NEW FALL AND WINTER

GOODS.

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to the public that he is now opening a choice selection of English and French Cloths, Cassimeres and. Vestings, of all colors and qualities, selected by himself with much care and judgment in the Northern Markets, and principally for Gash.

In offering this Stock to the public, the Subscriber desires it to be distincily understood that his prices (to say nothing of others who are offering to do work for prices which they know they cannot do justice by) will be such as sha I warrant as good a garment for as small a price as any other House in the State-it being his object to pay all honest debts without the aid of Bankrupicy.

He deems it useless to mention his Tariff of Prices because his work will be done in a superior and more elegant style than the one that has been offered ; and the prices charged will accord with the quality of the Goods. He thinks it unnecessary to say any thing more than those in want of would do well to call and examine his stock before they purchase elsewhere, as he has Cloths of all qualities, and will make them up on the Cash principle, probably a little cheaper than some who would wish satisfy th to be regarded as the only fair dealers in the City. As the Subscriber has and keeps on hand a General Assortment of
