MR. McKAY AND WAR SUPPLIES.

A very interesting discussion took place in the United States' Senate on the 3d inst. on the new ten Regiment Bill. Senator JEFFERSON DAVIS, who was one of the gallant heroes of Buena Vista, made an impassioned appeal to the Senate to pass the bill without any delay; and in the course of his remarks his judicious and distinguished conduct on that memhe declared in substance, that but for the tardy action of Congress in voting men and supplies, the blood of our brave troops shed at Buena Vista, Cerro Gordo, Churubusco, Contreras, and Chapultepec, might have been saved ? Here is a heavy charge, made in a high Loco Foco quarter, against the Loco Foco majority in the last Congress! The Correspondent of the "Baltimore Patriot" asks-now, what are the facts in the matter? Senator DAVIS is in part right. But let the whole truth be told and then let the responsibility in the matter rest where it belongs. Senator CRITTENDEN promptly corrected the Mississippi Senator, so far as the action of the Senate was concerned. He showed that gun by the President of the United States." the Senate had unhesitatingly voted for every thing the Administration had asked for, to enable it to carry on the war, after its own fashion. Mr. Davis thought the other branch of Congress pursued a more dilatory and reluctant course.

And now let the true key to the matter be fur nished. Mr. McKay, the great radical Loco Foco Chairman of the House Committee of Ways and Means, throughout the last two Congresses, was furnished by the War Department with the necessary estimates for carrying on the War, in which estimates was a single item of ten millions of dollars, placed there upon the earnest recommendation of per source. Gen. JESSUP, for the expedition of Gen. Scorr's column of the Army to the City of Mexico. This important item, which, if voted by Congress, would have provided every thing that Gen. SCOTT needed, to perfect his plans, was struck out by the prudent Congress at all! It may be that he had the countesums which the war is costing them ! Let JEFFERSON DAVIS' remarks on this subject of that City. go to the country, and let the country see from this gallant accuser says caused American blood to dreuch the battle-fields of Buena Vista, Cerro Gordo, Churubusco, Contreras, and Chapultepec !

VOTE OF THANKS TO GEN. TAYLOR.

The following Resolutions were introduced in the list, a large, beautifully printed; and most spicy pa- House of Representatives by Hon. Joux W. Housron, per, just started at Wadesboro', Anson Connty, in expressive of thanks to Gen. TAYLOR and the Army under his command, for their glorious achievements at the battle of Buena Vista :

At their second reading, on a motion for commitment to the Committee on Military affairs, Mr HENLEY, a Loco Foco member from Indiana, moved to amend, by instructing the Committee to add the words " engaged as they were in delending the rights and honor of the nation." Mr. Polk has heretofore quoted the vote of Congress that "the war was brought on by the act of Mexico" and entrenched himself behind authority unfairly, and unjustly obtained. He may now with greater propriety and truth say, that the House of Representatives has reversed its decision, and referred the origin of the war to its legitimate and pro-

The second cause of complaint on the part of Gen. statement, who, and who alone, are to blame for the Worth against the General-in-Chief, was the disapinsufficient and tardy action of Congress, which the probation of the latter, at a circular addressed by the formet in his division alone, at a period when the entire force of the army, including the General-in-Chief, was garrisoned in the City of Puebla, with the exception of the small force left at Jalapa under

Col. Childs. That circular purported to convey the information to the first division, of which Gen. Worth was the commanding officer, that a design was contemplated by the eitizens of Puebla to polson the fountains from whence our army drew their by to receive the official daily report of proceedings daily supply of water, and in that way destroy us; and placing them on their guard against such inhuman and nefarious designs, if in reality there was any ground of apprehension whatever, that such threats had been made, or if made, whether there was the slightest possibility of their being put in

To the exceptions taken by the General-in-Chief at these two official acts of Gen. Worth, the latter became greatly incensed, and permitting his feelings to prevent his better judgment, became most vio-lently and bitter y inimical to the General-in-chief. The result was, what every reflecting officer in the army most deeply regretted, a rupture in those Committee on Foreign Relations, to report a Bill friendly relations which for upwards of thirty years had existed between these two gallant and distinguished military chieftains.

After an investigation of the above matters, the Court made the following decision in the case:

That the terms of stipulation granted by Brevet Major General Worth to the functionaries of the City of Puebla, upon his entrance with the advanced large majority of the House, it is said, are in favor corps of the army into that City, on the 15th of of this Bill, and also that it will certainly pass the May last, were unnecessarily yielded, improvident, and in effect, detrimental to the public service .-And that the grant of these privileges was in con-General Orders No. 20, published at Tampico on strengthen the opposition. 19th day of February last, and was not warranted

o Gen. Worth. The Court, as required, further declares its opinion that the "circulal" published by Brevet Major Gen. Worth to his Division, dated Puebla, June 16, 1847, was highly improper and extremely objectionably in many respects, especially as it might tend, by exasperating the whole Mexican nation, to thwart the well known pacific policy of the United States, and in view of the high source from which it emanated to disturb the friendly relations of our Government with Spain, or, at least, give occasion to try. that power to call for explanations or apologies .--The barbarous offence against which the circular warned the soldiers of the First Division, if it existed at all, equally affected the whole army. The information obtained by General Worth if worthy of notice, should therefore have been communicated to the General-in-Chief, that he might have exerercised his discretion on the means to be adopted for correcting the evil.

With these views of the Circular alluded to, the Court is of opinion that it called for the emphatic admonition and rebuke of the General-in-Chief.

In conclusion, this Court deems it material to the case to express the opinion that it is the right and

The States being called for Resolutions. Mr. Hudson, of Mass., submitted a Resolution directing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the expediency of requesting the President to withdraw our troops to this side of the Ric Grande, and to tender to Mexico offers of peace, making the desert between the Nucces and the Rio Grande the boundary, demanding no indemnity for the expense of the war, but requiring Mexico to pay in the ordinary way the just debts due by her to our citizens.

Mr. Hudson moved the previous question upon the resolution, which was seconded, when a motion was made to lay it upon the table, which was negatived. Yeas 54, Nays 125.

After some other motions, which were negatived, the Resolution was rejected. Yeas 41, Nays 109.

In the Senate, on Tuesday, Jan. 4, Mr. Calhoun's Resolutions being the order of the day, there was a great crowd to hear the speech expected from him in opposition to the war.

Mr. Calhoun said he had last session opposed the war, not only because he believed it was unnecessary and might have been easily avoided, but from high considerations of reason and policy -For he believed it would lead to the most ser rious evils. To avoid these evils as far as possible, he had proposed the policy of adopting a defensive line. He had the same object in view now, in his resolutions. No personal or party considerations influenced him. It was not his obtravention of the ninth and tenth paragraphs of ject either to sustain the administration or to

Mr. C. proceeded earnestly to defend the line by the letter of instructions of the General-in-Chief of policy. He believed that we were in a better position, when he suggested that policy, than we are now, or ever will be again. In regard to indemnity, we then held ample territory for indemity : and the lives and money since expended would have sufficed to maintain a defensive line. He next proceeded to argue that the policy recommended by the administration would end in the annihilation of Mexico as a nation, and lead to most disastrous consequences to our own coun-which every body predicted would eclipse the earlier battles, Gen. TAYLOR has lost none of his personal popularity. The enthusiasm which in the beginning of the war swept over the country, has settled down into a sincere respect and admiration for the old hero of Buena Vista.

The House of Representatives took up Mr. Goggin's resolution, calling for the instructions given by the President relative to Santa Anna's return to Mexico.

STATE CONVENTION. The Central Whig Committee have not yet,

We are of opinion that a day even later than that, say some time next spring, will be preferable. The particular time however is of secondary consideration. But that a Convention should be held, and one so constituted as to reflect the people's will fairly, for a candidate for this responsible station, is beyond all question. This is more and more apparent from the number of gentlemen who continue to be spoken of for the office. One fact however we notice, which is honorable to the party in the Old North State. and that is, that although the claims and qualifications of different gentlemen, are discussed through the press with earnestness, yet not a syllable that can be construed as an attempt at detraction from the claims or merits of others named, has fallen under our observation .-This is as it should be, and we trust the same spirit will continue to prevail.
