DISSOLUTION.

HE Firm, heretofore existing in this City under the name and style of HEARTT & JORDAN. is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons with either of the partners.

L. E. HEATT, J. F. JORDAN. Raleigh, Jan. 1, 1848.

THE undersigned hereby respectfully informs his friends, that having purchased Mr. HEARTT's interest, he will continue the business on his own account, at the stand recently occupied by the firm, and will be thankful for a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore received. He will keep on hand a regular assortment of FANCY DRY GOODS, and promises that no effort on his part, will be spared,

1848. The New Year. A FRIEND SAID TO US THE OTHER DAY,

"It seems to me that all the La-dies go to the Ladies' Saloon to buy Shoes for their Children ; and if they want Shoes for themselves they must be bought from the Ladies' Saloon or they are not satisfied.

If they want a pair of Gaiter Boots, and particularly if they want something new and handsome then as well as ever, it must come from the Ladies' Saloon."

"How is it Mr. Addington, that your establishment is so popular among the Ladies."

Why my friend, our Saloon is well situated on the fashionable side of the great "Broadway" of the City of Norfolk (apart from the Market Carts and noise and confusion amidst the stores on the Square, which is very disagreeable to Ladies.) The Ladies can be better suited and better accommodated here than elsewhere-they can get at once every desirable article for themselves and Children, which with the attention they receive, must and will command the favors of the Ladies.

"Well Mr. Addington, the neat appearance of your establishment, its location, and your large assortment of Fancy Boots and Shoes must contribute to the merits of your Saloon I have a large just selected by himself, with particular reference family to buy Shoes for, and I will hereafter give you to the wants and taste of this community, and to our patronage. I shall also take great pleasure in which he would most respectfully invite the public recommending the Ladies Saloon to others.'

The above instance is one of almost daily occurrence we now meet with in the transaction of our business-we are pleased with any manifestation which the public may choose to make of the satisfaction they derive in trading with us; and we add our indebted to the late firm either by note or otherwise, are earnestly requested to come forward and settle part to please every Lady and Gentleman who will call at the Ladies Saloon.

Our assortment this year shall be more varied, it possible, than it has been heretofore ; so that every Lady, Gentleman, Child and Servant, shall find the kind of Boots and Shoes at the Ladies Saloon which they may want. Now if there are any persons disposed to turn over a new leaf and try to do better this year than they did last in a pecuniary point of view THEY ARE ALL MOST RESPECTFULLY INVITED to deal with us this year at our popular and fashionable Lindies' Saloon.

Such persous as prefer it can have a Pass Book for their own use, in which can be entered all the purchases for the family, and thus save the trouble of writing
