A bounty of TWELVE DOLLARS will be paid to each recruit enlisted for the Artillery, Infantry or mounted regiments: Also, one number and sixty ACRES OF LAND, or $100, on being honorably discharged. Besides the monthly pay, above stated, one ration per day is allowed every soldier, which is amply sufficient for his subsistence-also, a large supply of comfortable and genteel clothing. Good quarters and fuel are at all times furnished; and every attent in will be pa d to making those men who may en- sell with a Gentleman of Capital wishing to engage list, and are determined to serve their country in in the Mercantile business, either in this place or good faith, comfortable and c ntented with their situ- elsewhere ; or being a competent Salesman and Book ation. The best medical attendance is always provided for the sick soldier; and no deduction of pay is made during the period he is unable to peform his duty. Should the soldier be disabled in the line of his duty, the laws provide a pension for him.

By the above it is seen that the pay and allowances are respectable. and that, with prudence and economy, the monthly pay of the soldier may be laid up-as everything requisite for his comfort and convenience is furnished by the Government, including his sugar and coffee. The prudent soldier, therefore, may readily save from $420 to $1020 during his enterm, he can, if he chooses, purchase a small farm in any of the Western States, and there settle himself comfortably on his own land, for the rest of his

The sum of TWO DOLLARS will be paid to any CITIZEN, non-commissioned officer or soldier, who shall bring to the rendezvous an able-bodied recruit, who shall be regularly enlisted. The citizen should present his recruit to the Lieutenant or Captain, and not to the Recruiting Sergeants.
