Warrenton Male Academy. THE NINTH Session of this Institution w com mence on Monday, the 8th day of January 1844 The terms of Board and Tuition are the same a here tofore published.

The undersigned takes great pleasure in info ming the patrons and friends of the School and the public ic, that the morals of all the boys entrusted to his | call at immediate care and control shall be strictly guarded, and, to accomplish this desirable end, no Student from the Boarding House shall visit the Town, except on special occasions, and never without the permission of the Teacher. It is desirable that all Boys, who have no near relatives in the Town or its vicinity. shall board with the Principal, upon whom devolves the great responsibility of preserving the morals of the Students. It is confidently hoped that the well established character of Warrenton for health, its contiguity to the lower regions of Virginia and North Caroli na, its facility of access by the Rail Road, the long experience of the Teacher in the profession to which he devotes his undivided time and attention, the reasonable terms of the Institution, and the high order of morals enforced, will all combine to secure to the School alarge and generous patronage. For any information in relation to the professional standing of the Principal, he would most respectfully refer gentle men to the Trustees of this Institution, as well as to

PROSPECTUS OF THE

SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REVIEW. In commencing the Fifth Volume of this publication, the Editor wishes to urge, with earnestness, its claims upon the patronage and support of the Citizens of the South. Its circulation, always respectable, but | in the Richmond Medical College. be, much extended, and the work be thus rendered a more efficient organ in maintaining the rights and sustaining the literary reputation of the Southern States. The discontinuance of other periodcials, which have divided the public patronage, renders the present time a peculiarly appropriate one for presenting such co n-

It may be proper to state, briefly, the leading objects which such a Periodical proposes to accomplish, necessity of sustaining one with energy, at the present time, at the South.

The general objects of such Periodicals are pretty the interests of the arts, sciences, letters and politics are involved, at certain periods in the history of the country. Their aim is, not only to review books, and, in the spirit of thorough and impartial criticism, to decide upon their merits, but also, in the performance of this duty, to discuss important subjects in pressions upon the character of the people and destinies of the age; to diffuse knowledge, not to foster prejudices; to create, direct and control, not to echo, opinions ; and finally, to canvass principles and maintain truth in a calm and dignified manner, and in a style chaste, luminous, nervous and appropriate. The offspring of a high state of civilization, they furnish evidence of intellectual advancement, and are the ubject of a just and honorable pride, regarded as the exponents of the literary standing and character of

VALUABLE LAND AND NEGROES FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, having qualified as Administrator with the Will annexed of JOHN MOONE, deeased, of the County of Chatham, and State of North Carolina, at the last Court of Pleas and Quarter Ses-

the said defendant, John Buckner, personally to be day of January next, the following Valuable Proper-One Valuable TRACT OF LAND, whereon the Pittsboro', on the third Monday of March next, then | said deceased last resided, lying on the Stage Road, and there to plead or answer to the petition of Milly leading from Raleigh to Salisbury, 21 miles from the former place and 12 miles from Pittsboro'. Said Tract, or Plantation, is well improved with a good two Story Dwelling House, Kitchen, Barn, Stables, Witness, John Thompson, Clerk of the Superior and other necessary Out-houses for a family, with a hands of the said Executors, which balance the Ex-communities. The importance of sustaining such a work at the South, with ability and effect, is equally obvious. The South, like the North and the other sections of the Union, owes a duty to the age and to the country in behalf of her literature. She requires an able and high-toned Periodical, that is fitted to nourish, and call into active exercise, the literary talent of our Southern Commonwealths. But, more than this, our institutions are peculiar, and require a district organ through which they may be defended with power and spirit, when assailed, as they often are, by other sections of the American Confederacy. This aggressive conduct on the part of our Countrymen, so prejudicial to the general harmony, requires to be met six months credit, the purchaser giving bond with and repelled by argument, first, and by action, if necessary, afterwards. The South is an agricultural country, and her position is different from that of other sections more particularly devoted to commerce and manufactures. Her views of her peculiar interests should be known, and require to be maintained and defended with ability, through some such channel. The Southern Quarterly Review is issued, at Charleston, in January, April, July and October. Among its pledged Contributors, are Dew, Bachman, Burnap, Davezac, Upshur, Cushing, Tucker, Simms, Cartwright, Elliott, Garnett, Thornwell, Grayson, Holmes, Everett, Breckenridge, Brantley, King, Stefidently made to the generous and patriotic feelings of Southern citizens in its behalf.
