

and Wall-street to Broad-street. On the arrival of the troops at Broad-street, the line will be formed from the head of that street to Mr. Avery's (the President's intended place of residence) and the President will pass the line, and receive the usual military honours.—The troops will again wheel by platoons, and perform the marching salute.

On the arrival of the President at the suburbs of the city, Capt. Ten Eyck will fire a federal salute from the battery, which will be returned from the fort on Governor's island. The shipping in the harbour will, we presume, pay the accustomed compliments on the occasion.

October 19.

The entertainment given by the Citizens of New-York to JOHN ADAMS President of the United States.

In contemplating the rapid progress of an enlightened nation to the summit of public virtue and happiness, there is perhaps no circumstance more deserving of our notice and admiration, than that which evinces the gratitude of a people towards those illustrious personages who have eminently contributed to their prosperity.

Under every period of time of which any annals are preserved, we discover this proper propensity to reward distinguished and useful actions. The manner of conferring these marks of public gratitude, has varied according to the state of Society in which the actions, which were its object, have been performed. The additional incentives which a virtuous mind must feel for devoting its best exertions to the public welfare, are too obvious to be particularly mentioned; and the advantage which results to Society, from a grateful notice of them, is universally acknowledged.

Among a people possessing so extensive privileges—(and those privileges so well secured)—in a nation also equally enlightened as ours, the danger of excessive adoration is reduced to a phantom. It can never be exercised. No man can look for, or obtain, more than the warm yet rational expression of the joy and gratitude of the American People.

Partial ebullitions, illy directed, will occasionally occur among every people: But in a country happily situated as ours; these will be seldom found.—In a cool deliberate appeal to the good sense of Americans, the result will in the end be generally favourable to tranquility and public virtue.

Indulging this idea, we take pleasure in noticing the attention paid by our fellow-citizens to the present chief magistrate of the union.

Agreeable to arrangements, an entertainment was yesterday given to the President, at the New City Assembly Room, Broad-Way.

Upwards of three hundred citizens were seated at this entertainment, prepared by Mr. De la Croix; which for elegance and taste has never been equalled in this city.

The tables, elegantly disposed, presented a tout ensemble which would vie with any effort in any quarter of the world. They consisted of—1. A beautiful Bower of Trees arranged along the table, representing within the principal cities of America, united with a garland of Roses. 2d. A magnificent display in Sugar, at the head of the table, representing a strong golden column with the inscription, "Constitution." On the said column was fixed the figure of Wisdom, having in one hand the bust of President ADAMS, and in the other a garland of roses entwining sixteen columns, representing the States of America, with this inscription—"May these Roses which unite you, be always without Thorns;" the other garland, which united the cities of America, was supported by prudence and fortitude.

In several different places were disposed temples, analogous to the festivity of the day.

The other substantial appendages were such as would be expected: they gave entire satisfaction.

The chair was filled by Richd. Varick, Esq. Mayor of the city. He was supported by Major Gen. Morris, Mr. Lawrence, Senator from New-York, Mr. Dayton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Maj. General Gates, Brigadier General Hughes, and other distinguished characters.

After Dinner the following TOASTS were drank.

1. The United States of America—Prosperity to their Agriculture, their Manufactures, and their Commerce.
2. The Senate and House of Representatives. May they in their deliberations be guided by the best interests of their country; and may they receive the cordial support of their Constituents.
3. GEORGE WASHINGTON—May he long enjoy the Patriots best reward—the affections of a grateful and a happy People. 9 cheers.
4. The State of New-York.
5. JOHN JAY—Governor of the State. 6 cheers.
6. The Nations in Alliance with America: May existing differences be speedily terminated; and the bond of our Friendship be more firmly strengthened.
7. The MARQUIS LA FAYETTE—May the cloud of sorrow which has lately obscured his days be soon dispersed; and may the Sun of happiness gild the remaining hours of his life.
8. KOSCIUSKO—May private Friendship and public Honour soothe the wounds he has received in the cause of Freedom.
9. Public-Gratitude. May it be ever the reward of the firm and disinterested patriot. 9 cheers.

10. Public Good. May it be the invariable pursuit of each American Citizen.

11. Public Spirit. While it rouses us against Foreign Hostility; may it also secure us against Foreign Intrigues. 3 cheers.

12. The State of Massachusetts: our elder Sister, in the Cause of Freedom. May she continue to be the Nurse of Patriots and of Heroes.

[No sooner was this toast announced, than the whole Assembly, with spontaneous enthusiasm, rose and gave nine cheers. Instantly the Music played Yankee Doodle, during the incessant acclamations of the company—at the close of which, the assembly again rose as a man and made the hall resound with cheers and acclamations. This compliment to the President thro' his native State, was extremely delicate, & the more grateful, as it evidently resulted from the voluntary emotions of the moment.]

13. The nations of the Earth. United by one common Nature, may they feel that they have but one common interest—the happiness of each other.

14. The genuine Spirit of Liberty—which breathes Peace and Good will to all mankind. 3 cheers.

15. The Heroes who have fallen in defence of American Freedom. Taught by their great example may we learn that our lives and fortunes are ever at the disposal of our country.

16. The Fair of America. A bumper and 9 cheers.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

By the President of the United States, Prosperity to the citizens of the State of N. York.

By the Mayor, (chairman)

After the President had retired, John Adams, President of the U. States.

By the Vice President, (Mr. C. Sands)

A speedy peace to all the world.

By the Speaker of the H. of Representatives, The Farmer of Mount-Vernon, in his retirement.

By Mr. Edward Livingston, The Colossus of American Freedom—May it bestride the Commerce of the world—and like that of Rhodes, never fall but in a concussion of nature.

By General Hughes, The Memory of Peyton Randolph, the President of the first American Congress.

By one of the Company, Rufus King, our minister in Great-Britain.

NORFOLK, October 26.

Reports were current in town yesterday, said to be received via New-York, of the capture of the ship Charles Carter, Captain Bell, with a cargo of dry goods from London to this port, value about 80 or 90,000l. sterling.—It is said he was taken by a French privateer, about 50 miles to the southward of the Capes.

Within these two days there have been two or three arrivals from the West Indies—their cargoes not very saleable, consisting mostly of American Captains, who have received the fraternal hug!!—How long we shall continue to receive these sweet embraces we cannot divine—but this much we are certain of, that our merchants, as well as our poor seamen, are heartily tired of such dann'd loving squeezing!

FAYETTEVILLE, NOVEMBER 4.

Extract of a letter from Washington county, Virginia, dated October 1.

On Mr. Blount's arrival in Tennessee, a few of his partisans essayed to have him brought forward as a candidate for a Senator. This gave an opportunity for the citizens to see several gentlemen unmasked. The final took place last week, and Judge Anderson and Mr. Jackson were easily elected Senators in the room of Blount and Cocke. This is considered as a fatal overthrow to the cidevant Governor and his plans in Tennessee.

Philadelphia, October 15.—Deaths in the city and suburbs, for the last 24 hours, SEVEN; On the 16th, ELEVEN; 17th, FIFTEEN; 18th, NINETEEN; 19th, ELEVEN; 20th, FIVE; and on the 21st, ELEVEN.

D I E D,

On the 29th ult. Mr. HUGH MACDONALD, late merchant here, much and justly regretted.

NOTICE

IS hereby given, to those who have any demands against the Estate of ARCHIBALD M'KAY, sen. deceased, to present their accounts without delay for payment; and all those who stand indebted, either by bond, note or open account to said Estate, are requested to make immediate payment, as no indulgence can be given.

CATHARINE M'KAY, Executrix.

October 25.

85 3

NOTICE.

THE Schooner FRIENDSHIP, now lying at Wilmington, will sail for Philadelphia with all convenient speed, and return immediately—those who may want freight or passage, will please to apply as soon as possible to SAMUEL VANCE. Fayetteville, November 2.

Fayetteville Prices Current.

dol. c.		dol. c.
Tobacco, per cwt.	7	Hemp, per cwt.	7
Flour, per barrel,	7 50	Jamaica Rum, 4th proof, per gal.	2 0
Corn, per bushel,	45	W. India do. 2d do.	1 60
Pease, do.	70	Northward do.	1 20
Wheat, do.	1 40	Country brandy	1 25
Butter, per lb.	15	Molasses,	100
Lard, none.		Brown Sugar, per lb.	20
Bacon,	15	Loaf do. do.	40
Fallow, do.	10	Coffee, do.	40
Bees wax, do.	25	Iron, do.	9
Deer skins, do.	20	Salt per bushel,	1 0
Cotton in seed,	5	Pork,	13 75
Flax seed,	1 10	Green do.	5
Beef,	6

T H E A T R E.

For the benefit of Mr. GODWIN:

This Evening, (November the 4th,) will be presented an admired Comedy, called

The Beaux Stratagem.

Lord Aimwell, Archer, Sir Charles Freeman, Sullen, Foigard, Gibbet and Boniface by gentlemen for their amusement—and Scrub, by Mr. Godwin. Dorinda, by I. S. Cherry and Mrs. Sullen, by Miss M'Intire.

SINGING by a Gentleman.

To which will be added, an entertainment (taken from the Opera of the DUENNA, called

T H E E L O P E M E N T ;

OR THE

Jew Outwitted.

Don Jerome, Antonio, Don Carlos (with songs), by gentlemen for their amusement—and Isaac Mendoza the Jew, (with a Comic Song) by Mr. Godwin.

Louisa, by Miss M'Intire; and the Duenna, by Y. Z. To conclude with a SONG by DON CARLOS.

TICKETS to be had at R. Donaldson and Co's. store, and of Mr. Godwin at Colonel Dekeyer's.—Box 7/8, Pit 5/.

Mr. Godwin, respectfully solicits Gentlemen, to purchase tickets previous their going to the Theatre, to prevent mistakes in taking money and giving change.

J U S T P U B L I S H E D,

And for sale at the Printing Offices at Fayetteville and Halifax,

HODGE'S NORTH-CAROLINA

A L M A N A C K,

For the Year of our Lord 1798;

Being the second after Biflextile, or Leap Year, and the 22d—23 of American Independence.

Calculated for the State of North-Carolina, being precisely adapted to the meridian and latitude of the city of Raleigh, but will serve without any sensible error for any of the States adjacent.

C O N T A I N I N G

The lunations, rising and setting of the sun, moon, and seven stars, solar and lunar eclipses, remarkable days, festivals, &c.

A L S O

A variety of useful and amusing articles;

A M O N G W H I C H A R E :

THE theft. The perfect beauty. A description of the Orrery lately constructed by Mr. William Thomas, Ast. True honour—Illustrated by Dr. Blair. Parody of Pope's prologue to Cato. To Florella—on the best use of present pleasure—by the late Dr. Doddridge. The Lawyer. Valuable recipe for the yaws, also for rheumatic and obdurate venereal complaints. A recipe for bitters to prevent the fever and ague. A cure for the fever and ague. Cure for the bloody flux. Officers of the executive department of the United States, with their salaries. Members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States. Judges and officers of the Supreme Court of the United States. Brief abstract from the constitution of North-Carolina. State officers of North-Carolina. Judges of the Superior Court of law and equity of the State of North-Carolina. Time of holding the Supreme and County Courts of the State of North-Carolina. Epitaph on a drunkard. The speech of Miss Polly Baker, before a court of judicature in Connecticut, shortly after the settlement of that State; where she was prosecuted the fifth time for having a bastard child. Fish out of water. Characters without the aid of physiognomy. Of litigious men, and quarrels upon slight occasions. The mental and personal qualifications of a husband. Effects of mistortune. Scarce articles. Epitaph on a wine merchant. Elegy on the death of a blacksmith. To-morrow. A recipe for courtship. Fragment of Anacreon. A whim. Anecdotes—a variety. Superstition. The circle of human life. Prosperity and Adversity—An allegory. Contemplations on the commencement of the new year. Schedule of the whole number of persons in the several districts of the United States. A table of the value and weight of coins, with their sterling and federal value. A table of gold coins. Main post roads through the United States, Rates of postage. &c.