By confining their attention entirely and exclusively to this one article, L. & B. are enabled no only to exhibit a more extensive and beautiful assortment than is to be found elsewhere, (there being an similar establishment for prints in the United States) but to sell always at prices as low, and generally lower, than those of houses whose attention and means are divided among a large variety of articles. The Stock, embracing Some Thousands of differ ent Patterns and Colorings, including a splendid assortment of French Prints comprises all the lestest and choicest styles, to which will be constantly added all the new and desirable patterns as they appear in the market, besides many which will be printed exclusively for their own sales.

Purchasers of this article will find it to their interest to examine this Stock before buying their Prints.) If they do not purchase, they will at least have the advantage of seeing all the new styles, and learning the lowest market prices. Catalogues of prices, corrected with every variation of the market, are put into the hands of buyers.

IMPORTANT SALBUILLE OF ROCKY POINT PASTIFE.

The "Mosely Hall" Estate, containing about 2600 Acres, amongst the finest Lands in the State. BY virtue of a Decree of the Court of Equity for Cumberland County, the undersigned will sell at the Court House in Wilmington, on Monday, the Sth day of January next, being the first day of the Extra Term of New Hanover Superior Court, the well known Estate called "Mosely Hail," on Rocky Point, in said-County, about 18 miles from Wilmington, within from 2 to 4 miles of the Rail fload, and lying immedistely on the North East Branch of the Cape Fear, which is navigable thence to Wilmington; for bouts and rafts. The tract contains about 12000 acres, of which a large proportion is of the richest and most durable soil, being founded on rotten Limestone, lying very near the surface, which affords an inexhaustible supply of manure. It cannot be worn out. The tract was entered nearly a century ago, by Col. Mose ly, the then Surveyor General of the Province of North Carolina, who selected it in preference to any Lands in the Province, on account of its exhaustless fertility; and though it has been cultivated ever since with no effort to improve it by artificial means, it still retains its rich soil.

It will be divided into several Tracts, of which one The terms of sale are very easy, being a payment of only one-eighth of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in equal instalments at one, two. three and four years. Notes, with approved security.

FRESH OYSTERS!!! WANTE Subscriber direct from Norfolk, has established himself in Raleigh, in order to carry on the Dyster trade more effectually, through the country West of this, and the central part of North Carolina. His arrangements are so effected, that by the arrival of the Mail Train, he receives fresh opened Oysters, every day from Norfolk, which will enable him to furnish the above great luxury, farther up and through the country, that has ever been attempted hitherto -The Subscriber professing, through years of experience, to know something about Oysters, to orders, he has five and six gallon kegs, (well hooped) which can be carried in Stages or other conveyances, as may be most convenient. West of Salisbury and farther up that country, it is difficult to send fresh Oysters. The has Oysters put up in gallon Campisters, in the same manner as Oysters are prepared in such establishments or Refectories—they are perfectly good for 12 or 15 days : when taken out of the canister, they can be rimed over, and such ingredients added as Butter. &c. as in the general mode of cooking fresh Oysters. For mutual convenience, families may by clubbing together, receive suitable supplies, without receiving an excess of the article, or incurring unnecessary expense—half dozen canisters, (more or less) can be larged up and safely sent to the address of one indi-larged. The Subscriber pledges himself to give to his business unremitting attention, and afford every satisfaction in his power. Address and Releigh, Nov. 7, 1843.
