Rev ALBERT SMEDES, Rector.

THE Fifth Session of this School will commence on the 1st day of June, and continue five months. A punctual attendance of the Pupils, at the opening of the Session, is very important, and is particularly requested.

These buildings are on elevated ground, in the midst of an Oak Grove of nearly 30 acres, one mile from the City of Raleigh—a situation perfectly healthful at all seasons of the year.

The Study, the School Room and the Dormitories are each 33 feet by 57. The Dormitories are divided into alcoves, each designed for two pupils, and securing to them a closet for their property, and privacy for the duties of the Toilet.

The Chapel is furnished with an Organ, a Chancel, and an Altar, and is exclusively devoted to religious worship and instruction.

The course of studies embraces the Ancient and Modern Languages, Mathematics, the Natural Sciences, Mental and Moral Philosophy, &c., and may be pursued in any branch, and to any extent that may be desired.
