NEW GOODS.

NO HUMBUG! R. TUCKER having taken his son. Wm. H. I. Tucker, into partnership, the business will hereafter be conducted, at his old stand, under the firm of R. TUCKER & SON. They have just received from New York, Phileleiphia and Baltimore, their Fall and Winter Supply of Goods, Which they are determined to sell as I.O W as any house in the City, for CASH, or on a short credit to punctual customers. They cannot boast of being connected with any establishment at the North, nor undertake to say whether their Goods were hought before the time or after the fall—but they can assure their friends and the public generally, that the great secret of purchasing goods cheap in the Northern markets, is the temptation of CASH payments; and having thus laid in their supply, they know they cannot, and are resolved that they will not be undersold by their neighbors. They deem it necessary to add nothing more, than respectfully to invite purchasers to call and GIVE THEM A TRIAL to examine the quality and prices of their present carefully selected and extensive assortment, which comprises almost every article usually kept in stores, to suit the taste or wants of Ladies, Gentlemen or Children.

They know the kind of goods witch suit this market much better than any agent residing in the North, and are eareful to keep their assestment well replenished with such as may be necessary to meet the de-mands of the people, at the lowest prices, free from the per centage of store rent. R. Tucket tenders his grateful acknowledge ments to the public for the very liberal patronage which he has received at their hands and carnestly requests all those who are indebted to him to come forward and close their accounts by cash or notes. The importance of attending to this duty immediately must be readily seen and felt by all who have any knowledge of the nature of the mercantile business.
