

A NEW SONG.

FREE States attend my Song,
 Now independent on, the British Throne;
 To Earth's remotest Bounds, echoing Hills resound,
 The soft melodious Sound, LIBERTY's our own,
 VIRGINIA's Fields unfold,
 Where our great Fathers bold, intrepid stood;
 On what embattled Plain, the ever glorious Strain,
 Pil'd Hills of Indians slain, pour'd Seas of Blood.
 May haughty Britons feel
 Its dread victorious Steel, make them to fall;
 Crush all the Tyrant Crew, Dogs that our Lives pursue,
 WASHINGTON them subdue, conquer them all.
 GOD bless great WASHINGTON,
 Virginia's warlike Son, and keep him brave;
 Defend him from the Blows, of Howe and all his Foes,
 Guard him where'er he goes, WASHINGTON save.
 May the resounding Prayers
 Re-pierce the yielding Air, thro' the Heav'ns ring;
 O Lord, who Councils sway, on this momentous Day,
 Direct our General's Way, convert the King.
 O Lord, our God, arise,
 Scatter our Enemies, and make them fall;
 May impious Battle cease, grant us eternal Peace,
 And make thy Cause increase, God bless us all.

NORTH-CAROLINA, Craven County, ss.

Whereas I the subscriber JAMES HOBBS, at a general muster in May last, did falsely accuse Capt. William Randal of getting his living by stealing hogs and cattle; I do now declare and confess that the said accusation is false and groundless, and that I am now heartily sorry for having unjustly aspersed his character; and to do him justice, make some amends for the injury, as far as in my power. I do declare to the world, that upon an acquaintance of 12 years I am fully convinced and assured, that the said William Randal is a very honest, good man, and a good neighbour, and that he well deserves the esteem and good will of all good men. WITNESS my hand this 27th day of October, 1778. JAMES HOBBS.

State of North Carolina, Craven County, ss.
 By RICHARD ELLIS, and WILLIAM TISDALE, Esquires, two of the Justices for the said County.

NEWBERN, June 27, 1777.

WHEREAS complaint hath been made to us, by James Davis, that a negro fellow named SMART, very black, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, and very likely, speaks broken English, but very artful and insinuating, is run away, and is supposed to be lurking about committing many acts of felony.

These are therefore to command the said slave forthwith to surrender himself, and return home to his said Master. And we do also require the sheriff of the said County, to make diligent search and pursuit after the said slave, and him having found, to apprehend and secure, so that he may be conveyed to his said Master, or otherwise discharged as the law directs. And the said sheriff is hereby empowered to raise and take with him such power of his County as he shall think fit, for apprehending the said slave. And we do hereby, by virtue of an act of assembly of this state concerning servants and slaves, intimate and declare, if the said slave doth not surrender himself, and return home, immediately after the publication of these presents, that then any person may kill or destroy the said slave, by such means as he or they may think fit, without accusation or impeachment of any crime or offence for so doing, or without incurring any penalty or forfeiture thereby.

RICHARD ELLIS.
 WILLIAM TISDALE.

N. B. 'Tis supposed he is harboured about South River, by one Abel Carter, a free negro, as he has been seen there several times. I will give fifty dollars if delivered to me at Green Spring, or 20 dollars for his head.
 JAMES DAVIS.
