" How is it Mr Addington, that your establishment is so popular among the Ladies." Why my friend, our Sulcon is well situated on the fashionable side of the great "Broadway" of the City of Norfolk (apart from the Market Carts and noise and confusion amidst the stores on the Square, which is very disagreeable to Ladies) The Ladies can be better suited and better accommodated here [TEAS] than elsewhere-they can get at once every desirable article for themselves and Children, which with the attention they receive, must and will command the favors of the Ladies.

"Well Mr. Addington, the neat appearance of your establishment, its location, and your large assortment of Fancy Boots and Shoes must contribute to the merits of your Saloon I have a large family to buy Shoes for, and I will hereafter give you our patronage. I shall also take great pleasure in recommending the Ladies Saloon to others.'

The above instance is one of almost daily occurrence we now meet with in the transaction of our business-we are pleased with any manifestation which the public may choose to make of the satisfaction they derive in trading with us; and we add our assurance that no effort shall be spared or our part to please every Lady and Gentleman who will call at the Ladies Saloon.

Our assortment this year shall be more varied, if possible, than it has been heretsfore; so that every Lady, Gentleman, Child and Servant, shall find the kind of Boots and Shoes at the Ladies Saloen which they may want.
