ST. MARY'S SCHOOL,
RALEIGH, N. C.
Right Rev. L. S. IVES, D. D., Visitor.
Rev. ALBERT SHERDES, Rector.

THE Fifth Session of this School will commence on the 1st day of June, and continue five months. A punctual attendance of the Pupils, at the opening of the Session, is very important, and is particularly requested.
The principal building of this Institution is of brick, about 90 feet by 60, three stories high, with a basement. The wings are of granite, 35 feet by 58, and two stories high. These buildings are on elevated ground, in the midst of an Oak Grove, of nearly 30 acres, one mile from the City of Raleigh—a situation perfectly beautiful at all seasons of the year.
The School, the School Room, and the Dormitories are each 35 feet by 57. The Dormitories are divided into alcoves, each designed for two pupils, and securing to them a closet for their dresses, and privacy for the duties of the Toilet.
The Chapel is furnished with an Organ, a Chancel, and an Altar, and is exclusively devoted to religious worship and instruction.
The course of Studies embraces the Ancient and Modern Languages, Mathematics, the Natural Sciences, Mental and Moral Philosophy, &c., and may be pursued in any branch, and to any extent that may be desired.
It is the aim of the Rector to give to every department of his School the highest efficiency, and to render it eminently worthy of the patronage it enjoys, and of that to which it aspires.

Mr. SHERDES will superintend any purchases Parents may authorize their children to make in the City, but no account will be opened of any Store, without the express sanction of parents or guardians. The Religious services of Sunday, being held in the Chapel of the Institution by the Rector, Pupils have rarely occasion to visit the City, and the pleasant attire is all that they require. They are allowed to accept invitations in the City for the day, only once a month, and never, for the evening. They have opportunities of seeing their friends, and acquiring ease of manner in society, at the Societies, which are statedly held during the session.
