Gentlemen who live any distance in the country, by once leaving their measure, can at any time afterwards, agreeable to their order, be supplied in the neatest manner, with fashionable clothes of any description.

Wanted immediately, two or three sober industrious journeyman Taylors, to which the highest wages will be given.
December 5, 1795.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY on Saturday night, the 21st inst. two apprentice boys, one named WILLIAM PROBART, a Taylor about eighteen years of age, five feet two or three inches high, light complexion with short hair; he had on when he went away a long blue cloth coat, green cloth waistcoat, brown holland trowsers and a new felt hat.—The other one is name JAMES PROBART, a carpenter, about seventeen years of age, five feet high, very light complexion and short white hair, he had on when he went away a short blue coat, white waistcoat and striped nankeen trowsers, and both took with them a variety of other clothes. They were seen a few miles below Raleigh five days after they went away, and it is supposed they are gone to Waightstill Avery's Esq. who is their uncle, or towards Maryland, where they have relations.

The above reward will be paid to any person who will deliver or secure the said apprentices so that they may be obtained again; or five dollars for either of them.

WILLIAM HAWLEY.
JOHN DEWEY.

N. B. All Masters of vessels, and others are forwarned from harbouring or carrying them away.
