Print Warehouse,

IN NEW YORK,
To supply the City and Interior Trade, by the Piece or Package,
REMOVED
From 113 Pearl Street, to
44 CEDAR STREET,
NEAR WILLIAM STREET.

LEE & BREWSTER give notice to the Dealers in Dry Goods, that they have removed their Warehouse for Printed Calicoes exclusively, from Pearl to 44 Cedar street. By confining their attention to Prints only, L. & B. are enabled to exhibit an assortment far surpassing any ever before offered in America—and to sell at prices as low, and generally lower, than houses whose attention is divided among a large variety of articles.
The Stock consists of several thousands of Patterns and Colorings, embracing every variety of American and Foreign Prints in market—many styles of which are got up exclusively for their own sales, and cannot be had elsewhere, except in second hands.
Dealers in Prints will find it their interest to examine this Stock before making their purchases—they will have the advantage of learning the lowest market prices—and comparing all the desirable styles in market side by side.
Catalogues of Prices, corrected with every variation of the Market, are placed in the hands of buyers.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the Subscribers, in Wake County, North Carolina, near Fish Lam on Neuse River, a Negro man by the name of JIM, who formerly belonged to the Estate of Edmund Cooper, dec'd. Said Negro is about 30 years of age; rather a light complexion, but not a mulatto; about five feet, six inches high; stout built; incline'd to be full eyed; and when spoken to, speaks rather slowly. He had on, when he went away, thin Summ' clothing, with a fur hat, but this he may have changed, as he is a shrewd fellow. It is likely enough, he may have a free pass, and will attempt to get off as soon as he can. If any person (probably) of Wake County, has a free man, under the name (Nash County) in the neighborhood of Jones's Water-see. We will pay the above Reward to any person that will deliver him to us; or confine him in any Jail, so that we may get him again.
