ANAWAY from the Subscriber, residing at Pittsylvania Court House, Virginia, on the night of the 31st day of December, 1845, a likely negro man, slave, by the name of WILEY.

The said negro slave was purchased by me, a short time since, from Atlas Rush, of Montgomery Coun-Office in Nashville, the second Monday of February, ty, North Carolina, on his return with the said slave from Fincastle, Virginia, at which place he had been apprehended, on his way to Ohio with free papers .-The said WILKY is black, about five feet 11 inches high, between 24 and 25 years of age, and weighs about 200 pounds; is very likely and well formed. He made his elopement on a large bob tail bay Mare, saddle and bridle, which he also took from me, with a large green blanket under the saddle. Had on when he left, a checked roundabout, somewhat greyish pantaloons, yarn, and a cap, and carried with him also, a grey homespun coat; is supposed to have pass-ed through Danville, Virginia, and is no doubt making his way through Greensborough, N. C. to the neigh-borhood of Mr. Rush, where he formerly lived, with the view of procuring another set of free papers, and for the purpose of having an interview with his wife, whom he expressed, a few days before his departure, a great wish to see.

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES of excellent quality, is now offered for sale at cost. Goods of almost every description suitable to this market may be had so cheap, that a better opportunity can never occur for all to supply themselves who will call soon.

The public are assured that this offer to sell at cost s made in good faith, and will be strictly adhered to. They will also find the goods of the best quality, ashionable, sound, and substantial, of a kind made for use, not merely to sell.

All may be suited, as there are on hand many articles of the finest quality as well as a large assortment of the coarser and more substantial kinds. All are invited to call and examine and judge for themselves; those who have the keenest taste for CHEAPNESS, will doubtless be satisfied. Those who do not need at present, will SAVE by buying how and laying up for the future. Let it be remembered that no one will sell Goods in a regular business without a profit, by which they can live; that no one will sacrifice goods at less than cost without compulsion; and that cost is as about as cheap as most merchants can afford to sell and most people would wish to buy.
