RALEIGH, N. C.

Saturday, October 30, 1847.

DEAF AND DUMB.

Mr. WILLIAM D. COOK, Principal of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, in this City, is about to visit the following places in North Carolina...

We can assure the public, that wherever Mr. Cook may give an Exhibition, that it will be found exceedingly interesting...

The Presbytery of Orange met in this City, on Wednesday last. The attendance of the Clergy is quite limited.

THE WILMOT PROVISIO. Two of the strongest Locofoco Counties in North Carolina (Herkimer and Delaware) have, in their late County Conventions, formally endorsed the Wilmot Provision.

R. H. HEATH, Esq. has been appointed by Judge Cox, Solicitor of the first Judicial Circuit, vice Col. OUTLAW, elected to Congress.

WHIG CONVENTION.

We invite the reader's attention to the Proceedings of the Whig meeting in Buncombe, contained in this paper. No where, could the ball have been put in motion with more propriety...

We hope our Whig friends throughout the State, will begin in earnest to buckle on their armor for the next campaign. Let them consult in the several Counties, and determine as to their choice of a nominee...

A HIGH COMPLIMENT.

To the credit of that useful and patriotic class, the Printers, be it said, that among all the men who have been published as deserters from the army, not one is a Printer—of all the soldiers published for disobedience of orders, not one is a Printer—and it is said that Printers in the army are very numerous.

The cornerstone of a Monument to the Memory of GEORGE WASHINGTON was laid, amidst imposing ceremonies, in the City of New York, on the 19th of October, the anniversary of the surrender of Yorktown.

ELECTIONS.

The New York Election takes place on Monday next. It is the first election for State Officers under the new Constitution, and possesses unusual interest.

The New Jersey Election takes place, under the new Constitution, on Tuesday next, and lasts, we believe, but one day.

Col. McINTOSH seems to have been peculiarly unfortunate. In the last war with Great Britain he was shot in the neck, and his life was despaired of. At Resaca and Palo Alto he received two severe bayonet wounds, one in the arm and the other in the mouth, the weapon passing entirely through his neck.

A GREAT SPEECH.

In the Episcopal General Convention, now sitting in New York, the Rev. Dr. Francis L. Hawks, of Louisiana, (a native of Newbern, N. C.) delivered a speech which retained the fixed attention of the House for four and a half hours.

A TALL WEDDING.

We find in a Western paper, the following tall marriage notice: In Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, on the morning of the 11th instant, by J. T. Morton, Esq. (height 6 feet 3 inches) Silas G. Weeks, Esq. of Warren county, Ill. (height 6 feet 4 inches), to Mrs. Mary Robb, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, (height 6 feet 1 inch) making a total in height of six yards, six feet and two inches.

A letter from Senator Dixon H. Lewis of Ala., is published, in which he backs out from any support of General Taylor for President, and holds himself "uncommitted" as to any candidate.

LOOKING AHEAD!

This is a sea-faring phrase, which, like many others from the same vocabulary, has been adopted by politicians as a figurative expression of frequent and easy application. The ambitious Office-seeker, for instance, during every squall that agitates the political sea, keeps a sharp lookout ahead, not to guard the vessel of State from the rocks and quicksands, but to secure a snug berth for himself in case a superior officer be swept from the deck.

MR. WEBSTER—THE WAR POWER.

Mr. Webster, in his late Speech, makes the following remarks upon the power of the President as Commander-in-Chief. He is clearly of opinion that the power of the President is subordinate to that of Congress, a point upon which we have been surprised to find doubts, even in the minds of some intelligent men.

THE WHIG VICTORY IN GEORGIA.

The "Savannah Republican" in announcing the gratifying intelligence, that the Whigs of Georgia have elected a majority of members in both branches of the Legislature, says: "This is a victory worth having. It gives us two United States Senators, a Judge of the Supreme Court of Errors, for six years, three or four Judges of Superior Courts, Solicitor Generals, State Officers, &c. &c. and, above all, it insures to the State of Georgia, a continuance of that Whig policy under which she has prospered so abundantly."

OUR INDEMNITY.

The last National Intelligencer contains a communication on the subject of our relations with Mexico which we have little doubt was written by Mr. Waddy Thompson. Speaking of our prospect of getting an indemnity for the expenses incurred in the prosecution of the Mexican war, the writer says: "All efforts to procure funds from Mexicans to pay the expenses of the war, to a considerable amount, will end in failure. Goods may be sent there and duties paid on them, but when the drawback is demanded, the goods will be sent to the United States, for twenty reasons, which we will not bring money—the first of which is that the money is not in the country—and the jewels and church ornaments will be secreted."

THE CORNERSTONE OF A MONUMENT.

The cornerstone of a Monument to the Memory of GEORGE WASHINGTON was laid, amidst imposing ceremonies, in the City of New York, on the 19th of October, the anniversary of the surrender of Yorktown. It is said that when the Monument is completed, it will be seen by Ships 50 miles at sea.

THE RESULT IN OHIO—THE EFFECT.

It is an indisputable fact that the late political battle in this State was fought on the War question. Every where, in every County, these questions were made the chief topics of discussion, and their origin and objects. And the specific issues made by the Locos against the Whigs were drawn from the expressed opinions and the official votes of Mr. Corwin in the Senate.

DEATH OF LIEUT. JOHN B. BEATTY.

We regret to learn, from a letter received in this place from Capt. Kirkpatrick of the Cumberland and Bladen Companies of N. C. Volunteers, dated at Ararat's Mills, near Saltillo, Sept. 19th, that Lieut. John B. Beatty, son of John D. Beatty, Esq. of Bladen county, died at that place on the 13th September. Capt. Kirkpatrick mentions that he had been sick ever since his arrival in Mexico, but no persuasion of his friends could induce him to quit the service and return home.

EDITOR'S CORRESPONDENCE.

New York, Oct. 26, 1847. The War—the Administration—Walker in Wall St.—More Money wanted—Scene in Tammany Hall, among the "Harmonians" (i) etc, etc. Within the last two or three days, the reception of farther intelligence from the Seat of War, has relieved the public mind of the anxiety that was beginning to be felt for the fate of the Army under Gen. Scott. At length our legions "revel in the Halls of the Montezumas" but at a terribly bloody price, and we know not, nevertheless, that at this moment, they are in the midst of their sanguinary victories, are not in the most imminent peril—a mere handful as they are, in a City, with two hundred thousand enemies within its walls.

REPORTS OF CASES AT LAW, argued and determined in the Supreme Court of N. C., at Morganton, August Term, 1847. Raleigh, October 29, 1847.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

ON Tuesday, the 14th day of December next, at the Court House in Louisa, I shall offer for sale, by virtue of a decree of the Court of Equity, entered in the Petition of Anella B. Weary, at Fall Term of said Court, the Tract of Land lying on the Road leading from Louisa to Warrenton, 20 1/2 miles from the former place, the late residence of Nathaniel Patterson, deceased, containing 495 acres. The property is too generally known to require particular description—very rarely is such a splendid Millstead House, and such substantial outbuildings, offered for sale. In the whole County of Franklin, there is not an establishment fitted up with such elegance and taste, and at the same time so permanent and durable. The dwelling House is new, and contains eight or ten spacious rooms, and all the out-houses and new framed buildings, with stone chimneys. The Yard and Garden are elegantly cultivated, and the entire premises. The yard and avenues are enclosed with solid stone walls, which will last for ages. The arable land is under good fence, some of which has been highly manured, and a considerable part is now very productive. I suppose there are 75 to 80 acres of forest land, conveniently situated to the farm, and there are also some 15 to 20 acres of splendid meadow. The whole Tract together, is certainly the most desirable residence of my acquaintance. To wealthy gentlemen in the Eastern part of the State, who would like to avail themselves of the advantages of our superior Male and Female Schools, drink pure water, and enjoy good health, I especially invite to attend this sale. There is a great deal of Land now offered for sale in the up country, but there is no such residence as this within my knowledge. A credit of one and two years will be given, the purchaser giving Bond and security for the faithful payment of the purchase money; bonds bearing interest from date. I will take pleasure in showing the land to any one who may wish to go over it. THOS. K. THOMAS, C. M. E. North State Whig insert 4 times, and forward account to T. K. T. Louisa, Oct. 28, 1847.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS.

The unparalleled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has effected a demand for it, which is increasing daily. This fact has caused several unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spurious mixtures, of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam. Some are called "Syrup of Wild Cherry," "Balsam of Spikenard," "Wild Cherry Confection," &c. Another, "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," misspelling the name, and forging certificates to resemble those of the true Balsam. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the only genuine. The rest merely imitate the name of the original, while they possess none of its virtues. LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE. The genuine Balsam is put in bottles, with the words "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, Philadelphia," blown in the glass, each bottle bearing a label on the front with the signature of H. WISTAR, M. D. This will be enveloped hereafter with a new wrapper; copyright secured, 1844. None genuine without the written signature of I. BUTTS. For sale in Raleigh, wholesale and retail by WILLIAMS, HAYWOOD & CO., and by Dealers in Medicines generally in North and South Carolina.

WARRANTED INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

WARRANTED INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are a safe, easy, and certain cure for Coughs and Colds; because they carry off, by the stomach and bowels, those morbid humors, which, if deposited upon the lungs, are the cause of the above dangerous complaints. A single 25c. box of said Indian Vegetable Pills is generally sufficient to make a perfect cure of the most obstinate Cold—at the same time the digestion is improved, and the blood so completely purified, that new life and vigor is given to the frame. Beware of Counterfeits of all kinds! Some are coated with sugar, others are made to resemble in outward appearance the original medicines. The safest course is, to purchase from the regular agents only, one or more of whom may be found in every village and town in the United States. The Subscriber is the sole Agent for the sale of the above Pills in Raleigh. H. D. TURNER.

NEW SUPPLY OF PIANO FORTES.

CAINES, RICHES, & CO., Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Virginia, now have in their power to furnish their friends and the public generally with any style and pattern of Piano Forte, with either rose wood or mahogany cases, that the most fastidious taste may require, and at such reduced prices as cannot reasonably be objected to. As they have an acquaintance with all the best manufacturers in the Northern cities, and have spared no pains in making their selection, they will in no case hesitate to warrant every instrument they sell, so that the purchaser will run no risk whatever. Their new styles of finish and tone cannot be surpassed either for beauty or excellence. They have furnished several lately to order received from North Carolina and elsewhere, and have received from the purchasers voluntary written testimonials of the entire satisfaction and public generally. Their stock of Books, Stationery,
