Latest from England.

Aug. 29th. The harvest in England is represented to be very promising, notwithstanding considerable damage was anticipated from the great quantity of rain that had fallen.—Advices from all parts of the country are extremely favorable to the crops.

The London ministerial papers contain paragraphs advocating the propriety, and even necessity, of the interference of G. Britain in favor of Spain against her colonies in South America, and it is even mentioned that an engagement to that effect has been entered into between the two powers.—We this day give as many extracts as our time and limits will permit, from papers received at the Merchants' Coffee House. Extract of a letter from William Murdock, Esq. to a Mercantile House in this City, dated. London, Aug. 25.

There are no freights here, either for America nor any other ships; and all the American vessels that come here return in ballast, or nearly so. The productions generally in Europe have been very great. Flour here is now 45 s 50s per bbl. abundant; and in prospect the most plentiful harvest ever remembered. Tobacco continues languid every
