POETS CORNER.

MR. DAVIS,
S I R,
Please to publish this in your next Gazette, and you will oblige a constant Reader.
WHY flow those Tears, or why those Sighs
Why dim the Lustre of those radiant Eyes?
The Parts well-acted both of Friend and Wife,
Thro' every Scene of thy all blameless Life;
Let conscious Virtue cank'ring Griefs controul,
And calm each struggling Passion in the Soul:
Think, if departed Spirits aught can know
In upper Regions, of the World below,
How can the Man for whom these Tears are shed,
(Dear as he was, irrevocably dead!—)
How can he deem his State compleatly blest
While Sorrow reigns unconquered in your Breast!
Ah! let your Wisdom be to Fate resign'd,
Take Comfort in the Blessings yet behind!
Nor is your Heart of ev'ry Joy bereft;
Your Daughters live, and still one Ed—s left.

The Subscriber's Horse
TELEMACHUS

WILL stand the ensuing Season at Pembroke, four Miles above Newbern, on Trent River, and will cover at the low Rate of Three Pounds the Season, payable if the Party chooses it in Cern, at 15s. a Barrel. He puts up with this easy Mode of Payment with a View to encourage the Gentlemen Farmers of this Part of the Province the more readily to enter spiritedly on this very profitable and public spirited Business of breeding good Horses, as their Neighbours of Halifax, Virginia, and other Places, have done before them. Telemachus is of a most beautiful Colour, 15 Hands high, finely formed, and rising five Years old. He was got by the celebrated Horse Jolly Roger, whose Sire was an Arabian of the highest Character in England; his Dam was the famous Bonny Jane, an imported Mare of the Godolphin Family, whose Performances on the Turf are well known in Virginia! So that tho' this Horse cannot boast of having drawn his first Breath in the much favoured Island of Great Britain, yet it is hoped his Pretensions (next to Bajazett, who he does not pretend to rival) will be thought to stand very fair in the Calendar of Fame. An excellent Pasture for Mares, and good Care will be taken of them, though at the Owner's Risk.
