

do. n. U. do.	the second s	10	1.1.1	A	1.1
do W. O. bbl.	单 十	10			Ť
Heading, W. O. hhd.	See. 18	25	1:52	34	3
Lard,	16.		17	1.	۰.
Molasses,	gal	1	50	6.7	6
Tar,	bbl.	1	26		38
Pitch,	1000	2	5	1	2
Rosin,		2	25	12	1
Turpentine;	1 I	1	75	D.
do. Spirits,	gal.		30
Pork,	bbl,	1. The second	35	18
Rice,	bash.	2	1.1	2	9
Rum, Jamaica	gal.	1	25		6
do. W. I.	1. 1	11	10
do. American,	11.78	1.1	75	12	i la
Sair Allum	bush.	- 90	80	0.7	17
do, Fine	1213	1.11	60	날 :
Sugar,	cwt.	13	. 1	R	*
Tbacco		5	1.1	14
all a second sec	1 1	1.1	1.1.1.1.4	11.0	- 12

Greensville Academy.

- CONNANNO COOC

THE exercises of this Acade my will recommence, on the first of January next, under the su perintendance of Mr. John H Read, who will be assisted by Mr. John H. Cooley, a young Gentleman from the Northward who graduated at Yale College, & comes well recommended. The Trustees have taken measures to procure Globes, Maps, &c. for the use of the students which are expected to arrive in the course of a few weeks. These acquisi tions it is believed, will place this Academy on as respectable footing as any in the State. The pri ces of tuition will be the same as Geography with the use of the maps they were last year, viz :-- Read. ing, Writing, Arithmetic and English Grammar, at $4, all high er branches, at $5 per quarter, at 6 o'clock, will be opened, and paid in advance. Board for females exclusively, may be had at a respectable house in Greensville.

Rich'd. Evans, Sec'ry. Dec. 11, 1816.

The standing number of Students in this Academy, has been from seventy to ninety. R. 1

State of North-Carolina. CRAVEN COUNTY. Court of Pleas and Quarter-Sessions.

OP Terms of Tuition Ter Dollars per Quarter .-- Twent four days Tuition, exclusive of Saturdays, to constitute the terms -Hours of attendance for Ladie. and Children, from 9 to 12 o' clock A. M. and from 3 to hall past 5 P. M .- and for Gentlemen, from candle lighting till 9 in the Evening.

 Persons wishing to sub scribe, will find him on either of the above days at his School Room, in Mr. Fisher's Hall. Newbern, Jan. 4, 1817.

SCHOOL.

THE Subscriber returns his most sincere thanks to the in habitants of the town of Newbern and its vicinity, for the encourage ment he has met with as a Teach er for the last year. Begs leave to inform them that the exercises of his School will again commence on Monday the sixth of January at the room lately occupied by Co lonel Tisdale, (Pollock Street,) for School, on the following terms. Viz.

Spelling, Reading & Writing $3 per qr.

Arithmetic, & English Grammar.

$ 6

Surveying, $ 15

continued till 10 six evenings in the week, a School for the instruc tion of those who are not at lib erty to attend in the day, on the a bove mentioned terms, except each Student to find his own candles during the quarter. In every case, one half of the tuition will be required in advance.

COMMERCE; 95 tons, newly sheathed and in mplete order for a voyage-lyng at Harvey's Wharf. Apply to Capt. Noues on board. EW'D. C. KING. or to Tan. 4, 1817. St.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the Newbern Post-Office. DECEMBER, 31, 1816.

Abraham Allen, Agricultural Society John Allen, Capt. G. Baldwin, Nathan B Bush, Mrs. Mary O'Bryan, Hannah Bennett, John Bishop, Matthew Brinson, N & J H Byrd, Capt. James Bradford, Lew is Bush, James Bennet, Jass. Brown, Thos mas O'Bryan, Henry Black, Tho's. Bragg, Wm. Brown, John Brown, Adam Brewer, Isaac Brown, Miss Alice Bryan, Samuel Bailey, John H. Coward, Clayton Car, ruthers, Wm Cornelly. T. & A. Cabarrus. Capt. B. Coleman, John Dewey, Miss Marinda Davis, Ephraim Daughty, James Davis, Charles Dewey, Christopher Delemar, B. English, Louisa Foy, Joseph Farrow, Rev'rd J. O. Freeman, Reuben Gray, Freeman Gladding, Thomas Grace, Wm. Good, Euphemia Good, Joseph Hatch, Sidy Hambleton, Wm. M. Heritage John Hall, Jesse Holton, Sarah Hall, Holiday and Tooley, (3) Susan Hatch, Joseph G. Wicker, John Hayes, Wm. M Hubbard, Lemuel D. Hatch, (3) Avelina Hawks, John Hampton, Mary Johnstons Hannah Ives, James Jones, Hanson Kell'y & Co. (2) James C. King, (2) Mary Knock, Levin Lane, (2) Levin B. Lane, Jun'r. George Lester, George Lawrence, William Lawrence, Eliza H. Leigh, Gilford Murphy, Samuel McAfferty, Thomas Morton, Captain M'Kown, Sally R. Mur On the same evening and place irey, William Murphey, Miss . S. Mar shall, William Mookler, Hardy Maccoy, Thomas Murphey, Donum Mumford, Sarah Nuton, Miss Anna Nash, John M Oliver, R. V. Orme, Capt. Wm. Parker, Isaac Pipkin, Jesse Pearce, Rev'd. John Philips, Susan Pendleton, Louis Perritt, Lovick Phelps, Sam'l. Potter, Thomas Packin, (2), John Parker, Wm. Rand Capt. Ricketson, James Roberts, John Slye. John W. Stanly, Daniel Smith, James Saunders, Samuel Sparrow, Thomas F. Simmons, George Strebeck, James Sawyer, Ann Shied, Silas S. tevenson, Abraham A. Shied(3), Pearson Shute, Jno. S. Smith, Betsey Sylvester, Jno. Strong(2) Wm. Searls, Alexander Sledge, John Sanderson Elijah Scott Tho's. Smaw, Elizabeth Stewart, Edmund Smith, Moza H Stephens, Daniel Shackelford, Joseph B.

House of Commons, DECEMBER 18:

Sketch of Mr BADGER'S Speech on the motion to postpone inde finitely the PENITENTIARS BILL MR. BADGER said that be lieving, for reasons which he should state to the House, the Legislature ought not to say at this time that a Penitentiary should be established, he had sub mitted the motion to postpone as the proper means of trying the sense of the House on that question unincumbered by details ; and there was no ground for the dislike of the motion expressed by the gentleman from Rutherford, (Mr. Porter.) It is not as that gentleman imagines giving a side blow to the bill ; it leaves the whole subject open to debate and calls for the decision of the House on the very principle of the measure. The motion, if sustained. declares the opinion of the Legislature that no Penitentiary should be established at this time. If, sir, a majority of the House think thus, why should we be troubled with the details of the bill. If we are determined at this time to reject any bill on this subject, why should the friends of the bill occupy their time and that of the House in proposing and discussing amendments.-Such a course would be not only troublesome but ridiculous. W should be engaged in the silly process of amending that which we were resolved to destroy however amended. To prevent sach a course of inconvenience, and to bring the naked question of expediency before the House, Mr. B. said, was the object of submitting the motion to postpone, and such Mr. B understood to be its legitimate parliamentary use. He had said thus much on the nature of the motion, because if, sir, it be true that this system is erroneous or imperfect, and if the plan exhibited in the bill be c lculated to remove such imperfection and to reform such errors, no one will say more cheerfully than myself, let it be adopted-But as to this I must be permitted to doubt. That our laws are deficient in some cases cannot, I apprehend, be questioned, but that the innovation, designed to be made is the only measure which offers relief or that has even a tendency to afford relief, is not to me so evident-And, sir, until it shall be rendered plain beyond reasonable doubt, that this last proposition is true, however defective or severe our penal laws may be, I shall raise my voice against the alteration contemplated by the bill. The objects to be attained by the infliction of punishment are, first, reformation of the offender, and secondly and principally, the prevention of offences in others. Then, sir, let us enquire whether a Penitentiary or State Prison has a tendency to produce either of these effects. On this question, the information which we possess is indeed scanty. It will be sufficient for my purposeifit shall appear, that on this information, such as it is, the utility of the measure is doubtful. It rests with the advocates of the measure to remove the doubt, by shewing the House, that the operation of the Penitentiary will repress the commissionofcrimes, by reforming offenders & holding out a salutary terror to those who are disposed to offend-I say our information is scanty, for what have your committee, appointed on this very. subject last sear, effected Sir, they have effected nothing. Their report, as a vehicle of information, is indeed worthless. It presents you an imperfect view of the number of crimes for which pros-

	Clement Peck. I T appearing to the Court, that the defendant is not an inhabi- tant of this State, ordered there- fore that publication be made ningty days in the Carolina Feder al Republican, that unless the de- fendant appear at the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to be holden for the County of Craven, at the court-House in Newbers, on the second Monday in March next, and replevy or plead to issue, judgment will be entered up against him. Attest, James G. Stanly, C. C.	T THE BOOK-STORE, Ewell's Medical Companion: reating, according to the most success- ful practice, 1. The diseases common to warm cli- ates and on ship board. If Common cases in surgery, as frac- res, dislocations, %c. III. the complaints peculiar to women children: with a Dispensatory & Glossary o which are added, a brief Anatamy of e human Body; an Essay on Hygeine, the art of preserving health and pro- nging life. An American Materia Med- a, instructing Country Gentlemen in e very important knowledge of the vir- es and doses of our medical plants ;	Thomas B. Wallace, John Whitefoard, Benjamin Wood, [2] Levi Wright, The's E. Wise, Martha Woods T. Watson, P. M. NOTICE. THE Subscriber intending to leave the State about the 1st March, wishes to dispose of his stock of GOODS remaining on hand, either by WHOLESALE or RETAIL, very low for Cash, or on a short credit. Persons wishing o purchase, will do well to call and examine the Goods. NATH'L, SMITH.	an attempt had been made to stamp upon it the character of unfair ness, and thus to excite the pre- judices of the House against its a doption. All idea of narrowing the scope of debate he disclaimed ; and, said Mr. B. the gentleman from Rutherford well knows that he is now at liberty to exam- ine the principles of the bill as fully as if it were now on its pas- sage. The subject on which this bill is designed to operate, is of no or dinary importance. In every country and in every age of the	hcult subject of enquiry, the expe- diency of the measure. they have collected no facts to aid us in our deliberations. The committee, sir may know you better than I do. They have addressed themselves entirely to your avarice they have endeavoured to tempt us to the adoption of the measure, by the hope of profit without entering on the enquiry whether the insti- tution will have a beneficial or an injurious effect on the morals of the people.—Thus without assistance from your Committee in this air.
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------