RALEIGH, N. C. Saturday, October 2, 1847.

ARRIVAL FROM VERA CRUZ. The Steamship Massachusetts, has arrived at

New York, from Vera Cruz. She brings four days later advices from that port.

The Steamer Ann McKim was at Vera Cruz on the 5th, with steam up, waiting for the despatches of Gen. Scott.

Upon receiving the above intelligence, some three days since, we confidently expected to be able to give in this paper, some interesting news from Gen. Scott-but we are again disappointed. It cannot, however, be the case many days longer. Oh! for a "Lightning Line" from Mexico!

MAJOR LALLY'S TRAIN.

We regret to learn, that our gallant young Townsman. Capt. WILLIAM J. CLARK, of the 12th Regiment U. S. Infantry, has been severely wounded in the leg, in one of the attacks made by the guerrilla parties upon the train under the command of Maj. LALLY, and to which Capt. CLARK'S Company belonged. The "Lynchburg Virginian" has a letter from an Officer of the U. S. Army, dated Jalapa, August 25, which gives more particulars of the adventures of the train, on its route up, than we have vet seen. The train was more harrassed than any other, in consequence of the belief that it had a large amount of specie. It met the enemy on the 10th, 12th, 15th, and 19th of August, and cut its way through in every instance, with a loss, in the aggregate, of more than eighty men. Twelve were killed and several of the wounded afterwards died. Majer Lally received a ball, on the 19th, when near Jalapa, through his neck. Capt. Calwell of the Voltiguers, and Capt. Cummings, of the 11th Infantry, both from Virginia, and Capt. Clark, of North Carolina, were severely wounded, the first in the head, and the second in the leg.

We sincerely hope that neither are mortally

CONTRADICTION.

The last Wilmington "Commercial" announces the arrival in that place, of Lieut. JOHN J. WHEE-DEN, of the 12th Regiment U. S. Infantry, and formerly of this City. His death has been generally published in the papers of this State, and he now appears, in propria persona, to contradict the same.

THE LITERARY MESSENGER.

This Periodical has passed into the hands of John R. THOMPSON, Esq. of Richmond, as the reader will see by reference to his address in another column. The Editor of the "Richmond Whig," who has known Mr. T. from his boyhood, says, " we feel authorised in saying that the Press has made an acquisition in obtaining his services. The readers of the "Messenger" may be assured that they will receive, on all occasions, the full worth of their subscription. Mr. Thompson has received a very highly finished education; exactly such an one, indeed, as would qualify him for the post he is to fill: his literary taste is fine and discriminating; his general talent undoubted."

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

We learn, says the New Orleans "Delta," that one of the Mexican prisoners now in our City, received, ria Tampico, by the last arrival, a letter from a friend in the City of Mexico, dated on the after- and found him a good Whig." noon of the 28th, in which it is stated, that General what it is worth, neither denying nor endorsing its |co Foco? truth. It is by no means improbable, as Paredes at the last accounts was at the town of Toluca, near the Capital, ready to take advantage of any mis-step of his old enemy, or any confusion in the Capital to regain his former position and influence in Mexico. The "Picayune" disbelieves the whole story.

The "Alexandria Gazette" says

"The tide of emigration from the North, is di-rected in some degree to Virginia. The advantages offered in this State, from its location, capacities, and climate, are superior to those offered by any other State of the Union."

Without wishing in the least to detract from the advantages which our sister State may possess, to induce emigration thither, we must be permitted to remark, that North Carolina stands not at all inferier to her, either in point of "location, capacities or climate;" and that she does possess all the materiel necessary to call the attention of the public to the rich yield which she promises to the introduction of Agricultural, Manufacturing, and Geological and Mineralogical enterprise. From an inherent modesty, possessed by her sons, they do not emblazon to the world the numerous pre-eminent advantages which would accrue to persons looking for locations to invest capital, and exert a spirit of enterprize among them -but it is nevertheless true, that many who are making long and expensive tours to the "far West," in search of eligible situations for these purposes, would find them to their taste and liking in North Carolins, and where they could realize all which they desire.

As it regards our "locality and climate," we take it for granted, that they are unexceptionable. With a territory extending from the Mountains to the sea-board, embracing every variety of temperature of atmosphere, almost, and leaving each, either to snuff the pure, cool breeze, as it comes dashing from | being held there. There is no additional news from the army yet. the summit of the Blue Ridge, the Pilot or the Sawratown Mountains, or enjoy the delightful saltwater baths of Beaufort, Ocracoke or Nag's Headsurely all can be pleased. And our "locality" being near enough central, to be relieved of the piercing. and consumption-producing cold of the North, and at the same time, not subject to that sultry, bilious provoking climate of the South, which engenders Yellow Fever, Vomito, &c .- surely our State is the very locality which those of the two extremes should seek to secure, as well as procure that greatest of all earthly blessings-HEALTH!

> The Swamp Lands, which have been and are being redeemed by the State, are acknowledged to be as good as the world can produce, in point of richness, and are perfectly inexhaustible; and the yield of such portions as have been in cultivation, is almost incredible. These Lands have been and will be in market, and can be purchased at low rates .-Nor do we mean by this to admit that our soil in the main is not fertile, but on the contrary, we believe it will favorably compare with any of the Middle States. As it regards our facilities for the introduction of Manufacturing enterprise, we cannot agree that Virginia is at all "superior" to her in this particular; and if those who are competent judges in such matters, would but make a trip from the Metropolis of the State to its Western and South-Western borders, we do not doubt that their wonder would be greatly excited, that so many superior situations, upon which Merchant Mills, Cotton and Wool Factories, and indeed every branch of Manufactories could be constructed at so trifling a cost, should still remain unimproved. The leaping Cataract, the full, strong force of the mountain stream, and the deep-rolling River, meet the observing traveller at every turn; and each County, as he passes on, give indubitable evidence of the profitable adaptation of this branch of industry in their respective regions. And the rich, inexhaustible Mines of Gold, Iron and Lead Ore, assures the examiner, that here is an unceasing field for the exercise of his energy, and the profitable employ of his capital. Provisions of all kinds are cheapprices of labor low, and every material for building, such as stone, timber, &c. are generally to be found on the spot. Besides, it is confidently said, that some of our Western Counties are unsurpassed in their advantages for the raising of Cattle, and that Sheep in the greatest abundance could be cheaply grazed and pastured there, sufficient to keep in employ many Wool Factories which might profitably be established in their midst.

With all these advantages, then, we ask-Does This Painting has been exhibited for some days | not North Carolina present strong and weighty inducements for emigration, as well as Virginia? We sincerely regret that the project before the last Le-Raleigh. In fact, nearly or quite every one has gislature for an "Agricultural, Geological and Mingazed upon the thrilling characters that make up eralogical Survey of the State," was defeated; but we indulge the sanguine hope, that at no very dis-Mr. Wilbun's descriptive Lectures upon the tant day, this essential requisite to our growth and progress, and consequent knowledge of our wealth and worth being made known, will be accomplished ; and then we may not expect longer to

Does the Raleigh Register still believe Gen Tayor to be a Whig !-Standard.

We don't believe "any thing else!" Read in our last paper, what the Correspondent of the New Orleans "Courier," (a Loco Foco paper,) says about the matter, and doubt no longer yourself. What does the Editor of the "Standard" think of the follow-

GEN. TAYLOR'S WHIGISM .- The Editor of the Columbia (Tenn.) Observer, who recently asserted that Gen Pillow, while in that place a few weeks ago, declared Gen. Taylor to be a Whiz, now reiterates the assertion more strongly. He says:

"We now again state that Gen. Pillow, while here, said (asserted, if that better suits the Beacon.) be so in the army. He said it to many; and we are authorised by some of Gen. Pillow's nearest relatives, to prove that he said it, by the use of their names. if it should become necessary.

Here is "more of the same sort," which we hope will be satisfactory to the "Standard." The "Lex- Carolinian" says : ington (Ky.) MR. DALLAS PS. MR. BUCHANAN.

The Washington Correspondent of the "Baltimore Sun" refers to a Speech delivered by Vice President Dallas during his electioneering tour in Western Pennsylvania, in which we are told this new "bidder at the auction of popularity" goes farther than any Northern man in favor of the South and the peculiar species of Southern property." There is a powerful rivalry between the houses of York and Lancaster in Pennsylvania, and the struggle will be severe for the next Presidential nomination Mr. Buchanan must take the stump, like his Vice Presidential competitor, or he will be distanced in the race. Then, too, there is Judge WOODBURY, the favorite of the Calhoun wing. The Richmond Whig" asks: "Can he not lay aside the ermine for a few months, to engage in this unseemly strife?" And then adds: The spectacle of a Vice President, Secretary of State, and a Judge of the Supreme Court, stumping it through the country, cannot but be eminently edifying. And why not? If a Vice President may so far forget the dignity of his position. why should a Secretary of State or a Judge feel under any restraint?

To help along his hobling pace to the Presidency, says the "Montgomery Journal," Mr. Buch-NAN is trying to establish a sort of natural heirship to the Missouri Compromise. In his letter of the 28th ult., the Washington correspondent of the "New York Herald" says, the KEARNY and FREMONT controversy threatens to terminate in a bitter personal feud between the friends of the parties-a result which he attributes in some degree to the injudicious interference of Col. BENTON. The entire misunderstanding is said to have originated in an unavoidable misconception of orders, which, in consequence of the distance of the scene of operations, it was impossible to correct .-This at first trival misunderstanding has been since magnified by the respective friends of the parties, until concession on either side became impossible, and a court-martial, with all its attendant evils, is HUZZA! FOR THE PRINTERS!

The last "Knoxville (Tenn.) Register," says-It has been with no little difficulty that we have been enabled to get out a paper at all to-day. Three individuals of our establishment volunteered the last week, and were engaged in the organization of Companies for the War. This broke into our arrangements materially, and for a while brought things almost to a dead stand still in our office."

HORRIBLE MURDER.

The "Montgomery (Ala.) Journal" gives an account of the wanton and inhuman murder of a youth. 12 years old, son of Maj. JAS. W. COOPER, by a runaway black man. The negro man came across him in a meadow, and cut his throat, in which condition he was found in a stream where he had been thrown. The discovery of the perpetrator was singular, he being found hid under a bed in the house by a slight movement he made during the inquest.

"THEY ARE PASSING AWAY."

The New York papers record the death of Major William Popham, whose services in the War of Independence are gratefully acknowledged by the whole nation. In addition to being the oldest commissioned officer of the United States, he held at the time of his death, an office which the immortal Washington filled, viz. the Presidency of the Society of the Cincinnati. He died at the advanced age of ninety-five years.

TALL OFFICERS.

No wonder our officers in Mexico, stand so high in public opinion. Gen. Scott is over six feet four. Gens. Worth and Twiggs, Cols. Harney and May. and Maj. Lally, are all six feet or upwards, and like Frank Granger, "well proportioned." Col. Doniphan stands six feet two, and so far as altitude is concerned, the poet, Capt. Pike, might pass for a twin brother. Pretty fair specimens of the "perfidious Yankees."

PENNSYLVANIA.

The present year will give a materially increased revenue to the State Treasury, from the public works. During nine months of the present fiscal year, the receipts from canal and railroad to Ms show an increase of $364,171, compared with the corresponding period of 1846. The increase of the year, which ends on the 1st December next, will be not less than half a million of dollars over the revenue of 1846.

MR. BUCHANAN IN THE SOUTH.

It will be seen by the following from the Columbia "South Carolinian," that the recent Letter of that General Toylor is a Whig, and is well known to Mr. Buchanan has not even answered the purpose of causing the Loco Focos of the South to fall in love with him, and rally upon him as their candidate for the Presidency. What says the "Standard" to these Southern sentiments? The "South

"We publish this accidental letter to-day, not havng had room for it previous to this time. We don't care what Mr. Buchanan was when he opposed Republicanism with the fierce onslaught of Federalism -we don't trouble ourselves with his anti-war, and hence, anti-country denunciations immediately after 1815. We will not even blame him for being on a had reached from Washington to Mexico, what a Committee which reported at a public meeting, in glorious spectacle would have been presented at November 1819, at Lancaster, Penn., Resolutions Churubusco! Col. Polk and his Aids, all the way of the picture, however, are quite as interesting: which were unanimously adopted, most earnestly at Washington, with chapeaux on, giving the word equesting the Pennsylvania Representatives to use their utmost endeavors as members of the National Legislature, to PREVENT THE EXISTENCE OF SLAVERY in the carcel Jan Jago. " No, we will not censure him for all these heretical and anti-Republican movements, but we can never forgive him for becoming false to all these evidences of his past political complexion, and for ecepting a position in the Cabinet, under a Free Trade Administration. How can we credit the assertion that he is in favor of the Missouri Compromise now, when he was a Missouri Restrictionist in 1818! All this is strange to us. The letter, it is said, was written, and is dated, only a few days before the death of Silas Wright, and it was read a few days after that event occurred, at Harvest Home in Pennsylvania. Those statements may be all fair. but the justice-loving and Constitution-abiding tone is assumed too suddenly to make us "almost a be-ambergris; "a little whiff, and by snatches, is it to your nose it knocks you down."

DEATH ON THE PALE HORSE.

FRIEND GALES: Dear Sir-Having had an opportunity, in common with every body else, to visit this remarkable Picture, I feel desirous of adding my humble meed of praise to the celebrity the subject hus already attained. I must confess that I have seldom been as highly gratified and instructed with any exhibition. And how striking the fact, that this master-piece of pictorial art is drawn from the sacred Scriptures, and from a portion of Divine History, too, unfathomable in its character. If I had any inclination to enter into a description of the said, that but one entire copy has been sold in this numerous figures that the subject embraces, I have not the talent to do justice to them, and consequenty need only say, that the sources of emotion are oncentrated with such extraordinary energy in a few silent figures, that a vivid and vehement imression was rapidly produced upon my mind, as approached the door of the exhibition. And I feel satisfied, that the imagination of every one constituting the large auditory, was affected with great power. This was sufficiently evidenced by the most silent and earnest attention of the entire assembly. The King of Terrors, advancing in ghastly state, mounted upon a horse, leaning slightly backward, with his strong bony arms uplifted, a visage terrible beyond expression, with his right hand grasping a writhing serpent, and deadly shafts radiating from both his clenched fists, while the fierce expression, furious attitude, and moral paleness of Hon. Thomas L. Clingman, Representative his unbridled horse, inspire the whole figure with a living energy, which at first sight startles the beholder as though it were indeed "a living death!"

> On hearing of the death of Capt. Martin Shive, a number of the citizens of Cabarrus met at the capital. Court House in Concord, on the 18th of September, 1847. When, on motion of Dr. K. P. Resolved. That we have heard with regret of the death of Capt. Resolved, That Capt. Shive as an officer, was the service in which he was so ardently engaged. Resolved. That as fellow citizens of his native County, and home of his active manhood, we lament his death as a loss to the community in which he was known and appreciated as an upright, publicspirited, and useful citizen.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with his distressed family and relatives in their affliction, they can, and wait patiently for an arrival. but with them have the consolation to know that although not killed in the field of battle, he died at his post in the service of his country, and that in his last breath he uttered words of devotion and encouragement to the gallant company he commanded. UNWHOLESOME PROVISIONS.—The New Orleans Picayune complains, with much indignation, that provisions supplied for the army, by contractors, but condemned as unfit for use, have been sold at auction in that city, and gone into general consumption among certain classes. It suggests that the extreme severity of the epidemic, this year, may perhaps be ascribed in part to this circumstance,

New Orleans, Sept. 22. News Expected from Mexico.—Our citizens tenerally, but more particularly the press of the city, are anxiously anticipating news from Mexico. New Supply of Plano Fortes. AINES, RICHES, & CO., Sycamore Street, Petershurg, Virginia, now have it in their power to furnish their friends and the public generally with any style and pattern of Piano Forte, with either rose wood or mahogany cases, that the most fastidious taste may require, and at such reduced prices as cannot reasonably be objected to. As they have an acquaintance with all the best manufacturers in the Northern cities, and have spared no pains in making their selections, they will in no case hesitate to warrant every instrument they sell, so that the purchaser will run no risk whatever. Their new styles of finish and tone cannot be surpassed either for beauty or excellence.

They have furnished several lately to orders received from North Carolina and elsewhere, and have received from the purchasers voluntary written evidence of the entire satisfaction which they gave. Their stock of Books, Stationary, &c., is also very large and complete. They have also established a Bindery and Blank-book Manufactory, at which Record Books, and other blank work is made in the very best manuer and at very low prices. They only need a trial to establish the truth of what is here set forth. All orders for blank work, binding of books, music, &c. will be promptly attended to, and warranted to please in both workmanship and price. September 1, 1847.
