VALUABLE PLANTATION

is offered for sale, near Tallahassee, Florida. The subscriber, wishing to remove to a more Northern climate, offers for sale the Tract or Land, on which he resides, situated about 5 miles from Tallahassee, in Leon County. There are 1600 acres contained in the Tract, a very large proportion of which is of very superior quality. The place is plentifully watered, with excellent water; and there are not more than 20 acres of waste land in the body. About 750 acres of land are cleared, from which, with a force of fifty-five or sixty hands, in a favorable season, 300 or 350 Bales of Cotton can be produced in a season, and more than would serve the plantation. The land is situated, that it can be divided into two separate Tracts if preferred. There is good land enough to employ from seventy-five to eighty hands to advantage. The natural growth is Sweet Gum, Post Oak, Red Oak, Cherry, Ash and Dogwood. The upper terminus of the Rail Road, leading from Tallahassee to Stewart's, is only 8 miles distant, and the Railroad is twenty-three miles long.
The improvements, including buildings of every description, are extensive and convenient. A large white family can be comfortably accommodated; and there are Cabins enough for the convenient accommodation of about 80 Slaves. There is a newly erected Gin House on the place, with all necessary appurtenances.
The society of the neighborhood is of the most desirable kind, and the lands adjacent to the Plantations of the Messrs. Gotten and N. Thompson from North Carolina. There are also several Churches, convenient enough to attend.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER, being desirous of moving to the West, offers his land for Sale. There is about one thousand acres in one body, twelve miles North of Raleigh, on the two Fall Creeks and New River. There are two settlements; the home plantation is a good dwelling house, five rooms, between water and two above, with a good cotton gin and saw, wheat threshing, blacksmith's shop, with every out house that is necessary. The other settlement has a good dwelling house, with good out-houses. There are two good mill sites, on each creek, which never was known to fail. There is river and creek bottom land sufficient to make two of three hundred barrels corn every year, with improved and fresh land to make 20 or 30 bales cotton. The wood land is strong and well timbered, in a delightful neighborhood, famed for its healthiness. One half the amount would be taken in likely young negroes; the other half cash. Possession given next fall.

LAW SCHOOL IN HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

THE Spring Term of this School will commence on February 23, 1844.

The design of this Institution is to afford a complete course of legal education for gentlemen, intended for the Bar in any of the United States, and also systematic course of studies in commercial jurisprudence, for those who intend to devote themselves exclusively to mercantile business and pursuits. The course of instruction for gentlemen intended for the Bar embraces the various branches of Public and Constitutional Law, Admiralty, Maritime, Equity, and Common Law, which are common to all the United States, with occasional illustrations of Foreign Jurisprudence. The course of instruction for gentlemen intended for the mercantile profession is more limited, and embraces the principal branches of Commercial Jurisprudence, to-wit: the Law of Agency, Partnership, of Bailments, of Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes, of Insurance, of Shipping, Navigation, and other Maritime concerns, and of Sales, and, if the student desire it, also of Constitutional Law. No public instruction is given in the local or peculiar municipal jurisprudence of any particular State; but the students are assisted by the Professors, as occasion may require, in their private study of the Law and practice peculiar to their own States. The active labors of instruction are shared equally by Mr. Justice Story, who is Dane Professor of Law in the University, and by Mr. G. L. S. R. Royal Professor of Law, who has the immediate direction and superintendence of the Law School.

No examination and no particular course of previous study are necessary for admission; but the student is expected to produce testimonials of a good moral character. He also gives a bond in the sum of $200 to the Steward, with a surety resident in Massachusetts, for the payment of College dues; or deposits, at his election, $150 with the Steward, at the commencement of each term.

Students may enter the school in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits. But they are advised to enter at the beginning of those studies, rather than at a later period, as the most useful to themselves. They may also elect what particular studies they will pursue.

The fees are at the rates of $50 a term, and $25 for half or any lesser fraction of a term; for which sum, without any additional charge, students have the use of the lecture rooms, the Law Library, containing upwards of $75,000 volumes, the College Library, and the text-books; and they are admitted free to all the public lectures in the University. They may also study any foreign language taught in the University for $10 per week. The price of board varies from $25 to $30 per week, and of room rent from 75 cents to $1 25 per week. Fuel, prepared for use, is furnished at cost, by the Steward, if the students desire it.

The Academic year, which commences on the Friday after the fourth Wednesday in August, is divided into two terms of twenty weeks, each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

All students who have pursued their studies in the Law School for three terms, or eighteen months, or who, after having been admitted to the bar, have pursued their studies in the Law School for one year, are entitled, upon the certificate and recommendation of the Law Faculty, to the degree of Bachelor of Laws.
