LONDON,

December 22. On Thursday last died at Wollaton, in Nottinghamshire, the Right Hon Francis Lord Middleton, Baron of Middleton, in the County of Warwick; by whose Death the Title and Estate devolves to his Lordship's only Brother, the Hon. Thomas Willoughby, Knight of the Shire for the County of Nottingham.

We hear that a Battalion from each of his Majesty's Regiment of Foot Guards have received Orders to complete their Companies to the full Complement, and hold themselves to go upon Service if Emergencies should require them.

This morning the Right Hon. Lord Chatham came to Town, from his Seat at Hayes.
