NEW FIRM!

And New Goods still Coming!

THE Subscribers take occasion to announce to their friends and the Public generally, that having gone into into the Mercantile business in the House, formerly occupied by H. A. BADHAM & Co., one door below Williams, Haywood & Co., they have on hand and are constantly receiving large and excellent supplies of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with HATS, SHOES, and BOOTS, and SHOES for Ladies, which they offer at low rates for Cash, or on a short Credit to punctual dealers.—Their Stock is such, that they will be able to furnish to their Customers whatever may be desired in their line of business; and they can confidently assure the public that their prices will be as low and their terms as accommodating as those of any House this side of Petersburg. They would most respectfully ask their friends and the public to give them a call; and if cheap and good Goods, and fair bargains will entitle them to it, they hope to receive, as they will endeavor to merit, a liberal share of the public patronage.

NORTH CAROLINA
Mutual Insurance Company.

PURSUANT to an Act of Assembly, a Company has been formed in this State, under the name and style of the "North Carolina Mutual Insurance Company," and is now fully organized, by the appointment of the following Officers, viz:

JOSIAH O. WATSON, President,
ALBERT STITH, Vice-President,
RICHARD SMITH, Treasurer,
THEODORE PARTRIDGE, Secretary,
CHARLES MANLY, Attorney,
RICHARD SMITH,
ALBERT STITH,
WESTON R. GALES, } Executive Committee.

The Company is now prepared to receive applications for Insurance, and to issue Policies on the same. By the Act of Incorporation, the Company is authorized to take risks on Dwelling Houses, Stores, Shops and other buildings, Furniture, Merchandize, and other property, against loss or damage by Fire.

The Office of the Company is in the second story of the large Brick Building, recently occupied by Mr. B. B. SMITH, at the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets, where full information and explanations, touching the principle of Mutual Insurance, will be cheerfully furnished by the Secretary of the Company.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber, residing at Pittsylvania Court House, Virginia, on the night of the 31st day of December, 1845, a likely negro man, slave, by the name of WILEY.

The said negro slave was purchased by me, a short time since, from Atlas Rush, of Montgomery County, North Carolina, on his return with the said slave from Fincastle, Virginia, at which place he had been apprehended, on his way to Ohio with free papers.—The said WILEY is black, about five feet 11 inches high, between 24 and 25 years of age, and weighs about 200 pounds; is very likely and well formed. He made his elopement on a large bob tail bay Mare, saddle and bridle, which he also took from me, with a large green blanket under the saddle. Had on when he left, a checked roundabout, somewhat greyish pantaloons, yarn, and a cap, and carried with him also, a grey homespun coat; is supposed to have passed through Danville, Virginia, and is no doubt making his way through Greensborough, N. C. to the neighborhood of Mr. Rush, where he formerly lived, with the view of procuring another set of free papers, and for the purpose of having an interview with his wife, whom he expressed, a few days before his departure, a great wish to see.

For the apprehension of the said slave, and his securement in Jail, so that I get him again, I will pay the above reward of Twenty Dollars, and a reasonable compensation to any one who will secure, and take care of the mare, bridle and saddle, or either of them, until I can get them.

GREAT BARGAINS!!
LARGE STOCK OF DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES.
Selling off at Cost!!!

THE firm of Russell & Cooke having been dissolved, and their remaining stock of Goods having passed into the hands of Mr. Russell, one of the late firm, who is determined to close the business as speedily as practicable, the whole stock, comprising an extensive assortment of

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES

of excellent quality, is now offered for sale at cost.

Goods of almost every description suitable to this market may be had so cheap, that a better opportunity can never occur for all to supply themselves who will call soon.

The public are assured that this offer to sell at cost is made in good faith, and will be strictly adhered to.

They will also find the goods of the best quality, fashionable, sound, and substantial, of a kind made for use, not merely to sell.

All may be suited, as there are on hand many articles of the finest quality as well as a large assortment of the coarser and more substantial kinds.

All are invited to call and examine and judge for themselves; those who have the keenest taste for CHEAPNESS, will doubtless be satisfied.

Those who do not need at present, will

SAVE

by buying now and laying up for the future.

Let it be remembered that no one will sell Goods in a regular business without a profit, by which they can live; that no one will sacrifice goods at less than cost without compulsion; and that cost is as about as cheap as most merchants can afford to sell and most people would wish to buy.
