Caution to Travellers.

E would respectfully caution the travelling public against misstatements made to operate against the Portsmouth and Chesapeake Bay Line, and state again, that our Train leaves Weldon every night on the arrival of the Stage from Sledge's and the Cars from Wilmington.

We regret exceedingly being compelled to issue the above "Caution," but recent detentions to Travel ers wishing to take this Line, make it imperative on us. Passengers being induced by the difference in fare. (50 cents,) to go round by the fait Read, are sure to be delayed 24 hours, as the Portsmouth Train leaves Weldon usually by 9 P. M. being two or three hours before the Train reaches here, which brings them around via Gaston, the Junction, Gary's &c.

Passengers wishing to avail the macives of this popular and comfortable route, will take Stage at Sledge's and thence on direct to Baltimore. Those for Philalelphia and New York. will be put on board of Philaelphia Steamers, off North Point.
