POETRY.

"LIKE ORIENT PEARLS AT RANDOM STRUNG."

From the Buffalo Daily Gazette.
TWO ACCOUNTS OF DREAMS.

Dreams are the mind's most dismal thoughts,
Sent, suddenly sent!
Dreams are the mind's most horrid thoughts,
Sent, pent, pent!
Trial on trial, and care on care;
No rest for the body or spirit there—
Now flying from death, and cannot fly,
Now dying and dying, and cannot die,—
Now either, now neither!
Oh! Dreams are the soul's own murderous things,
Sent, suddenly sent!
Terror on Terror sleep always brings,
Pent, pent, pent.

Dreams are the mind's most beautiful thoughts,
Wild, joyfully wild!
Dreams are the mind's most enchanting thoughts,
Piled, piled, piled!
Image on image—scene on scene,
No point of time—no space between;
The mind rushes out like a bird, to fly
With rapid wing against the sky,
Now higher, now thither!
Oh! Dreams are the spirit's own treasured things,
Wild, gladsomely wild!
Pleasure on pleasure sleep always brings,
Piled, piled, piled!

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE MAID OF HO-NAN.

A CHINESE TALE.
In a richly wooded and secluded valley in the province of Honan, is still seen the residence of an aged Mandarin, who after many years of faithful service in various government situations retired full of years and honors to pass in tranquility the days of declining life in the bosom of his family. Mantajin, for that was the name of the venerable man, had one only daughter, the sole surviving child of his first wife, who, dying, left him this pledge of their affection. It was often with delight that he contemplated the daily increasing resemblance in voice, feature, and manner, between the daughter and her affectionately-remembered mother. He had given to this his favorite child the name of Sing-lee. She was pre-eminently beautiful. Her eyes were dark, bright, and sparkling, like the gems of the Langan mine, her hair was of the softest silk, and black as the plumage of the raven, her complexion was as fair as the white Me-lin rose, tinged with the blush of the early morning, her voice was as the sound of music, and her expressions flowed from her mouth, which displayed teeth of surpassing whiteness, like the pure stream from the Lykwan fountain. Sing-lee had attained the age of womanhood, and was solicited in marriage by numerous suitors, by some of whom she was termed the rose, by others the lily of the valley. It was no uncommon occurrence to see inscriptions descriptive of her beauty hung amidst the fruit upon the branches of trees to the following and similar effect:

The rose that bends its head forlorn,
O'erflowing with the tears of morn,
Unfolds its beauty to the ray,
That kisses every tear away,
Smiles fragrant upon all around,
And glows on Love's delighted ground.

These and verses of a kindred kind were hung suspended among flowers remarkable for their beauty and fragrance. They were plucked from the trees by the female attendants of Sing-lee; who brought them to their mistress. They were read by her sometimes with delight, but oftener with sorrow.

Her father, who, as life advanced, had become extremely covetous, had resolved upon marrying her to the Heen of a neighboring district, a man of large landed estate and great wealth. It was the filial duty of Sing-lee to obey in respectful silence; but her hours were passed in solitude and tears.

From the latticed window of her chamber (round which the rose clung in clusters,) which looked out upon the lake of the valley from the western tower of the building, her eye had often dwelt with admiration on the figure of a military horseman, and she had seen him with delight repeatedly gain the prize in throwing the discus and other martial exercises. This was Ping-choo, who had greatly distinguished himself in battle with his country's enemies under the Great Wall of China. A purple sash of honor had been conferred on him by the emperor.

or. The attendants of Sing-lee, never failed to pluck the inscriptions from the trees, under which Ping-choo was seen to repose himself, secure of a welcome reception from their mistress. But the destinies of Sing-lee were fixed. The period of her final union to the Heen approached. Several successive suns rose and set upon her sorrow, and the succeeding day was appointed for the marriage. The sun went down amid the tears of the evening, and murky clouds obscured the lustre of the stars of heaven. All nature seemed sunk in repose, when the solemn stillness of the night was disturbed by the gentle sound of an oar which ruffled the bosom of the clear blue lake of the valley. A small boat was seen to glide from the shore near the gate-way of the western tower. In it was a single white female figure. The watchman of the night deemed it one of the spirits of the river or mountain, which, on the eve of all remarkable events, were seen in the valley. The boat reached the centre of the lake, a plaintive and mournful song was heard to proceed from the spot. To this succeeded a faint shriek of despair and agony. A momentary moon-beam made the object, as it were, appear and disappear in an instant. It sunk into the lake, the surface of which seemed to tremble, and the cold wave passed over it. The gathering clouds portended an approaching storm, and a tempest arose the most violent ever remembered in the valley. The flowers in the garden of Sing-lee were scattered by the blast and an ancient tree, long regarded as the pride of the forest, was thrown down. The heavy peals of thunder spoke the indignation of heaven at some event which had occurred upon earth, and the poles of the Mandarin residence, the emblems of official rank, were shattered by the lightning.

To this calamitous night succeeded a clear and tranquil morning; no traces were seen of the tempest, but in the ruins it had occasioned. Her female attendants ascended to the chamber of Sing-lee but she was no where to be found. The intelligence was reluctantly communicated to her aged father, who made the echoes of the valley ineffectually resound to the repetition of her name. He was returning distracted along the shore of the lake, his head bent down in sorrow and despair, when a chaplet of white artificial flowers was observed on the surface of the water. It was the same which Sing-lee had received as a parting gift from her dying mother, as an emblem of innocence and virtue, to be worn on the day of her marriage. The dog which had been the constant companion of Sing-lee in her hours of leisure, sprang suddenly from the bank and plunged into the lake. With a deeply uttered moan he took the chaplet in his mouth, and gently bearing it on the shore, laid it at the feet of the disconsolate father.

PRINT WAREHOUSE.

B. F. LEE, (formerly of the firm of Lord & Lee), and U. B. BREWSTER, under the firm of LEE & BREWSTER, have established at 113 Pearl street, New York, a
WAREHOUSE
ON AN EXTENSIVE SCALE, EXCLUSIVELY FOR
PRINTED CALICOES.
To supply the City and interior trade by the Piece or Package.
By confining their attention entirely and exclusively to this one article, L. & B. will be enabled not only to exhibit a more extensive and beautiful assortment than is to be found elsewhere, (there being no similar establishment for prints in the United States) but to sell always at prices as low, and generally lower than those of houses whose attention and means are divided among a large variety of articles.
The entire stock, embracing about two thousand different patterns and colorings, comprises all the latest and choicest styles, to which will be constantly added all the desirable new styles which appear, many of which cannot be had elsewhere.
Catalogues of prices, corrected with every variation of the market, will be put into the hands of buyers. All orders will receive the best attention.

PILLS!! PILLS!! PILLS!!!

HEALTH THE TRUEST RICHES.
THE CELEBRATED
Hygeian Vegetable Pills,
Can be had at the Store JOHN PRIMROSE, FAYETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH, N. C. MOAT'S MORISON PILLS.

THE GENUINE HYGEIAN VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE—Accurately prepared by Dr. H. S. Moat, of New York, from the original recipe used for many years by his late father, Mr. Thomas Moat, Vice President of the British College of Health.
Twenty years' successful administration of these celebrated medicines in Europe, and more than twelve years in the United States, have established their high reputation. Thousands of both sexes, who have been restored to health—the numerous sufferers rescued from premature death—and volumes of certified cases of cure, embracing every disease in the long catalogue of human misery; must convince the most incredulous of their superiority and the truth of the Hygeian theory, resulting from scientific research and experience, namely, that man is subject to only one real disease—impurity of the blood.
The Medicines being composed entirely of herbs or vegetable matter, purify the blood, and carry off the corrupt humor of the body, in a manner so simple as to give every day ease and pleasure.
Man will be born to days of bliss, compared to what has hitherto been his lot, weighed down as he has been by disease, infirmities, and sufferings which no earthly power knew how to alleviate, until this discovery was presented to the world. The weak, the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate, are in a few days strengthened by their operation, and the most obstinate complaints are removed by perseverance without the expense of a Physician. Adapted to all circumstances and situations, they are the best Medicine ever invented for Families, or to take to sea, preventing scurvy and costiveness, requiring no change of diet, particular regimen, or care against taking cold.
The propensity of these medicines, has induced many speculators to attempt imposition on the public, by forging the labels, or forcing their Imitations in the notice through the medium of the Press—Some of them pretend to Hygeian principles, by stealing from the writings of the Hygeist, and copying whole pages into their fulsome advertisements.
But as they cannot copy the medicines, their specific or their deleterious nostrums prove to be unavailing, their puffing and piracy become evident; disappointment to the afflicted is eventual, and with just obloquy the pretenders sink into oblivion.
The Hygeian medicines, first introduced into this country by H. S. Moat, in 1830, have for the last four years been prepared by him, and the increasing sale attests their intrinsic merit; they comprise two sorts of Pills, No. 1 and No. 2, in single boxes of each at $1, 50, &c. The Vegetable Cleansing Powders, in large boxes, at 37 1/2 cents, with printed directions. Each packet has a fac simile of the signature of H. Shephard Moat, and to prevent counterfeits, are signed with a pen by the district agent and sub-agent on a label of yellow paper.
None are genuine unless they have these signatures, and are obtained from sub-agents, who can produce their written appointments from the district agent, and whose names are advertised in their respective districts.
H. SHEPHERD MOAT, Principal Office, 50 Canal St.
All orders will be promptly filled at 20 per cent. less than retail prices for all sums over twenty five dollars, for cash.
Some persons in every Town and Village, ought to keep the valuable medicine, for the benefit of their fellow men. One individual, sent ninety miles to procure them.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA—WAKE COUNTY.

In the Court of Equity. Clerk and Master's Office, Aug. 11, 1843.
William Peace, vs. John M. Peace and others.
The Plaintiff's Bill in the above entitled cause, states in substance, that Joseph Peace of Raleigh, hath lately departed this life, intestate, unmarried, and without issue; that the plaintiff and the defendants John M. Peace and Pleasant Peace are brothers of the said Joseph; that he had in his lifetime, one other brother, named James Barr, and four sisters, Elizabeth Barr, Nancy Barr, Mary Peace and Lucy Peace, who all died many years before the said Intestate; that James Barr left a daughter Nancy, intermarried with one Fuller, (whose Christian name is unknown to the plaintiff,) and resides in Shelby County, Tennessee; and that James had a son named Thomas, who is dead, leaving two children, who reside in Alabama—one a son named John G. Barr, and the other, a daughter, whose name is unknown to the plaintiff. That Elizabeth Barr was twice married; by her first husband, one William Potter, she had issue two children, Robert and Margaret, who are believed to be dead without issue. And by her second husband, Dr. Miles King, she had issue four sons, John, Edmund, Alexander and William, all of whom are dead—the three last named, in the belief of the plaintiff, without issue—and John, leaving a son, Leonidas King, residing in Alabama or Tennessee and the plaintiff believes, other children, but if so, their names are unknown to him. And she had also four daughters, Julia, who intermarried with one Piggers, (now deceased,) and who is residing a widow in Pontotoc, Mississippi; Harriet, now the wife of one Harman, whose christian name is unknown to the plaintiff, residing in Monroe County, Georgia. May, now the wife of one Minton, whose christian name is also unknown—residing in Marshall County, Mississippi; and Elizabeth, now the widow of one Coke, and residing in Pickens County, Alabama; that Nancy Barr died leaving issue in North Carolina; that Mary Peace intermarried with Isaac Kittrell, and removed to Alabama, where she left issue one daughter, Harriet, married to some one, whose name is wholly unknown to the plaintiff—that said Mary had other children, who are dead, but whether with or without issue, is unknown to the plaintiff; that Lucy Peace intermarried with Lewis Lemay, and (besides other issue) had a son named John P. Lemay, now of Deoto County, Mississippi.
And the said Bill further shews that the said Plaintiff and the said John M. Peace and Pleasant Peace, with the issue of the said deceased brother and sisters of the said Intestate, are his heirs at law; that the Plaintiff and the Intestate in his lifetime were partners under the firm of "Joseph and William Peace," and as such, were seized in fee simple of divers Lots and Tracts of Land in Raleigh, and in the Counties of Wake and Granville, and which are particularly described in the said Bill, which are a clear surplus of the said partnership effects, of which the said Plaintiff in his own right, is entitled to one moiety, and with the said living brothers, and the issue of the said deceased brother and sisters, of the said Intestate, is entitled, as heirs at law, of the said Intestate, to the other moiety, between them to be divided according to their several interests. And the scope and prayer of the Bill for certain reasons therein set forth, is for the sale of the said Lots and Tracts of Land, in order, that the proceeds of such sale may be divided in lieu of actual partition.
And the Plaintiff, having this day filed his said Bill, in the office of the said Court, and supported the same by his affidavit, in writing, I, Perrin Busbee, Clerk and Master of the said Court do, at the desire of the said Plaintiff, and according to the Act of Assembly in such case made, by this advertisement to be six weeks inserted in the Raleigh Register, hereby notify and warn the said Julia Piggers, the said Minton and Mary his wife, the said Harman and Harriet his wife, the said Elizabeth Coke, the said Leonidas King, the said Fuller and Nancy his wife, the said John G. Barr, the said Harriet, daughter of the said John P. Lemay, as well as all other persons not residents of the State of North Carolina, who may have or claim any interest in the premises, to appear before the Judge of the said Court of Equity, at the Court to be held at the Court House in Raleigh, on the first Monday after the fourth Monday of September next, and plead, answer or demur to the said Bill, otherwise the same will be taken as confessed by them respectively, and to be heard ex parte.
Witness, the said Perrin Busbee, Clerk and Master of the said Court, the 11th August 1843.
