

THE ALBANY FLARE UP.

It turns out that the Albany indignation meeting is not to produce such "alarming results" after all.

We were sure that the Whigs who took part in the meeting had not looked calmly and dispassionately at the whole contents of Gen. Taylor's letter of acceptance.

The entire mighty affair, despite the representations of Loco Foco prints, has turned out to be nothing more than a mere storm in a tea-cup—a partial movement in a City numbering about forty thousand inhabitants.

All sorts of rumors will, of course, be in circulation from now until November. Let Whigs shut their ears once for all to them.

GEN. CASS, THE DOUBLE-FACED CANDIDATE.

The great feature in Gen. Cass' character is the happy faculty of presenting his regards in opposite directions at the same time. This duplicity has been most strikingly exhibited in that event, whereby the Northern portion of the Union has been presented with one, and the Southern portion with another view.

When his friend and patron, Gen. Hull, was on trial for his life for the surrender of Detroit, one face of the heroic Captain of the provision train and Knight of the Broken Sword, beamed with a smile of hope and pity upon the fallen warrior.

In his political career, he has had a face for a Protective Tariff, and a face against it. A face for Internal Improvements, and a face against them.

A face for the Wilmot Proviso, and a face against it. A face for Irish relief, and a face against it. A face for reducing the clothing allowances of the soldier, and a face against it.

And, we close this true biography of the double-faced hero of imaginary military exploits with this prediction, that although he has the face to ask the people of the United States to make him their President, the only reply he will get will be "to face to the right about," and exhibit his double face and figure in some quarter where duplicity finds a better market than with the American people.

The "Standard" says, it was "unanimously ordered by the (Cass and Butler) Club" that the Correspondence published in our last, "should be laid before the public."

Let us see what the result of this was. Were there no objections made? In order to secure this unanimity was it not necessary for me to assure that your opponents had said that they would not dare publish it? Come, out with the whole truth, for once, and no dodging.

The Communication in this paper, over the signature of "BUNCOMBE AND BURKE," is admitted without intending any intimation of our own views, in relation to the subjects treated of.

CIRCUIT AMUSEMENTS. Hundreds of our Citizens have been delighted for the last evening or two, with the performances of Messrs. Robinson & Eldred's, and Messrs. Stone & McCollum's splendid Companies of Equestrians.

CHEERING NEWS. We are gratified to learn that accounts received from different quarters of the Union, concur in representing that the feeling of the people in favor of General Taylor, is developing itself in such a manner as to give hope and confidence to every Whig.

In some States, heretofore set down as certain for Cass, the certainty is shaken; and, from Pennsylvania, especially, there are indications, not to be mistaken, of a gradual change of sentiment. We need not go through the list, however. It is sufficient to say, that information from the most reliable sources, encourage the friends of Gen. Taylor to put forth all their energies, in view of his triumphant election in November.

ELECTORS' DISCUSSIONS. We are requested to state that HENRY W. MILLER, Esq. and PERRIN BUSBY, Esq., the Whig and Democratic Candidates for Elector, in this, the 3d Electoral District, will address their Fellow Citizens at the following times and places, viz:

Table with 3 columns: Location, Date, and Time.

They will attend other meetings of the People, which may be held between this time and the Election, and which do not conflict with their engagements of business.

The other Newspapers of the District are requested to copy.

MORAL GRANDER.—The following stanza is from a short poem by Grace Greenwood, in the September number of Graham's Magazine:

There is a grandeur in the soul that dares To live out all the life God lit within:

GEN. CASS'S WILMOT PROVISIONISM.

Loco Foco Leaders in their affection to believe Gen. Taylor, by any possible means, pledged to a non-execution of the veto power on the Wilmot Proviso.

They are doubtless actuated solely by the desire to conceal the sins of Gen. Cass upon this matter. They know and fear the People will too generally learn, what are the views of their candidate, in relation to this mongrel offspring of Abolitionism.

He is at heart a Wilmot Provisitor, and should be elected President, we have not the shadow of a doubt, that he will go heart and hand for the exclusion of Slavery from newly acquired territory.

It will be remembered that Senator MILLER, in his place in the Senate, during the recent session of Congress, exposed the inconsistency and tergiversation of Gen. Cass, upon this subject.

He has never been denied by Gen. C's friends, although uttered several months ago. We have now other evidence to corroborate the assertions of Senator Miller, and which, to our mind, is most conclusive.

We ask leave to introduce the testimony of Hon. Mr. Brinkerhoff, of Ohio, one of the reputed fathers of the Proviso, taken from his late speech before the Buffalo Convention.

"If the Wilmot proviso is not Democracy, then Gen. Cass's democracy is entirely new. It is very green. (Laughter) For, no longer ago than one year, he was loud in his complaints against John Davis for talking against it, and thus preventing him from having an opportunity for voting in its favor.

"I heard Gen. Cass speak in the Senate of the United States. He then professed to be in favor of the principle, but said it was not the time to act upon it. But a short time before, he thought it was the best time for action and expedient to act. Now I cannot turn with him. (Laughter) Gen. Cass contradicts this statement. (Laughter) I can bring the testimony of nine men—every one of them as good as myself—substantiate what I have said.

"Mr. BRINKERHOFF, let it be remembered, is a member of Congress, and has had every opportunity of observing Gen. Cass's course upon this question. He defies Gen. Cass to contradict the above statement, and promises to produce the corroborating evidence of nine gentlemen, all as worthy of credence as himself. As a witness, he is entitled to full belief, inasmuch as his opposition to Gen. TAYLOR is as strong as that to Gen. CASS.

"What will our Loco Foco friends say now, of the equivocating betrayer of Southern rights? He is placed in a very awkward predicament—he has either acted in bad faith to his Wilmot Proviso allies, or he is hypocritical in his pretensions of friendship to the South and to Southern institutions—Which horn of the dilemma will they choose?

ARRIVAL OF THE NIAGARA. We subjoin an account of the news from Europe by the steamer Niagara, which arrived at New York at 6 o'clock on Thursday evening, after a passage of twelve days, having sailed from Liverpool on the 19th ult.

ENGLAND.—On the 13th, the Manchester magistrates struck a blow against club organizations, by arresting fourteen of the chief leaders of the various clubs in different parts of the town. All their papers were seized. The prisoners apprehended have been remanded for a week.

At Hyde, Dakenell and Oldham, the Chartists have appeared in considerable numbers parading through the districts, armed with spears and guns; but in all cases upon the appearance of the police or military they have taken to their heels and dispersed.

At Liverpool, on the 10th, strong volleys of police, well armed for an encounter, made a sudden attack upon the Chartists in Club in Walker street, Blackfriars, and captured fourteen men. Upon their being searched, they were found to be armed with pistols loaded to the muzzle, pikes, three-cornered daggers, spearheads and swords, with an ample supply of gun-powder, shot and two-balls. Upon one man seven rounds of ball cartridges were discovered.

At Antrim under Lym and other districts round Manchester, considerable excitement has existed for some time past, and the clubs have been more than usually active. Mobs have paraded the streets, armed with pikes and guns, and there can be no doubt that some scheme has been concerted with the disaffected in other parts of the kingdom, to get up some insurrectionary movement.

IRELAND.—The accounts of the potato crops are gloomy, almost without exception or mitigation. Numerous arrests have taken place throughout the country; as many as sixty have taken place in Tipperary.

WHO SLANDERS GEN. TAYLOR!—An Ohio volunteer charged Gen. Taylor with blasphemy. It subsequently turned out that Gen. T's accuser had been rebuked in Mexico by Old Zack for robbing a hen-roost, and indicted in Columbus for stealing a hog!

Another man makes charges against General Taylor in the Louisville Democrat. He boasts that he served at Buena Vista, was a Whig when he entered the service, but now goes for Cass.

FOR THE REGISTER.

Mr. Editor: It cannot be escaped your notice, that most of the Western papers (the Whigs and Democrats, are now in favor of Free Trade.)

Perhaps you may not know that most of our People also—Whigs as well as Democrats—are determined to commend to the lips of our Eastern friends, the chalice, poisoned though it be, to which, during the last election of the West, we have stood by the Whigs of the West, we have stood by the Whigs of the West, we have stood by the Whigs of the West, we have stood by the Whigs of the West.

From all we can learn, we do not believe that there is one out of five of the North Carolina Volunteers will vote for Taylor.—Standard.

GEN. TAYLOR'S FIRST PRESIDENTIAL LETTER.

The first Letter of Gen. Taylor, in relation to his becoming a Candidate for President, was written to the Editor of the New York (Ohio) Palladium, and is the one that seemed to commend him warmly to the Whigs of the Union.

Read this Letter attentively, Whigs of the Union! This Letter with a knowledge of Gen. Taylor's character, is all the voucher we want for Gen. Taylor's Whig Principles.

Dear Sir: By yesterday's mail I received your letter of the 18th June, and have given the subject to which it refers some serious reflection and consideration. I feel very grateful to you, sir, and to my fellow-citizens who with you have expressed very flattering desire to place my name in nomination for the Presidency, but it becomes me sincerely and frankly to acknowledge to you that for that office I have no aspiration whatever.

With my best wishes for your health and prosperity, I am sincerely yours, Z. TAYLOR. Major General U. S. A.
