sullivant, of Anson County, by Alfred W Lewis, of this City, for $200. But an instrument of writing was drawn, at the same time, between Lewis, myself, and Hunter, the condition of which was that Hunter was to make the money, or try to do so, out of Sullivant. And I was only bound, in the event of his failing to secure t e amount due, from the said Sullivant. He waited from August 1842, until some time in 1843, and never sued Sutlivant. In the meantime, Sultivant died, and left an unincumbered Estate of $25,000 to $30,000. Still, Mr. Hunter fails to sue his Executer, but prefers going before a Magistrate, in my absence, and swears that I am justly indebted to him in the sum of $200. These facts, I am prepared to establish by Richard Smith, Esq. of Raleigh, who drew the instrument of writing between us; or, I am willing to refer to the instrument itself. wish the public to know the facts of the case, and I have fairly stated them. If Jacob Hunter, the noteshaver, and oppressor of the poor, will sue Mr. Sullivant's Executor, and fails to make the recovery, then acknowledge myself bound for the amount of the claim; but not otherwise.

Doctor Brandreth's Pills.

HESE PILLS are so well known for a mild yet effectual purgative that it is almost inscious to say anything about their excellent qualities. As a general family and antibilious medicine they are without a rival. The lowness of spirits, acute headache. &c. &c., to which all are more or less subject in this climate, are removed immediately by a dist of the Brandreth Pill. They are slike safe for children, as. to every other period of life, and require no extra attention in diet or clothing. Their virtues may be summed up as a medicine which strengthens the feeble, articonsolidates the muscles of the strong; and OBSERVE-No Brandreth Pills are genuine, unless each box has upon it three labels, and on each lable two signatures of Dr. Benjamin Brandreth, So that each box to be genuine must have six signatures of Dr. Brandreth upon it.
