TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTIES OF CARTER, CRAVEN, JONES, LENOIR, GREENE, JOHNSTON AND WAYNE.

Fellow Citizens.

Some months have elapsed since it has been known that Mr. Gaston, our late worthy and respected representative in Congress declined to serve us again in a situation in which he has obtained for himself and for us the highest honor. A respectable number of my fellow-citizens have thought proper to propose me to your consideration as his successor. Far from being indifferent to this flattering notice, I acknowledge myself sensibly gratified and highly honored by it. But the consciousness of my humble pretensions to fill a situation so important and responsible; the hope that some one of our fellow Citizens of greater ability and experience, would make a tender of his services, and an unwillingness to shock the prejudices, and encounter the sneers of those who might deem it presumption in a mere farmer to aspire to a post of distinction, have caused me to hesitate in my decision:—I yield however to the wishes of my friends, and am a Candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States.

At a time when the political disputes which have heretofore divided us, seem to have ceased to exist, and when in the language of the present President of the United States. "It is gratifying to witness the increased harmony of opinion which pervades the union," it would be improper to say one word calculated to rekindle party animosity. I shall therefore only add as the outlines of my political principles:

That I wish to see the Constitution administered in the pure spirit of its framers, without being warped into subservience to the views of any faction:

That I believe it the duty of Government to protect honest industry in all its branches, and to secure to our agriculture, Commerce and Manufactories an encouragement and support proportioned to their relative importance:

That Economy in the expenditure of the peoples money, and a strict accountability in those who have been entrusted with that expenditure, are the best securities against oppressive taxation:—and that to hold towards foreign Nations an attitude at once honest and firm, respecting their rights while we assert our own, is the course most likely to preserve their friendship and to enable us to sow in peace and reap in plenty.

That Providence may grant us these and every other blessing which a virtuous people may hope for is sincerely desired by Your obedient servant, JESSE SLOCUMB. Wayne County, May 23, 1817.
