Their acquaintances, and the travelling community, generally, are requested to lend them their influence, as they are determined to spare neither pains or expense to give satisfaction. RALEIGH
Classical, Mathematical and MILITARY ACADEMY.

THE year is divided into two Sessions of five months each; the first Session, beginning on the first of January, and the second Session, on the first of July.

It is the design of the Preceptor, that this Institution shall not be surpassed, in the advantages afforded for acquiring a thorough English, Classical and Mathematical education.

A majority of the Students study the Classics, with the intention of entering some University;—but those, whose means are limited, can acquire a full Collegiate course, both in the Classics and Mathematics. With the design of making the course of Studies as extensive as possible, a scientific Book-keeper has been engaged. And although Classical Students may suppose, that they will never become Accountants, yet a knowledge of this Science is necessary to men in all kinds of business; but, more especially to those, who expect to engage in Mercantile pursuits, or to become practical business men.

J. M. LOVEJOY, Preceptor.
R. H. MASON, Assistant.

MATHEMATICAL AND MILITARY DEPARTMENT, CIVIL ENGINEERING & TOPOGRAPHICAL DRAWING:

Book-keeping, 8 00

Juvenile Studies, Spelling, Reading and Writing, 12 00

For any other study, an additional charge of $3.

For Military Tactics, no charge.

A wing is about to be attached to the Academy, for the Juvenile Department, which will be finished by the first of January. The Teacher of this department will devote his attention to the instruction of Boys, whom Parents or Guardians may consider so young, that they cannot, or will not, be well taught by men, who are giving instruction to older Students in the higher branches of learning.

And as Pupils beginning the rudiments of an English Education, require more time and care on the part of a Teacher, than they do in more advanced studies, this Teacher will only instruct in Reading, Writing and Spelling, and the elementary principles of those branches, preparatory for the other departments of the Academy. They will be superintended by the Principal, and will not be allowed to mingle with the others, unless it is desired, nor required to drill.

To prevent unnecessary expenses, Pocket-money should be deposited with the Principal.
