

P O E T R Y.
T O E L L A.

ALIGHTED from the azure sky,
A Seraph stood before my sight,
And checked awhile the anxious sigh,
And pointed to the realm of light.

Celestial youth his features fired,
His eyes the breast with hope inspired, Virtue's own hands his temples crowned,
And glory shed her day around.
'Twas Ella, wrapt in awe I stood,
And thrill'd with joy the vision view'd.
Soft as the gentlest shower descends,
His soothing accents flow'd.
And winding through the maze of song, Joyful eddies poured along,
Till nature sighing—sinking bends,
And life a pause bestowed.

Cease, Ella, cease thy witching song, Nor lure me from the earthly throng;
To frail to shine in virtue's train,
To weak to wake the heavenly strain,
In vain with borrow'd art I soar,
For fickle fancy smiles no more.
The feeble me eor's transient blaze Unnoted sinks in night;
But nature lives in Sol's bright rays
And nations blest his light.

HYDER ALI

IS now in high order, and will stand as formerly at MILTON, the plantation of the subscriber at Batchelor's creek, six miles from this place, being on the maid road to West's ferry, on Neuse river, in order to cover mares, for six pounds the season, or fifty shillings the leap. In cases of mares coming for the leap, it is expected that the money will be sent with them as otherwise the charge will be made for the whole season.

HYDER ALI is a beautiful dark bay, upwards of fifteen hands high. He was got by Old Mark Anthony, his dam by the imported horse Bajazet, his grand dam by Crawford.

The mares that are put to this horse will have the advantage of one hundred acres of good pasture gratis; but the subscriber will by no means be answerable for any accident or escape.

Treasury-Office, April 20, 1791.

TO prevent unsuccessful applications, the Public Treasurer hereby informs those whom it may concern, that until the Agents on the part of this state shall forward from Philadelphia, copies of the muster rolls and of the settlements made by the late board of army accounts, it will not be in his power to carry into effect any part of an act of the late General Assembly which provides for the examination of the Warrenton certificates, and for the allowing other military claims. Whenever he shall be furnished by the Agents with the necessary papers (of which there is no immediate prospect) public notice will be given of the time when this business shall commence.

in the Treasurer's office, by an act of this general assembly, shall have their accounts respectively, properly certified and authenticated, and send the same to the next general assembly, in order that they may decide thereon as shall appear just.

NOW IN THE PRESS,

In pursuance to a resolve of the General Assembly of this State, the first volume of a work, entitled—

OF THE

STATUTES

OF THE PARLIAMENT OF

GREAT-BRITAIN,

WHICH ARE NOW IN FORCE IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

It is well known to all those who possess any degree of information, with regard to the system of laws of this state, that these statutes constitute the principal part of its penal laws and no inconsiderable portion of the rest of its code.

As I make no doubt that many more copies, than those contracted for by the legislature, will be wanted, I have opened a subscription book, at my office only, to receive the names of such gentlemen as may be desirous of becoming subscribers to that work. It is offered to them on the terms on which I have contracted with the legislature, to wit.

I. It will be printed in quarto volumes, on demy paper, and neatly bound.

II. The price will be fifteen shillings for every hundred pages: as no idea can yet be formed of the size and number of volumes.

III. A list of subscribers will be published.

As it is not my intention to raise a sum by this subscription, I shall not ask any advance money from any gentleman particularly known to me, or who is a subscriber to my gazette or my Justice, but to guard against imposition, ten shillings shall be demanded from all other persons.

Applications by letters, by the post or otherwise will be attended to.

FRANCOIS-XAVIER MARTIN.
