

The Friend of Temperance.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 6, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—In our columns will be found the advertisement of Alex. Creech, Esq., who has a "house chock full of New Goods," which he will sell on the most reasonable terms.

The advertisement of Wm. B. Hutchings & Co., who have opened with a splendid assortment of Harness, Saddles, Bridles, &c., (opposite Tucker Hall.)

The advertisement of J. J. Biggs, Esq., formerly of this city, but recently a member of the firm of Kader Biggs, & Co., Norfolk, Va., but now Cotton Factor and General Commission Merchant, Baltimore.

The advertisement of Gulley, Bynum, & Co., young gentlemen of fine business habits and well worthy the patronage of any community, who have opened in the new Holleman building, with a well selected stock of Dry Goods and Family Groceries, which they will sell cheap.

The advertisement of L. D. Womble, Esq., (opposite the Market,) who keeps a first class Family Grocery Store and sells on the most reasonable terms.

Also, the advertisement of Sloat & Addington, Richmond, Virginia.

We trust that our readers will patronize all these houses.

Disgraceful.

We are informed that one of the saloons on Fayetteville street has, attached to it, a new feature for this latitude—rooms fitted up for the use of the lewd women of the streets, wherein they may entertain besotted young men and fleece them of what little money the tender mercies of the bar-keeper leave them.

And this is going on in the most respectable portion of the city; and near where a respectable family is living.

It is bad enough to have groceries; but to have groceries with lewd houses attached, right in the centre of the city, is going it rather too strong for Raleigh. We hope our city authorities will enquire into the matter.

Oak City Council had an accession of six members at the last meeting. The Council room was well high filled with gentlemen and ladies and a really pleasant time was enjoyed. Brother F. A. Hatch having resigned, brother V. Ballard was unanimously chosen Financial Secretary. First rate appointment.

NIGHT SCENES IN THE BIBLE.—BY REV. DANIEL MARCH, D. D.—This is one of the most interesting and superb contributions to sacred literature, that we have seen for many a day. It is devoted exclusively to the events of Scripture that occurred at night, which are presented with great force of language and beauty of imagery. The work is elegantly illustrated with steel plates, by the best American artists, which give to it additional value, while the remainder of the mechanical work and material is of the most elegant description. It is a charming book to read, and no more elegant ornament for the parlor table or library has gone from the American press.—Savannah Republican.

The Publishers, Messrs. Zeigler, McCurdy & Co., have sent us a copy of the above work, and we fully endorse the Republican in saying that it is a most valuable work. The illustrations are splendid. This book will be sold by agents only. Address "People's Publishing House," Philadelphia.

A. CREECH, Esq., corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets, is one of the few successful merchants of our city.—For many years he has been engaged in the mercantile business in our midst, and all the time growing in the esteem of the public. He devotes himself wholly to his business and his business pays him. He is agreeable and polite to his customers and his customers like him. He deals fairly with all and all are his friends. He advertises liberally and the editors all admire him. He sometimes gives them a new hat or a pair of boots, and they will puff him; and who blames them?

The N. C. STATE FAIR will be held in Raleigh, commencing on Tuesday, October 19th, and continue Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 20th, 21st and 22nd.

The Fair of the Central Agricultural Society will be held at Henderson, on the R. & G. Railroad, on the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th of October.

The Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association will be held at Wilmington, on the 16th, 17th, 18th and 19 of November,

LITTLE WANDERERS.—The New Bern Journal of Commerce tells of two little boys, one eleven the other thirteen years of age, who are in that city, without a protector, and who state that they walked the whole way from Granville county, their home, occupying fourteen days in making the journey. They give their names as Doc and John Fowler, and that they left Granville because they could get nothing to eat.

Doty's Washing-Machine.

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED—AND THE NEW UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COU-WHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows: "We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune. "In the privacy of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler. "Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows. "Friend Doty's—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our Machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Washburn.

"Our Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Bond, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catharine's Nursery, N. Y. City."

PRICES.—A FAIR OFFER.

Send the retail price, Washer $14, Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, and free of freight, to places where no one is selling, and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive rights of sale make money fast selling them. Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.
