RALEIGH
Classical Mathematical and MILITARY ACADEMY.

Classical Department:
J. M. LOVEJOY, PRECEPTOR;
Mathematical and Military Department:
W. F. BISBROW.

THE year will be divided into two Session of five months each; the first Session beginning on the first of January, and the second Session, on the first of July.

It is the design of the Preceptor, that this Institution shall not be surpassed, in the advantages afforded for acquiring a thorough English, Classical and Mathematical Education.

Pupils will be prepared to enter the Junior Class of any College in the United States.

TERMS OF TUITION.

For English and Mathematical Studies, per Session. $15 00
For Latin, Greek, French, Spanish and Italian Languages, per Session, 20 00

The advanced Classes may pursue the Studies of a lower Class, paying only for the Studies of the Class to which they belong.

Military Tactics taught to the Pupils, free of extra charge.

The design of the Military Department being to fit the Pupils to act, in case of emergency, as Officers, the West Point system of instruction will be carefully pursued, nor will the Army Tactics be departed from, in order to exhibit the boys for the benefit of the Institution, or for any other purposes.

By an Act of the last Legislature, the necessary arms and equipments will be furnished by the State, but Parents who wish their children instructed in the Military Department will be required to provide them with the prescribed Uniform.

Print Warehouse,
IN NEW YORK,
To supply the City and Interior Trade, by the Piece or Package,
REMOVED
From 113 Pearl Street, to
44 CEDAR STREET,
NEAR WILLIAM STREET.

LEE & BREWSTER give notice to the Dealers in Dry Goods, that they have removed their Warehouse for Printed Calicoes exclusively, from Pearl to 44 Cedar street. By confining their attention to Prints only, L. & B. are enabled to exhibit an assortment far surpassing any ever before offered in America—and to sell at prices as low, and generally lower, than houses whose attention is divided among a large variety of articles.

The Stock consists of several thousands of Patterns and Colorings, embracing every variety of

American and Foreign Prints

In market—many styles of which are got up exclusively for their own sales, and cannot be had elsewhere, except in second hands.

Dealers in Prints will find it for their interest to examine this Stock before making their purchases—they will have the advantage of learning the lowest market prices—and comparing all the desirable styles in market side by side.

Catalogues of Prices, corrected with every variation of the Market, are placed in the hands of buyers.

Valuable Prairie Plantation
FOR SALE.
ON A CREDIT OF 1, 2, 3 AND 4 PAYMENTS!!!

THE SUBSCRIBER offers for sale his Plantation, lying 7 miles west of Columbus, Mississippi, near the Robinson Road, and 6 miles from the River. This is a portion of that valuable Tract of Land, lately owned by Col. Jno. D. Amis, late of North Carolina, and has been considered one of the most valuable Cotton Farms in North Mississippi.

The Tract contains 720 Acres—440 acres in a high state of cultivation—and 60 acres deadened, which can be brought into cultivation with little trouble. The Gin House, Screw, Horse-Mill, Cabins, for the accommodation of 70 or 80 Negroes and other buildings necessary on a Farm, are all new—the water is good—Corn, Fodder, and stock of every description will be sold, either for cash or on a credit.

Possession given the first of January, 1846. The first payment may be a small one, if not convenient to pay much. The Tract can be enlarged, if desired.

Course for the Degree of A. M.

There is a course of higher instruction, entitling a successful Student to the degree of A. M., extending through two sessions after the close of the A. B. Course. Information concerning the details of this course may be obtained from the College Catalogue, published annually, or by corresponding with any of the Professors.

The Classical Certificate is necessary for the degree of A. M.

In addition to the regular Class of Municipal Law, there is a second or private course by the Professor, in which the Text Books are Tucker's Commentaries, Revised Code, Lomax's Digest, Stephen on Pleading, (1st or 2d ed.) Mitford's Pleading; whilst the Student will have the advantage of consulting an extensive and well selected Reference Library.

Fee for this Class, $ 50

The entire expenses at this institution for one session, need not exceed $200

Many Students get through for less.

Text Books in all the Classes may be had in town.

Religious Services are performed every Sunday in town, and the Student may have his choice of the Episcopal, Baptist or Methodist denominations—no remuneration therefor is expected or made.

Any farther information may be had by corresponding with Professor John Millington, Secretary of the Faculty. T. R. DEW, President.
