OUR GLORIOUS CONSTITUTION.

Tune—Tullochgorum.

Our country spreads out far and wide,
From mountain top to ocean's tide,
And mighty states lie side by side,
In peaceful, happy union;—
O'er all our borders wide and free,
All our borders,
All our borders,
O'er all our borders wide and free,
In brotherly communion;
O'er all our borders wide and free,
A noble, patriot band agree
To guard their chartered liberty—
Our glorious Constitution.

Our fathers gave the sacred scroll;
Wrenched from the despot's stern control,
With bloody hands and noble soul,
In dreadful revolution;
And cherished be its spotless page,
And cherished be,
And cherished be,
And cherished be its spotless page,
From Vandal hands and faction's rage,
As time rolls on from age to age,
Our glorious Constitution.

Let demagogues exert their force,
To sway it from his destined course,
Its choicest social rights coerce,
And spread around confusion;
The gallant Whigs in firm array,
The gallant Whigs,
The gallant Whig,
The gallant Whigs in firm array,
With noble resolution,
The gallant Whigs in firm array,
With fearless generous HENRY CLAY,
Will right its wrongs—direct its way,—
Our glorious Constitution.

What though the storms of strife arise,
And thunders roll along the skies,
And loud, and fierce ascend the cries
Of treason and disunion;
With old Kentucky's statesman true,
Old Kentucky,
Old Kentucky,
With old Kentucky's statesman true,
We fear no dissolution;
With old Kentucky's statesman true,
To still the storm, the strife subdue;
The recreant shall his vow renew,
T' our glorious Constitution.

Though Loco-focos rule the hour,
Like demons with malignant power,
And change a nation's richest flower,
To haggard prostitution;
We'll raise our banner broad and high,—
Raise our banner,
Raise our banner,
We'll raise our banner broad and high,
Inscribed with retribution;
We'll raise our banner broad and high,
And spread its stars along the sky,
And "sink or swim"—and "live or die,"
By our glorious Constitution.

MARRIAGE FEES IN COON SKINS.—The Richmond Compiler has a correspondent who is travelling "Out West," and who is taking notes" of all he sees and hears. He relates the following anecdote, as it was told to him at a wedding party:—

The conversation turned on the hard times and to rally the groom, I remarked that times were so hard in Virginia that young people, though ever so loving and matrimonially disposed, could not get married. But our landlord remarked that the years 1821 and 1822, in Indiana and Kentucky, were still harder, if possible, for he then had to perform the marriage ceremony and take his fees in "coon-skins!"—that twelve skins was his regular price, and, as he was a hatter by trade, and it soon became known that he would marry for coon-skins, he did a large busines, both at hatting and marrying.—Many a runaway couple (said the ex Squire,) from Kentucky have I married for coon-skins. They frequently brought them (continued he) on horseback, rolled up and tied behind them, like a great coat. We were all in a roar of laughter, and thought him joking; but he affirmed it to be literally true, that he had married at least fifty couples for coon-skins, and that he had more marriage ceremonies to perform than any other Justice, from this circumstance—or rather, to use his own words, "I got all the marrying because I would take coon-skins."

QUITE ROMANTIC.—Some twenty years since a man, then well known in this city, left his family here and went to the South, since which time, until recently, nothing has been heard of him. Supposing her husband to be dead, the wife married a second and a third time, and is now in her third widowhood. Some days since the first husband returned, sought out and found the partner of his early years, and in a few days they will be again married. This man has passed through many vicissitudes during his long absence. He was captured off the Island of Cuba in a privateer, and was for many years a prisoner among the Spaniards. He escaped to South America, and was engaged in the wars under Bolivar. Finally he has been enabled to return to this city, where he happily finds his family, who have undergone almost as many changes as himself. Rip Van Winkle, after twenty years snooze, scarce found as great a change in the localities of his youth, as does this absent one find in every thing around him.—All is changed but the heart of his wife-bride.—Louisville Dime.

A VALUABLE PLANTATION is offered for sale, near Tallahassee, Florida. The Subscriber, wishing to remove to a more Northern climate, offers for sale the TRACT OF LAND, on which he resides, situated about 8 miles from Tallahassee, in Leon County. There are 1600 acres contained in the Tract, a very large proportion of which is of very superior quality. The place is plentifully watered, with excellent water; and there are not more than 30 acres of waste land in the body. About 750 acres of land are cleared, from which, with a force of forty-five or fifty hands, in a favorable season, 300 or 350 Bales of Cotton can be produced in a season, and more Corn than would serve the Plantation. The land is so situated, that it can be divided into two separate Tracts if preferred. There is good land enough to employ from seventy-five to eighty hands to advantage. The natural growth is Sweet Gum, Post Oak, Red Oak, Cherry, Ash and Dogwood. The upper terminus of the Rail Road, leading from Tallahassee to Stewart's, is only 8 miles distant, and the Railroad is twenty-three miles long.

The improvements, including buildings of every description, are extensive and convenient. A large white family can be comfortably accommodated, and there are Cabins enough for the convenient accommodation of about 80 Slaves. There is a newly erected Gin House on the place, with all necessary appendages.

The society of the neighborhood is of the most desirable kind, and the lands adjoin the Plantations of the Messrs. Gatten and N. Thompson from North Carolina. There are also several Churches, convenient enough to attend.
