

MISCELLANEOUS

A VIRGINIA COUNTRY RESIDENCE. An agreeable residence in the Valley...

Yosemite Park. Col. Tukey, who is admitted to be one of the best farmers in Northern Virginia...

In the cultivation of his farm, Col. Tukey pursues what is called the five year shift system, and is as follows: He takes a field...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.

rose, the honey-suckle, the Magnolia, the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley, so beautifully mentioned in Scripture...

A PETRIFFIED WOMAN. A Mr. Woodward, of Warren County, Ohio, said to be a man of veracity, gives the Basin Register, the following account of a petrified woman.

On the 6th day of last month, our venerable and much respected friend, John D. Irwin, closed his earthly career in the full hope of a happy immortality. On the following day an apparition of a female corpse was distinctly seen in the grave yard near...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.

LAUREL IN THE CITY. A New York Paper reports that the very first laurel tree introduced into the city...

LAUREL IN THE CITY. A New York Paper reports that the very first laurel tree introduced into the city...

A PETRIFFIED WOMAN. A Mr. Woodward, of Warren County, Ohio, said to be a man of veracity, gives the Basin Register, the following account of a petrified woman.

On the 6th day of last month, our venerable and much respected friend, John D. Irwin, closed his earthly career in the full hope of a happy immortality. On the following day an apparition of a female corpse was distinctly seen in the grave yard near...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.

YANKEE TRICKS. Common conceits in every variety of speech...

YANKEE TRICKS. Common conceits in every variety of speech...

A PETRIFFIED WOMAN. A Mr. Woodward, of Warren County, Ohio, said to be a man of veracity, gives the Basin Register, the following account of a petrified woman.

On the 6th day of last month, our venerable and much respected friend, John D. Irwin, closed his earthly career in the full hope of a happy immortality. On the following day an apparition of a female corpse was distinctly seen in the grave yard near...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.

THE BARON AND THE TWO BASKETS. James, circulating the streets of Darmstadt, with an German friend Von Holst...

THE BARON AND THE TWO BASKETS. James, circulating the streets of Darmstadt, with an German friend Von Holst...

A PETRIFFIED WOMAN. A Mr. Woodward, of Warren County, Ohio, said to be a man of veracity, gives the Basin Register, the following account of a petrified woman.

On the 6th day of last month, our venerable and much respected friend, John D. Irwin, closed his earthly career in the full hope of a happy immortality. On the following day an apparition of a female corpse was distinctly seen in the grave yard near...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.

THE BARON AND THE TWO BASKETS. James, circulating the streets of Darmstadt, with an German friend Von Holst...

THE BARON AND THE TWO BASKETS. James, circulating the streets of Darmstadt, with an German friend Von Holst...

A PETRIFFIED WOMAN. A Mr. Woodward, of Warren County, Ohio, said to be a man of veracity, gives the Basin Register, the following account of a petrified woman.

On the 6th day of last month, our venerable and much respected friend, John D. Irwin, closed his earthly career in the full hope of a happy immortality. On the following day an apparition of a female corpse was distinctly seen in the grave yard near...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.

THE BARON AND THE TWO BASKETS. James, circulating the streets of Darmstadt, with an German friend Von Holst...

THE BARON AND THE TWO BASKETS. James, circulating the streets of Darmstadt, with an German friend Von Holst...

A PETRIFFIED WOMAN. A Mr. Woodward, of Warren County, Ohio, said to be a man of veracity, gives the Basin Register, the following account of a petrified woman.

On the 6th day of last month, our venerable and much respected friend, John D. Irwin, closed his earthly career in the full hope of a happy immortality. On the following day an apparition of a female corpse was distinctly seen in the grave yard near...

GENERAL JACKSON'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The Union publishes the following extract of a letter from Nashville, dated June 7, to a gentleman in Washington...

GOVERNMENT OF CHILDREN. Mrs. Conitt, the Editor of the Mother's Monthly Journal, gives a pretty good specimen of family management in the following dialogue:

Child. Mother, I want a piece of cake. Mother. I haven't got any—it's all gone. Child. How there is some up in the cupboard—I saw it when you opened the door.

THE GARDEN. Adjacent to the pleasure grounds the Colonel has his fruit and kitchen garden, containing about three acres, surrounded by a high brick and stone wall...

THE GREEN HOUSE. Besides the beautiful flowers like the many walks of the pleasure grounds and are interspersed throughout them a fine green house evinces the great taste for the beautiful that pervades the owner.