

" Our's are the plans of fair delightful peace, " Unwarp'd by party rage to live like brothers.

The People's Ticket! FOR PRESIDENT. Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HON, MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK.

OF LOUISIANA.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

District No. 1. Hon. KENNETH RAYNER. 2 Hon. EDWARD STANLY. 3. HENRY W. MILLER, Esq. 4. Hon. W. H. WASHINGTON.

5. GEORGE DAVIS, Esq. 6. JOHN WINSLOW, Esq. 7. JOHN KERR, Esq. 8. RAWLEY GALLOWAY, Esq.

9. J. W. OSBORNE, Esq. 10. TODD R. CALDWELL, Esq. 11. JOHN BAXTER, Esq.

Election on Tuesday, 7th of Nov'r. RALEIGH, N.C.

Saturday, October 21, 1848.

Any quantity of Electoral Tickets can be procured GRATIS, upon application to this Office. Send in your orders.

Thus early in advance of the Election, we tions of the State, to transmit to us as speedily as possible, the respective votes in their Counties .-Let each Whig consider himself a special reporter for the Register.

OLD WAKE ALIVE! We are requested to state that there will be Whig

At Ridgeway-on Thursday, November 2nd. At Peleg Rogers' (5 miles South of Fishdam-on Saturday, November 4th. Ample preparations will be made for the accommodation of all who may attend. Distinguished Speakers will be present and address the People. Whigs of Raleigh-how many will you send?

REGIMENTAL REVIEW.

The two Regiments of this County-the 35th and 36th - were reviewed in this City, on Tuesday last, by Gen. LITTLEJOHN, assisted by his efficient Aids, Majors HINTON and YARBROUGH.

ANOTHER MEMBER RESIGNED.

We learn, that E. C. Molatosh, Esq., of Iredell, one of the Members elect for that county, has resigned his seat in the Legislature, in consequence of some objection with regard to his election; and that the Governor has ordered a new election to take place or he 7 h of November. He is again a candidate, and have no opposition.

believes it, that MILLARD FILLMORE is a rank abolifor the Pro-slavery plank in the Democratic Platocratic protection to the South, when that was all causes one such deep mortification even to hear. you could get!

A Warning Word. 🗸

a liberal share of your thoughts. Meetings, con- gaged in a mutiny. ventions, nominations, exertions of every kind, are per, and spoken in every speech, That every Whig ones it to his country and his party to be at the POLLS repeating what Gen'l Wool had written, and with the Aurenter. Have you a journey in contemplation of the qualifications, "as you very correctly say" and and nobody in particular. Your vote may determine the result—may rescore our land from the grasp of the spoilers—may restore our outraged Constitution to the garbling that appears evident on the face of the tructive influences of Executive patronage and corruption. And we want to know whether YOU are willing to shoulder the responsibility of RISKING these chances by your absence. Be at the POLLS, then as you value the prosperity of your country!

A word more. If you have a Whig friend away from home, write to him to return-sound the warning in his ears-that his duty demands his presence, where alone his vote can be available. You may thus save many votes

MEETING NEAR LEXINGTON.

E. BADGER will certainly be present at the Mass Meeting to be held at Eli Harriss' 8 miles North east of Lexington, on Friday and Saturday, the 3rd and 4th, of November. From all the accounts that we can receive it will be a very large gathering.

ble here on Wednesday evening last.

Slander against Gen. Taylor.

We have known some tolerably mean things perto their cause.

That infamous slander, which was so effectually served it richly. nailed to the counter as soon as it was uttered, that Gen'l. Taylor declared that "all the officers of the in disgrace, and all the men shot," is one of the num-lor of that robber of hen roosts and hog thief from Ohio-which was so easily transferred to the whole Ohio Regiment, is another.

Equally distinguished is the position lately taken in the Democratic Review, that the Battle of Buena Vista was achieved by the indomitable "courage of the men in spite of the blunders of the commanding

Of a peice, is that reracions history said to have been told to Maj. WILDER, while in Mexico, that the old Fellow, who by some credulous people, is thought entitled to a little credit for that same glo rious victory, was snugly ensconced in a ravine, where the balls could not reach him-while his men were bravely fighting the battle. Quere? (by the way.) When Gen'l. Taylor was down that ravine, where ball nor bomb could injure, was Capt. BRAGG down there too-firing away up at the sun, instead of the Mexicans? And was it there, that the old Hero called for a "little more grape?"

But yet more contemptible "than this-than these -than all"-is the attempt in the last "Standard" to produce from the following letter of Gen'l. Taylor at Monterey, in reply to one, received by him from Gen'l. Wool at Saltillo, an impression that Gen'l. TAYLOR has "uttered a slander against our brave Volunteers" that Gen'l Taylor "has declared in an official letter that the N. C. Regiment could not be relied on in the hour of battle, and that their conduct had been not only highly unsoldierlike and insubordinate, but disgraceful and cowardly." Here is the letter as published (whether correctly or not, we do not know) in the last "Standard."

> " CAMPNEAR MONTEREY, August 19, 1847.

My DEAR GENERAL: Your letter of vesterday as this moment reached me; and, although I regretnumber and description of troops ordered to join the column under the command of General Scott, yet I North Carolina regiments-which, I am deeply morrespectfully request our friends in the different sec- tified to hear is so highly unsoldierlike and insubordinsaid order as relates to Captain Deas's company: as you very correctly say, in this state of things, the only troops you could rely on, in the event of meeting the enemy, would be the Virginia reg ment, your artillery, &c., including your dragoons and mounted men. The unwarrantable attack made on Colonel Paine, was perfected by the Mechanics-the laboring men-for no other cause but that of doing his duty with the hard-fisted yeomunry-men who were deceived zeal, and in a soldierly manner, and compelling those under him to do so, is the most disgraceful and conardly occurrence which has taken place since the commencement of the present war. The prompt measures you have taken to put down the same, which are entirely approved, I hope will restore a proper state of discipline in that corps, (the North Carolina regiment,) and that it will, for the time to come, by just done, to the support of that party, that will corfallen into.

With respect and esteem, your friend and servant,

General J. E. Wool, United States Army, Commanding at Saltillo, Mexico. Official: IRVIN McDOWELL,

Assistant Adjutant General." Has Gen'l. Taylor in this letter, slandered our brave Volunteers? He was at Monterey. A letter from Gen'l. Wool gives the first information of the unhappy state of affairs then existing in our Regiment, in a letter which the "Standard" does not man breast, which can, instinctively, as it were, dispublish, and which we have no means of seeing .-Gen'l. Taylor replies that he is "deeply mortified to tion to be duly considered and impartially weighed hear" " on his representation" that a state of feeling will no doubt be elected. Indeed, we learn he will exists so "highly un-soldierlike and insubordinate." Is this the language of a slanderer? Are slanderers says that, in the event of his election, he will adminusually "deeply mortified," not only when they utter | ister affairs for the good of the whole Country-a The "Standard" has repeated until it almost slanderous charges, but even when they hear of man, who, through a long and useful life, has susthem? The Editor of the "Standard" is a Lawyer. tionist. Mr. FILLMORE, however rank, could vote He must, or ought to know that to constitute slander, there must be malice, even in the person who form. Mr. Giddings has done it. Talk about Dem- originates the charge. Strange slunder is that, which interests, thus inflicting serious injury upon a large

Gen'l Taylor but every body else, that "in this state safer to trust Gen. Cass-who is a Northern man, VOTERS STAND FAST !- You have many of things" it would be safer to rely on others "in with Northern ideas about the matter-who is produties to perform, religious, social, domestic, but the event of meeting the enemy," than on those who claimed by his neighbors the uncompromising advoyou have a political duty which should just now have were charged whether truly or not, with being en-

necessary-but all these might as well be omitted, from the scene, of knowing what was the state of IF THE VOTERS PERMIT ANYTHING TO things then existing at Saltillo, except from the on issues of vitality to the South, while it upholds make him appear ridiculous? IIINDER THEM FROM VOTING. Let it be representation of the Officer next in command? and applauds the course of a Northern citizen, avow- of Documents for distribution, when he went out painted upon every flag, printed in every newspa- Was it for him to distrust their statement? Was edly, in times when not feeling for Southern votes, West to pay off the Soldiers? and does Uncle Sam tion? Start without delay, that you may be here in "in this state of things," declare that our Regiment time to vote, or delay it until you have discharged | could not be relied on in action. All this would apthat important duty. Do not be a noisy talker a- pear clear as day-light, if the "Standard" had seen bout an election and the principles involved in it, fit to publish the letter of Gen'l Wool to which this and then be caught on election day at some place is a reply. Why was it not published? Did the where you have no right to vote. We write this for "Hon. J. D. Westcott of Florida" tell the "Standyou, sir-YOU, who are now reading this paragraph and" what part of the "Document" to publish-and -it is you we mean, and not somebody in general what to leave out? Did the Honorable gentleman public may secure us against the injurious and des- na! We would not marvel much if that multifariousman, Senator Foote, should next place his hand on | BADGER (the "Commercial" goes on to say) gave after Westcott. We are getting down fast. business is, that Gen. Taylor had declared that the made one of his best efforts, which gratified and deconduct of the North Carolina Regiment had been lighted the assembly. We learn that many Demoagain. The old Hero says that the attack on Col. ZACH!!" Paine was a " most disgraceful and cowardly occurrence." It could be disgraceful and cowardly only to those who made it. Who are they? We believe that there were only three of the North Carolina We are requested to state that the Hon. GEORGE Regiment in it. The rest of the actors were from the Virginia Regiment. We have no doubt that the act was disgraceful and cowardly in the highest degree. We never doubted but that those engaged in that assault on a meritorious officer, whose great A combination of these latter with Gen. Taylor's fault was "doing his duty with zeal and in a sol- friends, will give him the electoral vote of the State.

But we certainly do not dream of making it as a charge upon the whole Regiment. According to our Democracy, and sanctioned by many who scorned the Regiment. He did not mean the Regiment. He the brow of the old Soldier, is ineffably weak as well the number of about 100. After their arrival in the North Carolina Regiment deserved to be sent home as grossly wrong. The people, in whose hearts he Church and an impressive Prayer, by the Rev. L. is enshrined so surely, will never bear it. They feel K. WILEY, Chaplain, a fine Temperance Ode was That similar one, about the abuse by Gen'l. Tay- slandering any one on this broad earth. And our Young, and Evans; when Mr. ALEX. M. GORMAN. North Carolina Volunteers have heard his voice of of our City, was introduced to the audience; as one approval too often, to listen with patience to those of the Speakers of the evening. The address of Mr.

THE QUIBBLER CAUGHT!

py simile—and was alike a credit to the speaker and the last "Standard" in its vain endeavors texture or order which he represented. We understand tract a drop of consolation from the overwhelming it is to be published. result of the Pennsylvania Election, cries out that it is "a most alarming spectacle to see Southern Whigs throwing up their caps, and exulting over the Free Soil triumph in Pennsylvania." What consummate hypocrisy! If the Loco Focos had carried the State by a large majority, what a glorification and huzza this same Journal would have made. But without indulging in any such supposition, we need not go at all out of the way, to convict that sheet of an inconsistency, as gross as it is characteristic-we have the evidence in the very number of the "Standard" in which the foregoing remarks appear. In that number, the Editor congratulates himself upon the prospect of Cass and Butler's earrying this State, in November, as the late " Free Soil movement will | draw off several thousand votes from Taylor and Fillmore!" As there is no Van Buren Ticket out in this State--the Jamestown Convention idea having been abandoned-these votes must be cast (according to the "Standard's" hopes and calculations) for the Baltimore Nominees. The "Standard" howevat the "alarming" idea of carrying this Southern ed. State for its own party, through the agency of Free Soilism!! Or in other words, it is willing to wink purposes !!! Is it not so? The assumption, however, that the late Free Soil demonstration will subtract largely from our strength in the State, is as false, as it is preposterous. We shedding a lustre upon American valor, and Amerted to make any change to my order in relation to the do not mean to insinuate, that the Orange affair was ican arms, have been rendered by a son of our naconducted by, or composed entirely of Democrats; am induced, on your representation of the state of but we do assert, upon the authority of those who ifestation of our feelings of respect and attachment the feelings which exists among the Mississippi and should know, that members of that party had the to your person and reputation, and that you will deprincipal agency in the transaction. They may have ate—to contermand, for the present, so much of the labored behind the scenes; but, one thing is certain, dinner. they labored efficiently.

late glorious triumph in the "Keystone" State was effected through the assistance of Abolitionists. It and deluded on the Tariff question, in 1844, by Mr. Polk and his friends. They are determined to be made, no longer, the victims of a fraud, so gross within itself and so disastrons to their interestsand they will rally again in November, as they have its good conduct, made amends for the errors it has | rect and reform the abuses of the present Adminis-

PONDER THE QUESTION! ic friends who are disposed to be candid, will pause ditional mark of respect from the natives of my good and weigh well in their minds the charge of Wil- and brotherly hospitality, which has been extended mot Provisoism urged against Gen. TAYLOR, they to me on all occasions by her worthy sons. From will, at once, with that promptness and indignation | no class of our citizens could I receive such evidensuch conduct merits, renounce all allegiance to a Party, that is compelled to resort to such vile means | their interest and value. My limited time in your to prop up its sinking hopes. There is, if we mis- hospitable city, compels me to forego the pleasure l take not, a strong and ruling principle in the hucriminate between justice and injustice. The quesis this: Can Gen. TAYLOR, a Southern Slaveholder identified with your interests and institutions-who tained a character above suspicion or reproach-can such a one prove recreant to the institutions of those among whom he has lived, sacrifice his own and your section of the Country—while by pursuing an oppo- behind him, and that he would never pass them Whether Gen'l Wool's representations were cor- site course, he inflicts no injury upon the interests cate of free soil-who once expressed a desire to VOTE for the Wilmot Proviso? Is it right, to lend

Pause and ponder well these things. Give utterance to the language of your indignation-give substantial force Millard Fillmore is a rank Abolitionist and that to that utterance, by voting for the slandered old Hero Gen'l Taylor is pledged not to veto the Wilmot and Patriot-ZACHARY TAYLOR!

William O. Butler is an abolitionist or not, it is fair to infer that his Massachusetts friends were correct when they passed a resolution stating that he was no slaveholder, and was one of those Kentuckians who were in favor of the abolition of slavery in Kentucky

MEETING AT WARSAW.

We learn from the "Wilmington Commercial" its pristine purity - may settle the question whether letter as printed? We thought Sonator Douglass that the Whig gathering at Warsaw, in Duplin counthe President is the war-making power of our Re- and old Sam Houston had charge of North Caroli- ty, on Saturday last, was very well attended, despite the very inclement state of the weather. Mr. the head of good natured old Rip Van Winkle, speech on the occasion, which was in his usual style of excellence; and this is saying enough for But the most outrageous misrepresentation of this any speech. George Davis, Esq., was there, and disgraceful and cowardly. Why read the letter crats avowed their determination to vote for "Old ing effrontery it requires of any Southern man to say

SOUTH CAROLINA.

In the grand avalanche which is about to sweep over the land, we should not be at all surprised to hear that South Carolina had been carried away like the rest. From the Charleston Courier we learn that she has elected to her Legislature 76 Cass men, 62 Taylor men, and 28 men who are pledged not to vote for Cass, but are pledged to nobody else. dierly manner, and compelling those under him to If it sho'd not be thrown away on Mr. Calhoun, such we have no doubt, will be the result. At any rate, The "Aurora Borealis" was brilliantly visi- do so," deeply disgraced themselves. We think so it seems to be reduced to a certainty that Cass canstill-and we say it without exception or serve. not get it.

THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE

Made a most imposing display in this City on arithmetic, there is a wide difference between three Thursday night last, on the occasion of the delivery petrated, in these latter times, by fractions of the and eight hundred. Gen. Taylor did not speak of of some Public Addresses in the Methodist Episcopal Church. At an early hour the church was filled the acts, but for the temporary aid they might afford | meant those who were engaged in that disgraceful with Ladies and Gentlemen, and soon the members attack on Col. Paine, and nobody else. And they de- of the Urder made their appearance, clothed in their beautiful Regalia-the Grand Division in Scarlet, This attempt to pluck the well-earned laurels from and the Subordinates in pure, unsullied white, to that Zachary Taylor is a good old mon, incapable of most exquisitely sung by Messrs. Cooke, Cosey, pitiful attempts to alienate him from their affections. G. was a neat and beautiful peice of oratoryabounding in rich thought, chaste imagery, and hap-

After singing another Ode, the Rev. Mr. Wat-TERS, of Ohio, was introduced, who made one of the happiest Addresses we ever heard. It was replete with matters of fact which had come under his own observation and knowledge, showing the deleterious effects of the use of intoxicating drinks, and the happy results of a life of total abstinence-interspersed too with appropriate incidents and anecdote. We have not time for a more extended notice, but we must say in conclusion, that such a turn-out, with such speeches, cannot but result in great good to this prosperous and praise-worthy Institution, in this community.

COL. BRAGG.

It will be seen from the following Correspondence, that this gallant Officer was tendered the compliment of a Public Dinner, on his late passage through the Town of Macon, Ga., by the native North Carolinians resident in that place. His duties would not allow him to accept an invitation, at once so gratifyer, manifests no holy horror, no virtuous indignation ing to himself and honorable to both parties concern-

MACON, Oct. 9, 1848. LIEUT. Col. BRAGG. U. S. A .- The undersigned. a committee of your friends, native North Carolinand connive at Abolitionism, in order to effect party lians, welcome you to the hospitalities and affections of this, the home of their adoption.

It is with peculiar pleasure they recur to your distinguished services to our common country, and with a pride still more peculiar, that these services.

We beg, dear sir, that you allow us an open mansignate some time when it may suit your convenience

Be assured, that your presence will be hailed with Equally unfounded too is the assertion that our heart-felt pleasure, and your companionship encir- at the grave to find some bitter root with which cled by the warm sympathies of every heart, of ev-With respect and consideration, yours,

S. R. BLAKE. J. W. ARMSTRONG, E. ALEXANDER. ROB'T. COLLINS, H. G. ROSS, R. K. HINES, S. J. RAY, S. LANIER. J. L. OWENS.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 9, 1848. Gentlemen-It is with pleasure, that I acknowledge the receipt of your invitation of this morning. to attend a public Dinner, proffered by natives of We are convinced that if those of our Democrate North Carolina now citizens of Macon. In this adold State. I perceive a continuation of that good will ces of respect and esteem with greater pleasure; whilst the early associations revived, add much to should derive from an acceptance of your cordial and too flattering invitation. I am, Gentlemen, very respectfully, Your Obd't. Serv't. BRAXTON BARGG. Brevet Lt. Col. U. S. Army. To Messrs. Blake, Armstrong, Collins, Alexander, Ross, Ray, and others, Committee.

FOR THE REGISTER.

QUERIES-TO BE ANSWERED AT LEISURE. Was it down in that Ravine where Gen. Taylor was, (according to Major Wilder,) that Jefferson Davis was wounded? And was he lying there when old Zack told him that "the wounded were lying

Did the Engineer who pointed out that hiding rect or not, we shall not now discuss. They were of the North, but merely combats an opinion as to place to Major Gaston H. Wilder, ask the Major if evidently such, as if true, would satisfy not only the morality of the institution of Slavery? Or is it he was not hungry? and if it was not a long time to

Did the Major tell the Engineer that he volunteered once himself-but was like the Donkey "what wouldn't go," until Mr. Polk gave him a fat office? Was the Engineer who pointed out that place of concealment a Loco Foco, who really intended to rob the old Hero of his well-earned honors? or was it What means had Gen'l Taylor, at that distance support to the success of that Party, that de- merely a quiz by some good natured fellow, who saw nounces my own Southern neighbor as unsound up- that his disciple was verdant, and was willing to

Did the Major carry out any particular quantity pay him for that service?

Who keeps that pile of documents in Raleigh, that no Whig is allowed to see, which prove (!) that Proviso? And who sent them here for distribution? Is Gen'l Taylor a weaker man, a bigger liar, a As no democrat will tell us whether General worse swearer or a greater coward now, than he was when the Democracy were thinking so strongly of runing him themselves for President? Q IN A CORNER.

> "Strange such a difference should be. Twist Tweedle dum and Tweedle dee."

"Gen. Cass says: 'I am no slaveholder. I never have been. I never shall be. I deprecate its existence in principle, and pray for its abolition every where, where this can be done justly and peaceably and easily for all parties."

"Mr. Filimore says: "I regard slavery as an evil, but one with which the National Government have nothing to do. By the constitution, the whole power over that question is vested in the several States | jected. where the institution is tolerated."

We beg the reader to contrast the views of Gen. Cass and Mr. Fillmore, as expressed in the above paragraphs, and determine, what degree of unblush that Fillmore is unsound on the slavery question. while he vindicates and supports Cass.

HISTORY IS PHILOSOPHY TEACHING BY EXAMPLE." Dionysius of Halicarnassus.

The noise and tumult of the crowd, At Cleveland, was so very loud, That General Cass' nerves were weak, And quite inadequate to speak. If Cleveland silenced him that day, What had he done at Monterey ? I fear that history would record, Only another broken sword.

LOOK OUT FOR LOCO FOCO PRAUDS UPON THE EVE OF THE ELECTION.

WHIG MEETING.

At a meeting of the Whigs of St. Matthew's District, held on Saturday, the 14th instant, at the residence of J. Morbecat, Esq., R. M. Jones, on motion of R. Fleming, Esq., was appointed Chairman, and George C. Lewis requested to act as Secretary. The object of the meeting having been explainedon motion of Sion H. Rogers, Esq., it was Resolved. That the Whigs of St. Matthew's District give a Barbeeue on Thursday, Nov. 2d-that the members of both political parties from the adoining Districts, be invited to attend-and that a Committee of eleven be appointed to make all necessary preparations for the occasion.

In pursuance of the above, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen to constitute said Committee, viz: Ed. Chapel, Jacob Mordecai, Noel Knight; Sion Rogers, Sen., Nathan Ivey, R. Fleming, Robt. Traywick, Richard Seawell, Charles Horton, Henderson Hodge, and Owen Mullen, Esqs.

Messrs. S. H. Rogers, Nathan Ivey, and Jacob

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to Jacob Mordecai for the handsome and hospitable manner in which he entertained them-and ikewise to the President and Secretary, for the manner in which they discharged their duties.

The meeting adjourned, after having given three as hearty cheers for Old Zach, as ever, made the welkin ring. R. M. JONES, Pres't.

G. C. LEWIS, Sec. Whig Papers of the City will please cony.

OLD PASQUOTANK AT HER POST. At a meeting, over which Dr. R. H. Ramsay presided, and George D. Pool, Esq. officiated as Secretary, a series of spirited resolutions were adopted, a Rough and Ready Club for the County was organized, District Committees of Vigilance appointed, and all necessary measures adopted for vigorous, constant and successful action. The following are the officers of the Club: Dr. R H. Ramsay, President, Job Carver and J. B. Skinner, Esqs., Vice Presidents, Jos. H. Pool, Preasurer, and S. D. Pool, Secretary. The Committee of invitation and Correspondence consists of Gilbert Elliott, J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Thomas R. Cobb, and Geo. W. Brooks, Esqs., with the officers of the Club .- Star.

The beauties of Locofocoism perhaps were never more fully set forth than in an abusive attack of the "Chivalry of South Carolina," upon the Hon. Mr. Holmes, because he delivered an Eulogy over the remains of the late John Quincy Adams. To this Mr. H. responds as follows, which, we should think, would put his calumniators to shame. He says:

Another attack is made upon me, and I am charged with the atrocity of delivering an Eulogy to unite with us, and our fellow-citizens, in a public over the remains of the late John Quincy Adams. Sir, I am one of those who would rather strew flowers over the bier, even of an enemy, than dig to quicken my malignity.

> Two evenings previous to the death of Mr Adams, and when it was known that he must die, a committee, called at my house, where my friend Judge Butler was spending the evening, and in the presence of the Judge, requested me, in the name of the Delegation of Massachusetts, to deliver some remarks over the body of Mr. Adams. It was intended as a compliment from Massachusetts to South Carolina. If there be a gentleman in South Carolina who condemns me for complying with a request of the venerable Commonwealth of Massachusetts, that State which first shook hands with South Carolina in the peris of the Revolution, I envy him not his sentiments. During this canvass I have said not one word of services to the State or the city. I have asked no one to mention them. I have only replied to those who seem to enjoy the luxury of blasting the good name of a fellow citizen. I. E. HOLMES.

The New York Express very justly says:-This complaint speaks for itself, and comment can add nothing to it. We could hope, for the sake of our common humanity, that there are but few men living who would thus make a word fitly spoken over the honored dead, an occasion for offence. He must be a bigot in politics who would seek out such an offence as a ground of objection. Mr. Adams had his faults, and confessed them often before Heaven and before men; but his sterling houesty, his love of liberty, his 4-6 and 10-4 unbleached Sheetings. lifelong service, his vast knowledge, his high patriotism, all commanded and received the acknowledgments the great and good every where.

Mr. Holmes, it is gratifying to know, has been re-elected to Congress by a triumphant vote. Baltimore American.

MAIL ARRANGEMENTS. NORTHERN MAIL-Rail Road. Due daily at 1 p. m Cluses Southern-Two-horse Stage. Due daily, at 11 a. m. GREENSBORO'-Four-horse Stage. Due Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday, at 6 a. m

Closes Sund. Wed. and Friday, at 12 m. NEWBERN-Four-horse Stage. Due Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 11 p. m. Closes Sun. Tues. and Thurs. at 9 p. m. TARBORO'-Two-horse Stage. Due Monday, Wednesday and Friday. at 10 p. m.

Closes Mond. Wed. and Sat, at 9 p. m. PITISBORO'-Two-horse Stage. Due Mouday and Thursday, Closes Saturday and Tuesday, at 9 p. m. Roxboro'-One-horse Mail. Due Friday, at 9 a.m. Closes " HOLLY SPRINGS-Horse Mail. Due Mond. at 4 p. m.

Closes Thurs. at 9 p. m. Letters should by all means be in the Office fifteen minutes before the time of closing.

WM. WHITE, P. M. Raleigh, Oct. 17, 1848.

To the Members of the North Carolina Legislature.

HE Subscriber takes this method of informing the Members of the House of Commons, of the uext session of the N. C. Legislature, that he will be a Candidate for one of the Clerkships in that J. L. BADGER. Charlotte, N. C. Oct. 1848.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE Mouse of Commous. er of the last House of Commons, is again a Cangranted, as may be deemed most practicable. didate for re-election. Having heretofore served faith fully in that capacity, he trusts he will not now be re-

September 2, 1848. John H. White, of Stokes county, respectfully announces to the mem-bers of the House of Commons that he

s a Candidate for Door Keeper. We are requested to announce James W. Walton, of Wake County, as a Candidate for assistant Door Keeper to the House of Commons.

October 12, 1848. We are requested to announce Mr. N. M. Peoples, of Warren County, a Candidate for Assistant Doorkeep-er of the House of Commons, at the approaching Session of the Legislature of North Carolina. October 5, 1848. 80 3t We are requested to aunounce Pat-rick McGowan a Candidate for re-election as Assistant Door Keeper to the Senate, at the next session of the Legislature of vings. Just published and for sale, at the North Carolina. Sept. 12, 1948.

Bank of Cape Fear, Остовек 16, 1848. INTEND: The President and Directors have this day declared a Semi-annual Dividend of Three per cent. on the Capital Stock, payable to the Stockholders on the 1st of November next.

H. R. SAVAGE, Cashier.

FOR SALE. At the Fairview Nursery. Burlington Co., II. J. VERY superior lot of Fruit Trees, now fit for

A transplanting, of the following varieties: Apple, Peach, Pear, Plum, Cherry, Apricot, Nectatine-besides ornamental Trees, Shrabbery, &c., of the usual varieties. Persons wishing to purchase Trees or Plants, for Fall or Spring planting, can be accommodated by sending their order, accompanied with the cash or satisfactory reference. Trees will be carefully packed, so as to ensure their safety, for which 50 cents per bundle will be charged: Trees Mordecai, were appointed a Committee to invite will be delivered in Philadelphia without extra charge; Speakers for the occasion. On motion, the Presi-dent was added to this Committee. orders sent by mail of otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Descriptive catalogues with prices attached, will be furnished gratis, to post-paid appli-JOHN PERKINS, Proprietor cants, by Moorestown, N. J., Oct. 18.

More New and Splendid elegandounes. DRY GOODS, For the Fall and Winter Trade of 1848, JUST AT HAND, FROM

MEN TORK. Many from 25 to 50 per cent, under former prices: THE attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen of Raleigh, as well as those of the surrounding country, and strangers generally, is respectfully invited to an examination of the

Rich and Brilliant Assortment of FASHIONABLE DRY GODS: contained in the following List, at the Store of the undersigned, just selected by Mr. B. B. SMITH, from late arrivals from Patis and Liverpool, and which for variety, richness and beauty cannot be surpassed in this market, to wit: For the Ladies. Beantiful Cameleon Poi de Soi Silks, Black diagonal Satin, striped do.

Best black Gro de Rhine and col'd plaid do. Superior black, blue and mole-colored Alpaccas, Black, brown, and fancy colored Cameleon Lustres, Parisian Etotli a la Cavagnac, (a new and Splendid Lamartine plaids, and Satin striped Alpaceas. Plain and striped Mohair and Jenny Lind Lustres, Plaid and striped silk Brilliantines, Gala, Cashmere, and Alpacca plaids, for Misses and Children, Super 6-4 Queens Cloth and Merinos, for Ladies' Riding Dresses.

Changeable Arago plaids, Cashmeres and Delaines. 200 PEICES ELEGANT NEW STYLE WIN-TER CALICOES AND GINGHAMS. Wooten Shawls, Cashmere and splendid Turkeria

Large and fine black Cashmere, Delaine, and Cass

Fine Leghorn straw and Tuscan Bonners, for Ladies and Misses. Beautiful Winter Bonnet and Cap Ribands; Laces and Edgings Thread and Lisle, Mull, Swiss, Book, checked and jaconet Muslins. Long, Lawn, and thread Cambric Handkerchiefs,

Grass and Marseilles Skirts, Hose and Gloves, Worked Collars and figured Laces. Gimps, Fringes and Buttons. For the Gentlement. Fine blue, black and Invisible Green CLOTHS. Ditto black, fancy, Tweed and Erminet Cashmeres. Super Beaver and Pilot cloths, for overcoats, from 1

Lamartine Fancies, Satinet and Kentucky Jeans. Black Silk Velvet and Merino Vestings, Merino, and Lambswool Shirts and Drawers, Black and Fancy Silk Neck Handkerchiefs, Silk Pocket Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Gentlemen's Black and colored Hoskin Gloves, Irish Linen, and Cotton Shirtings. Large Sifk and Gingham Umbrellas, Kerseys, Linseys and Tickings, White, red and Canton Flannels. Superior Whitney and Twilled BED BLANKETS. Red, Green and White Mackinac do.

Fine bleached and unbleached Shirtings, from 5 to 10 cents. Diaper and Disper Table Cloths, FASHIONABLE HATS, MCLESEIN, BEAVER &

SUPERIOR FUR, CLOTH AND SILE PLUSE CAPS. BOTS FANCY CLOTH AND VELVET l'ogether with many other desirable articles, all of which will be disposed of for CASH, at a small advance, as he desires not to do business on the credit THOMAS A. MITCHELL. Raleigh, Oct. 20, 1848.

New Novels.

IIE Hen-pecked Husband. Antonita, the Female Contrabandista. Grace Weldon, or the Bounet Girl. Charms and Counter-charms The Maid of Saranac. Joseph Rushbrook, or the Poacher The Vidette, a Tale of the Mexican War. Lovers of Paris. Old St. Paul's, a Tale of the plague and the Fire. The Castle Fiend, or the Fate of the Loved and Lost. Paul Peril, the Merchant's Son .-Rattlin the Reefer, by E. Howard. Fortestall, or the Light of the Reef. The Devil's Wedding Ring, or the Adventures of a Watch-maker. Paul Deverill. Edward Manning. The Black Mendicant .--The Silver Ship of Mexico. The old Commodere. Blanch Talbot. The Matricide's Daughter. Elexnor Sherwood. The Dancing Feather. Life in London. Ellen Munroe, A sequel to Life in London. Esther De Medina, or the Crimes of London.
For sale at the N. C. BOOKSTORE. Oct. 20, 1849.

Theap Sugar on Commission. We Joffer 9 barrels of two qualities, very low for cash. WILL: PECK & SON. Raleigh, Sept. 22, 1848. ETOTPU ET

S hereby given, that application will be made to the next General Assembly of North Carolina, for a Charter to open and navigate Cape Fear and Deep Rivers, above Fayetteville, or for the amendment of any Charter, that may have been heretofore

WILLIAMS, HAYWOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Druggists &c. KEEP constantly on hand, a large and well selected stock of Oils, Dye Stuffs, Perfumery, Window and Picture Glass, and Druggists' Glassware. Also, Wines and Brandy, of the best quality, for Medical purposes, and superior Segars, Tobacco, 4c. &c , which they offer for sale, on the most accommodatir g terms Raleigh, Oct. 16

84 6mis THE CHURCAMAN'S ALMANAC, FOR 1848. Just received at

TURNER'S BOOKSTORE.

BBOTT'S NEW WORK .- History of Mary, A Queen of Scots, by Jacob Abbott, with engra-N. C. BOOK STORE.