November 18, 1834. 92-tds FOR SALE.

TENIE Subscribers will offer at public Sale, on the Sd Monday of December, to the highest bid-der, their House and Lot, situated at Wake Forest College. The improvements consist of a comforta-ble Dwelling and necessary out buildings, all hew, as the Lot was improved in 1641. The Lot is under good fence, containing a choice number of Fruit Frees, and is susceptible of improvement. Every particle of improvement will show to a great advan-tage, as it is situated immediately on the Rail Road, (the most elevated point at the College.) where a view of from 1 to 2 miles can be had of the Cars as they pass twice a day. The place holds out many inducements to Parents who have Children of either sex to educate. In addition to the Male Department, Collegiate and Academical, the Trustees have estab-tished a Female School, which is now in a flourishing condition It is also the healthiest location in the State. Our family spent two years at that place, without a fever, such as is witnessed in the low country of a miasmatic character. A credit of siz and twel-e months will be given to the purchaser, he giv ing notes (hearing interest from date) with sufficient security. JOHN A MOORE.
